

Minister Is Fined for Catching Fish Too Small

Brattleboro, Vt., Sept. 3.—The lure of a trout stream, which caused the Rev. Edward W. Wild of Westminster to absent himself from the sessions of the Northfield (Mass.) conference, brought him a fine of $35 and costs in court here. He was fishing in a brook at Vernon when the sheriff stopped to ask how they were biting.

The fisherman showed a catch of 27 trout in his basket, but the sheriff picked out several and, saying they lacked the necessary length, summoned Mr. Wild to court on a charge of catching short trout. The minister said he had measured the fish by his hand and thought them long enough, but the court imposed a fine.

Father Cursed His Unborn Child, Chicago Mother Says

Chicago, Sept. 3.—A father's curse on his unborn child is the principal allegation cited in a divorce case in Chicago. Henry L. Hertz, former state treasurer, coroner of Cook county and internal revenue collector for the Chicago district, is the defendant in the action.

That her husband pronounced the curse that "he hoped his baby would be brought into the world without legs or arms," is the claim of Mrs. Hertz, who tells a lurid story of the alleged cruelties inflicted upon her. However, the child was born unaffected by her father's unseemly wish.

Women Picket Markets In Boycott on Chickens

New York, Sept. 3.—A strike against chickens is the latest move to bring down the high cost of living, according to about 100 women who picketed the shops of butchers and chicken dealers here in an effort to discourage the buying of chickens until prices are reduced.

The strike was initiated by the joint board of the State Socialist Consumers' league. Fifteen branches of the league have endorsed the strike and urged members to refrain from buying fowl at present and to picket shops where it is sold.

Mrs. Rose Elias, who organized the strike, said that the price of chickens already had been brought down as a result of the boycott.

Eagle Delays Ball Game.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—A Rocky Mountain eagle recently interrupted a ball game here between two fraternal order teams. A batter had just lifted a lusty clout skywards when the bird swooped down and collided with the sphere. Players pursued the eagle, which was caught when it became entangled in a tree. One out!
