

INTRODUCE LAW OF ANCIENT HIGH PRIEST IN COURT

Babylonian Talmud Prepared By Sanhedrin Referred to in Ouster Suit.

Martin L. Sugarman, counsel for S. Rabinowitz, defendant in an action brought by B. Shames to obtain possession of premises at 709 North Sixteenth street, referred Judge George Holmes in municipal court this afternoon to the Babylonian Talmud, an ancient code of law prepared by the Sanhedrin, which was a supreme council of holy priests.

Mr. Sugarman held in his hand a volume of jurisprudence, being an English translation by Rodkinson, and said to have been the first English translation of this ancient set of laws.

Held Up Execution. Mr. Sugarman's point was that his client had not been given his full "day in court" and that the writ of restitution granted to Shames should not be executed until an appeal made by Rabinowitz will have been heard in the district court.

Mr. Sugarman read the following from the Talmud as applicable to his case: "So long as defendant brings evidence to his advantage the decision may be nullified by the court. The defendant has always the right to bring evidence against the decision of the court unless all of his claims are concluded and he himself confesses that he has no more witnesses or any other evidence."

First Time Here. Mr. Sugarman also quoted from Deuteronomy XVI 6, which reads: "At the mouth of two witnesses the matter shall stand." "It is stated that this is the first instance in Omaha of the Talmud being referred in open court to prove the contention of a lawyer for his client.

The case now before Judge Holmes is a motion offered by Mr. Shames, that a writ of execution recently allowed by the judge in his favor against Rabinowitz shall be carried into effect notwithstanding an appeal by Rabinowitz.

Dependent Woman Ends Life on Son's Birthday. Mrs. J. P. Bush, 38, 2803 Bristol street, committed suicide yesterday, her son, John's 15th birthday, by locking herself in the kitchen of her home and turning on the gas jets of the kitchen range. She was found dead on the floor at 5 a. m. by her husband.

Bush told police his wife had been dependent over a stroke of apoplexy she suffered 15 years ago and another last January. He said she had attempted suicide several other times. Mrs. Bush has lived in Omaha for 23 years. Bush is a farm land broker.

Behind the husband and son, John, Mrs. Bush is survived by Kenneth, 17; Wilma, 7; Erlene and Arline, 4; her mother and three brothers. Funeral services will be held in the home Saturday.

You Can't Brush Or Wash Out Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get it at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

Omaha Police Have Clew to Mysterious Texas Disappearance

Clue to the sudden disappearance of J. F. Burchiel, El Paso business man, July 22, which has since mystified Texas authorities, has been obtained by Omaha police through the sale of an automobile alleged to have been stolen and sold in Omaha.

Paul Hamilton, Franklin hotel, Des Moines, sold a Hudson speedster to Joe Lapidus, Auto Exchange, 2039 Farnam street, according to Acting Chief of Detectives Anderson, which has proved to be the car Burchiel bought in Texas two days before he dropped from sight. Hamilton showed Lapidus a bill of sale from Burchiel dated at Des Moines, July 15. Lapidus stopped payment on the $1,000 check he gave for the car and police say Hamilton immediately left Omaha.

Detectives were ordered to arrest Hamilton, following communication with El Paso police, but learned he had checked out of the Loyal hotel, August 28, the day following the sale of the car.

Hamilton's trunk, checked at Union station from Omaha to Chicago, has not yet been claimed. With him at the time of the sale was a woman whom he registered as his wife. She, too, has disappeared, police say.

The Sleeping Car Conductors' union has increased its membership to more than 2,500.

OMAHA WOMAN IS ROBBED AND THEN HELD FOR THEFT

Mrs. William Vogel Loses $2,500 in Daring Robbery And Is Held as Thief.

While enroute to visit her mother in St. Louis last Wednesday, Mrs. William Vogel, divorced wife of Dr. William Vogel, Omaha dental chemist, was robbed of her purse containing money and diamond rings valued at $1,500 in broad daylight on a road leading into Sidney, Ia., and later jailed for an automobile thief suspect when she reported the affair to the town marshal.

According to the story Mrs. Vogel related to Nat Meister, Omaha insurance man and adjuster, she and her chauffeur were on their way to St. Louis and were only a few miles outside of Sidney when the robbery occurred. Mrs. Vogel was standing on the running board of her car while her driver was repairing the engine, when another car, traveling at a high rate of speed and with a man standing on the running board passed the Omaha party. As the speeding car passed Mrs. Vogel, the man on the running board grabbed her purse, which was hanging on her arm.

According to Mr. Meister, when Mrs. Vogel reported the affair to the marshal at Sidney, she was questioned by the latter and later jailed when the marshal discovered a revolver in the Omaha car.

"Mrs. Vogel was traveling by auto to visit her mother in St. Louis and she carried a revolver in the car for protection," said Mr. Meister.

Believing that Mrs. Vogel and her chauffeur were a pair of automobile thieves, the marshal at Sidney jailed them. According to Mr. Meister, the local woman showed her bill of sale for the automobile, but that was not enough to please the officer and Mrs. Vogel was kept in jail for 24 hours.

After telephoning and telegraphing to Omaha, the sheriff of Sidney decided that Mrs. Vogel and her chauffeur were not the pair wanted.

Mr. Meister has assigned detectives to take the case and it is expected that arrests will soon follow.

Mrs. Vogel was divorced from her husband about a month ago. She left again last night for St. Louis by auto.

It is a marvelous portrait of the human body at its best. One beholds in its composite detail a true symbol of strength. It presents a figure of striking appearance in its erect carriage, clear skin, sparkling eyes, strong limbs, steady nerves and firm muscles; fairly vibrating in animation—keen, alert, fresh, and sprightly; with an air of unbounded confidence and a face radiant in color and illuminated with a glow of hope and cheerfulness.

Could Nature have taken you for her model? Suppose you study yourself in the mirror of the present and compare your looks, your feelings and your condition with the general characteristics of this picture of the human body in perfect working order. All parts of which are sound, well organized and unimpeded, performing their functions freely, naturally.

If you fall in any single point of resemblance, you are not the picture of health. It is imperative, then, that you look to a means of building your strength, energizing your will—to bring your body up to a normal state of efficiency in all of its parts.
