O'Kellar Loses To Schmader in Seventh Round

Louisville Boy Wins on Foul Ferguson Gets Draw With Eddie Hart—Rhine Puts Richards to Sleep.

Andy Schmader, Louisville, Neb., heavyweight boxer, was awarded a victory on a foul over Terry O'Kellar, Dayton, O., heavy, in the seventh round of a scheduled 10-round mill Monday night at an athletic show staged by the Douglas County post of the American Legion at Fort Omaha. The Buckeye battler fouled the Cornhusker, twice in the seventh stanza before Referee Fitzgerald stopped the fight.

The bout was an infighting affair from start to finish. Schmader demonstrated that he could jab well, and furthermore, that he had a terrific right hand punch.

O'Kellar Took Some Bad Ones.

O'Kellar suffered both terrific jabs and righthanders from the start to the time he fouled the Louisville lad. Whether or not Schmader can stand up under a hard smash to the jaw remains to be seen. One of O'Kellar's righthanders shook up Andy and he had to fall into a clinch.

Schmader landed a good right to O'Kellar's jaw in the initial round and from then on until the round was finished, jabbed away at the Buckeye's face. The second round was all infighting, but during the third stanza after a few seconds of close jabbing, the scrappers broke from a clinch and each succeeded in shooting across a good blow. The fourth was Schmader's, the Louisville boy jabbing O'Kellar's face in rapid succession. O'Kellar tried hard to start things in the fifth and after jabbing Schmader in the face, caught one of his opponent's righthanders under the jaw and fell into a clinch. In the sixth frame Schmader shot a right to the jaw that made O'Kellar's knees wobble.

The seventh opened with Schmader pushing the fight. While in a clinch, O'Kellar fouled Andy and before the referee saw the low blow, landed another in the same place.

Ferguson and Hart Draw.

Bob Ferguson of Omaha and Eddie Hart of Chicago fought a six-round draw in the semi-windup.

Jack Rhine, fighting his last bout in Omaha, smacked Terry Richards, Milwaukee boxer, in the jaw in the second round of their scheduled four-round mill and the latter was in the land of dreams.

At the start of the second round, Rhine landed a hard blow to the Milwaukee fighter's jaw and then followed with another that floored Richards for the fatal 10.

In the initial preliminary bout of the evening, "Kid" Scavio of Omaha and "Kid" Curtis of Sioux City, slugged through four rounds, ending the bout on even terms.

Previous to the main encounter, Lee Monroe, Kansas City heavyweight, was introduced to the local fight followers. Monroe challenged the winner, as did George Lamson.

Dempsey to Battle Gunboat Smith and Bill Brennan Next

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Sept. 7.—While he was resting in his training quarters yesterday Jack Dempsey said that he and his manager, Jack Kearns, intended to leave here for New York today. They will make their headquarters at the Belmont hotel.

"I expect Kearns to complete arrangements for a 12-round bout with "Gunboat" Smith, to be staged in Boston about the middle of next month," said Dempsey. "Then we will be ready to go through with the Brennan match in New York."

Reynolds Wins Field Club Championship by Beating Jack Hughes

Sam Reynolds won the golf championship of the Field club Monday by beating Jack Hughes and then copped first honors in the Labor day handicap medal play competition. Reynolds won the club title with a 77 and 76, shooting a 37 out and a 40 in on the first 18 and 30 out and a 37 in on the second 18.

Reynolds' score in the first flight of the handicap match was 76, handicap 2, net 74. Gene Vaughn won the second flight with an 86-12-74 and Frank Marks won the third flight with an 84-17-67.

Weishaar Wins 200-Mile Race For Motorcycles

Marion, Ind., Sept. 7.—The 200-mile international championship motorcycle race run on the track near this city Monday, was won by Ray Weishaar of Bridgeport, Conn., in 2 hours, 48 minutes and 37 seconds, or at the rate of 73.63 miles per hour, 7.2 miles faster than last year. Leonard Buckner was second and Jim Davis third.

Former Dartmouth Star Foot Ball Player Dies

Cleveland, O., Sept. 7.—Theron "Steve" Lehman, star fullback of the Dartmouth eleven in 1916 and 1917, died at his home here today from illness contracted during the war. He was 24 years old.

With the Pugs

Cedar Point, Ohio, Sept. 6.—Jack Britton of Chicago, welterweight champion, easily won the decision over Ray Bronson, Sandusky, in a ten-round bout here today.

San Francisco, Sept. 6.—R. L. (Snowy) Baker, Australian boxing promoter, who arrived here from Sydney on the liner Sonoma, announced his purpose to sign up as many American boxers as possible to appear in Australia. He said material was getting scarce there and that those interested in the sport were getting tired of seeing only local talent in the ring.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 6.—Johnnie Neu, of Madison, knocked out Young Abe Attell, of Los Angeles in four rounds.

Providence, R. I., Sept. 6.—Young Montreal, of this city, won a decision over Pal Moore, of Memphis, at Woonsocket today in 12 rounds.

Tilden Wins at Forest Hills; Is National Champ

Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 7.—William T. Tilden, II., won the national all-comers singles championship title yesterday. In a five-set battle, in which he employed his cannon ball service to advantage, the tall Pennsylvanian conquered William N. Johnston, the Californian, who has twice held the title and stood as the playing-through champion of the tournament. The score was 6-1, 1-6, 7-5, 5-7, 6-3.

Tilden had to display the strongest elements of his game to win. In the fourth set, leading at 5-4 on games he was within a point of taking the honors only to have the aggressive Johnston fight him off and win the set. The breaks of the game were with Tilden. He had his greatest streak of luck in the eighth game of the third set when one of his drives, going far out of the court, hit the net post and fell good. Also, he was helped in the final set by a net cord in stroke in one of the critical games.

The unusual thing about the match was that with the exception of one service Tilden was not inclined to make use of his tremendous pace. This was all on Johnston's side of the net. The Californian brought his forehanders into action in many of the rallies, frequently passing Tilden cleanly for the points. He had the Wimbledon winner running in the wrong direction any number of times and until the break came in the fifth set, Johnston appeared likely to pull out of the match.

Lamson Is in Omaha; Has Split With Bert Rossiter, His Manager

Kid Graves, reported in from Walthill, Neb., Sunday evening with the tale that George Lamson, the Indian heavyweight pugilist of that town, and his manager, J. B. Rossiter, vice president of the Winnebago state bank, had parted company and destroyed their contracts, leaving Lamson a free agent at this time.

The Indian came to Omaha Sunday evening to close negotiations for a scrap with Andy Schmader for September 17. Graves had been under contract to Rossiter, but was released when the banker and Lamson parted company.

Graves says he may train Andy Schmader, and if he does he feels he can help Schmader beat Lamson.

Graves says he knows every move the Indian would make in a boxing contest, and that he can prepare Schmader to offset anything Lamson might try against the Louisville boy.

State Base Ball

Grand Island, Neb., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—The twirling of Panzer for Hastings, allowing Grand Island but six scattered hits, and the all around playing of Schuff for the locals, featured today's game with the Grand Island legion.

Hastings	2	0	0	1	0	0	1	0	0	4

Batteries: Panzer and Healey; A. Ziomke, B. Ziomke and Lindekamp.

Lyons, Neb., Sept. 7.—(Special Telegram).—More than 5,000 celebrated Labor day here under the auspices of the American Legion. Hon. J. A. Pritchard of Onawa, Ia., and Herbert Rhodes, county attorney of Tekamah, were the speakers. Rosalie defeated Hooper in a game of base ball by a score of 4 to 5. It was one of the largest crowds that ever attended a ball game in this part of the state.

Central City, Neb., Sept. 7.—Central City defeated Giltner, 4 to 1, in Sunday's ball game on the Central City field. Giltner played errorless ball, but was unable to hit. Nineteen Giltner batters were struck out by Smith. Giltner's only run was secured on an outfield error. Brown pitched a good game, but was ineffective in pinches and all of Central City's runs were earned. This was the deciding contest between the two teams and gives Central City two games out of three.

Batteries: Brown and Hegenbarth; Smith and Wahl.

Fremont, Neb., Sept. 7.—The Sonin's Clothiers beat the Omaha Drive It Yourself in one of the fastest games played in Fremont this year. Struve's pitching in pinches was what saved Fremont.

Sonin's Clothiers—	R.	H.	E.

Batteries: Struve, Ronin; Langer, Schalberg.

Strikeouts: By Struve, 8; by Schalberg, 7.

Greenwood, Neb., Sept. 7.—Greenwood defeated the Armours Sunday, 4 to 3, in a sensational game characterized by Stevens' fielding and Lyck, Zink and Armstrong's hitting. Fitch of Herman pitched a tight game for the locals and Y. Graves got a homer for the Armours. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Greenwood	0 0 0 0 1 4 1 0 1	4	13	2
Armours	1 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 1	2	6	2

Batteries: Fitch, Lyck; Graves, Devine.

Bloomfield, Neb., Sept. 7.—(Special.)—Bloomfield defeated Crofton here Sunday by a 9 to 1 score. The locals scored seven runs in the seventh inning, but the rest of the game was close and interesting. Heires pitched a good game and had a perfect batting record, getting four hits out of four times at bat. Cook also shone at the stick, getting two three-baggers out of three times at bat. The locals have won six straight games and their standing for the season is .722. Bloomfield plays at Wausa next Sunday.
