Americanism Keynote of Clubs

An address by Mrs. Thomas G. Winter of Minnesota, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, delivered at Chautauqua, N. Y., recently, gives a definite idea of the policy of the federation during the coming biennium. Mrs. Winter said:

"Americanism was the keynote of our two years' work until we meet again. In a time of upheaval and hazy thinking and social turmoil these groups of ours can do no greater service than to keep their minds serenely fixed upon the great ideals of America and their hands busy in doing the work that will keep these ideals stable."
