

Council Bluffs Society

Wedding.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized last Wednesday evening when Miss Nellie Ingram, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ingram, became the bride of Mr. Harry Ford, formerly a lieutenant of the 42d Rainbow division. The house was a bower of pink and white roses intermingled with asparagus fern. In one corner of the living room a bell of flowers swung from an arch and under this the marriage lines were read by Dr. George Ray of the Second Presbyterian church. This was the third in the Ingram family for whom Dr. Ray has performed the ceremony. The Lohengrin wedding march was played by Mrs. J. W. Beardsley, who also sang "O Promise Me." Mrs. Ford wore her going away suit of dark blue with velvet hat to match and had no attendants. After an informal reception the bride and groom left for points in Colorado.

Garden Party.
Mrs. John G. Woodward invited a number of friends in Wednesday to meet Mrs. A. M. Phelps and Miss Elizabeth Phelps of Heitner, Ore. The afternoon reception the Woodward garden, which is one of the show places of Council Bluffs, and at 5 tea was served on the lawn.

Buffet Luncheon.
Mrs. M. A. Tinley opened the fall and winter activities of the D. A. R. with a buffet luncheon at her home last Thursday. Summer flowers were used in quantities throughout the rooms. Mrs. Tinley is the new regent and a number of very delightful affairs will be given during her regime. Following the luncheon, plans were formulated for a "Business Men's Luncheon," to be given every day during the last week in September at the Eagles hall.

Bridge.
Mrs. I. B. Rohrer had a very enjoyable afternoon bridge at her home last Thursday. Four tables were placed for the game at which prizes were won by Mrs. J. B. Atkins and Mrs. Edith Beardsley.

Kensington.
In honor of Miss Virginia Merritt of Washington, D. C. Miss Gretchen Emkie entertained a number of her friends at an informal Kensington Wednesday afternoon.

House Party.
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McConnell entertained at a house party last week, 17 relatives of Mrs. McConnell's being present. Those who came from out of the city were Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Phelps and Dr. and Mrs. Baskerville and daughter, all of Bellevue, Ia. Dr. and Mrs. M. Phelps and daughter and the Misses Ella and May Randall of Van Wert, Ia., and Mrs. A. M. Phelps and Miss Elizabeth Phelps of Heitner, Ore.

Events to Come.
At least two bridge parties are scheduled for this week. Mrs. F. M. Scarr will entertain at her home Wednesday and Mrs. Robert Lindsay and Miss Cora Quick have issued invitations for Friday at the home of the latter.

Informal Luncheon.
Mrs. I. N. Flickenger entertained informally at luncheon yesterday in honor of Mrs. A. M. Phelps of Heitner, Ore.

Miss Phelps Honored.
Miss Ruth Cooper invited 12 guests to luncheon at the Blackstone Saturday in honor of Miss Elizabeth Phelps, who is visiting in the city.

Country Club Affairs.
More than 100 people had dinner at the cafe last Tuesday evening, reservations from twosomes to parties of 40 being made by over a dozen hosts and hostesses. This was the last regular dinner to be served this season, and it also marked the close of a series of delightfully informal dances held each Tuesday and Friday throughout the summer. Those who entertained on Tuesday included Miss Mayme DeVol, Mrs. Emmet Tinley, Mr. Blaine Wilcox, Mr. Fred Emkie, Mr. Reynolds, Mrs. W. A. Groneweg, Mr. Williamson, Mr. Ted Leary, Mr. C. M. Coleman, Mr. Cardigan, Mr. Reed Flickenger, Mr. Harker and Mr. John Schoentgen.

Luncheon.
Mrs. Charles Officer and Miss Mayme DeVol were hostesses to 40 guests Monday at a luncheon given at the cafe in honor of Mrs. A. M. Phelps and Miss Elizabeth Phelps of Heitner, Ore., who are visiting at the W. E. McConnell home. Baskets of yellow flowers were used as table decorations.

Informal Dinner.
Miss Jane Schoentgen and Mr. John Schoentgen entertained Miss Elizabeth Douglass and Mr. Wilson Douglass at the Country Club cafe for dinner Tuesday evening.

Dinner Dance.
A jolly crowd of 40 from the Council Bluffs and Omaha Kappa Sigma fraternity had dinner together at the cafe Tuesday, and spent the remainder of the evening at the dance. Their table was artistically arranged with summer flowers.

Phi Gamma Delta Dance.
Seventy-five couples attended the dance given at the club Saturday evening by the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. This was in the form of a reunion and men came from Nebraska, Iowa and Missouri to attend.

Golf Tournament.
A great deal of interest is being manifested by the women golfers of Council Bluffs over the tournament which will be held at the club this week. Up until the period of the war a goodly number of our maids and matrons had distinguished themselves with the driver and mashie, but when war work was to be done patriotism conquered and to the closet or attic. In lieu of a plaid skirt, golf hat, stout shoes and sweater our sportswomen donned the canteen uniform of blue, the immaculate white of the surgical dressing rooms, the uniform for motor service or whatever costume was necessary for the particular kind of work allotted to them. Thus golf and all its alluring features were forgotten and many of the women have never renewed their interest in the game until now, when plans for the tournament are bringing back to the links many of the best players and a number of novices as well. Mrs. W. L. Douglas is a very enthusiastic chairman and it remains to be seen who shall be the proud possessor of the cup donated by Mr. W. A. Maurer.

Thursday was the first day appointed for qualifying, and those who appeared on the grounds were Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Wm. Coppock, Miss Elizabeth Quinn, Mrs. B. O. Bruington, Mrs. A. C. Brown, Mrs. John Davis, Miss Pink Beasley, Miss Geraldine Hess, Miss Marian Turner, who has been playing in the Nebraska State tournament; Mrs. Herbert Duquette and Mrs. Raymond Hughes. Others who are contemplating entering are Mrs. Harold Ross, Mrs. Pusey McGee, Mrs. Phil Frester, Miss Dorris Ross and Mrs. E. A. Wickham. This will be an elimination contest, without handicaps.

ing secretary, and Mrs. J. H. Evans, treasurer.

Long Vamps Again

The shoe realm has been affected by France's refusal of the paradise-finished hat. Retailers affirm the short vamp, round toe model, which came to America as a direct Parisian importation, is doomed and that vamps of at least three inches are the demand of the coming season.

Gingham for Cretonne.

Gingham is now being used in interior decorating in the same manner as cretonne. It is very attractive and wears and launders well. It is admirably suited for curtains, cushions and for covering chairs and sofas. Color schemes can easily be carried out with the use of this fabric.
