

Brandeis Play House Employees Seek Scale Raise

Theater May Be Forced to Close If Union Demands Are Pressed, Manager Declares.

The high scale of wages demanded by the stage hand, musician and bill poster unions threatens the existence of the Brandeis theater as a combination house, Joy Sutphen, manager, said yesterday.

"The Brandeis theater has not signed a contract with stage employees, musicians or bill posters," said Sutphen this morning.

"The Brandeis theater cannot pay more than $500 a week for stage hands and remain open," said Sutphen. "Stage hands at the Brandeis received a total of $594.50 for the five performance engagement of 'Clarence,' and $524.50 for the 'Scandals of 1920.' Incidentally orchestra costs were $340 for both of these engagements."

According to Mr. Sutphen the scale paid stage hands here is higher than in any city except Kansas City. Stage employees who are heads of departments receive $50 a week and extra men get $2.30 up to $3.00 a performance.

The orchestra leader at the Brandeis theater receives $12 a performance and side men $6, according to Sutphen. Musicians ask a contract guaranteeing 36 consecutive weeks employment whether the theater is open or not, Mr. Sutphen said.

It is known $25,000 a year has been offered for the use of the Brandeis by the Pantages circuit. This is considerably more than the theater is now receiving, but if possible, the management will continue to run it on the present basis, in the belief that Omaha is entitled to one legitimate theater, Mr. Sutphen says.

Homes and Pockets Robbed On Sunday

Burglars, pickpockets and sneak thieves spent a busy Sunday in Omaha.

William Porter, 4821 South Twenty-sixth street, found on his return to his home that a burglar had taken the lock off of the back door of his house and stolen $125 in cash and two suits of clothes. The house was ransacked.

A pickpocket stole a purse containing $2 and car checks from Mrs. F. Franklin, 2503 Michigan avenue, while she was on a downtown street.

The Gunther & Sherry Construction company reported that five barrels of tractor oil were stolen from Fifty-third street and Underwood avenue.

Thousands View Colorful Parade Of Labor Unions

All Omaha Joins In Annual Celebration — Athletic Events Feature Official Program.

Organized labor displayed its strength in the annual Labor day parade which started at the Labor temple, Nineteenth and Davenport streets, at 10 o'clock yesterday, traversed the downtown streets and returned to the starting point.

It was one of the largest Labor day parades ever seen in Omaha, with bands and many special features. Artisans of various crafts marched in uniforms, making a striking appearance. Many thousands lined the street to review the parade.

A. J. Donahoe, president of Central Labor union, was marshal of the day and J. J. Kerrigan was head of the Labor day committee.

Fifteen Bands in Line.

Fifteen bands were in line. There were very few banners except the banners of the various unions and United States flags.

One large banner borne by two men had the legend, "We Are in Favor of the Manufacture of Beer and Light Wines for Home Consumption to Eliminate the Use of Drugs."

There was a large delegation of street railway employees in line. The butchers, in white caps, jackets and aprons, made a striking appearance.

Banks Are Closed.

All Omaha spent at least part of the day in holiday. Banks and public offices were closed and the big stores closed at 1 o'clock.

Parks and other places of amusement were crowded with the holiday makers. The weather being ideal, the picnic spirit was greatly in evidence.

Ringer Overrules Protest of Driver

Police Justified in Arresting Traffic Law Violator, Head of Department Declares.

James A. Quinn, 520 North Twenty-third street, has no justifiable grounds for complaint against the circumstances of his arrest and detention a week ago, Police Commissioner Ringer said yesterday.

Mr. Quinn appeared before the city council to protest against being held in the city jail from 3:30 a. m. until police court convened, without being allowed the privilege of calling a friend to furnish bond.

"My reports from Sergeant Carey and Detectives Herdzina and Risk show that Quinn was driving past the South Side police station at 3:15 a. m., without tail lights, or license plate and he was speeding," said Mr. Ringer. "He was fined $25 in police court. Quinn's own statement to me gives the information that he had taken Hazel Lavin and Bertha McLaughlin to their homes, while to the council he stated that he had taken some friends to a depot. In my judgment the circumstances of the case warranted his arrest by the officers. He was not mistreated. There is no further action for me to take in the case."

Omaha's Death Rate Is Lowest in Country

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls of Mulsified will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.

LETTER FROM MRS. BRUCE

Tells Remarkable Story of Sickness and Recovery.

Brooksbury, Ind. — "When I was a young girl I clerked in my father's store and lifted heavy boxes which caused displacement and I suffered greatly. I was married at the age of eighteen and went to a doctor about my trouble and he said if I had a child I would be all right. After three years and I did get all right but three years later a baby boy came and I was troubled again. I could scarcely do any work at all and suffered for four years. A neighbor told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it for a year or more. Now I have a baby girl and do not have any female trouble. You can do anything you like with my letter to help others." — Mrs. J. M. Bruce, R. F. D. 3, Brooksbury, Ind.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for more than forty years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass.
