A Sure Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid aryon from any drug store. This is all you will need, apply it at night when retiring, use enough to moisten the scalp and scrub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all of the dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

For Informal Evening Affairs

By GERTRUDE BERESFORD.

There is just a suggestion of the Spanish influence in this lovely dress of gray georgette. The skirt is designed with two prettily draped aprons that are drawn toward the rear so that a bustle effect is secured. The lower one is outlined with a deep flounce of silver thread lace that gives a dash of brilliance to the frock. The lace is also used for adorning the drooping sleeves.

Problems That Perplex

Answered By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Blackey: You would do well to forget about the fellows long enough to learn to spell such simple words as "coming" and "married." If you haven't backbone enough to tell a boy you don't care to go with him, how can you expect me to advise you? What you need is a little real character; I would give you that if I could.

Engaged, but Not in Love.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: A girl was engaged to a man for a few years, refusing to marry him, as she did not love him, and trying to free herself, but without result, on account of parents' intervention. The writer of this letter, a man of 30, met her at their place of business and fell in love with her.

I am with her every day in the week and mostly every evening I take her home after work, and we are each in love with the other. What can we do? The other man calls on her regularly. H. J. E. If the girl loves you her duty is to tell the first man the facts and break her engagement with him. There is only unhappiness in store for her if she marries without love. However, it is not right for her to go about with you and deceive the first man. By all means let her face the issue and either tell him the truth or give-up. There is no middle course; she cannot carry water on both shoulders.

What's What

By HELEN DECIES.

When he does not hold the center of the stage continuously the man who is "the life of the party" is welcomed by hostess and guests.

Reciprocity holds good in society as in statecraft. If we take something we must give something in return. Many a young man who accepts generous hospitality acts as though he were paying for amusement which does not come up to his expectations. Thus the critic in the background not only refrains from the interchange of bright conversation, but his glum expression indicates his disapproval of the guest, who takes it for granted that people assemble to be entertained, as well as to be entertained.

Mrs. Arthur Livermore, Amelia Bingham of New York, Mrs. Medill McCormick, Mrs. Raymond Robins, Mrs. Fletcher Dohy, Mrs. James Morrison of Illinois, Mrs. Manley E. Fossee, Mrs. Marshall Coolidge, Mrs. C. A. Severance of Minnesota, Mary Roberts Rhinehart of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Alexander Carlisle Pfeiffer of Massachusetts, Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton of Ohio, Mrs. John G. South of Kentucky, Mrs. Jeanette A. Hyde of Utah, Mrs. Margaret Mill Carter of Kansas, Mrs. Katherine Philips Edson of California and Miss Adelaide Park of Connecticut.

If You Are Stout

Sleeves must not be so large as to make the width of the figure capacious, but should be loose enough to conceal the overgrown arm. Skirts should be full enough to hang easily, whatever the style, and should be mounted so that under no conditions will the skirt "poke up" in front.

Probably the only woman in America engaged in the manufacture of nitro-glycerine is Mrs. Claire W. Stokes of Petrolia, Ont., whose factory turns out large quantities of the material, used principally in torpedoing oil wells.

Mrs. William Gates, sheriff of Stephens county, Oklahoma, is the first woman sheriff of the southwest.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE

may eventually give to women rights to which they are entitled but good health, which is the birthright of every American woman, must be hers before she can fully enjoy the privileges which woman's suffrage will bring. Women who suffer from those dreadful pains backache, headaches, irritability, nervousness and depression, symptoms of organic trouble, should rely on Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, to restore them to a normal, healthy condition as it has thousands of other American women.

THE VICTOR VICTROLA

Perhaps the best and truest thing that has ever been said about this machine is that you seldom hear anything but good things said about it.

That's the line of merchandise we carry in every department.

MICKELS

You will enjoy the Caruso concert more if you hear him on the Victrola first, singing the same arias. Caruso appears in concert at Auditorium, October 12th.
