

G. O. P. Outlook Very Favorable, Jefferis Finds

Eastern Trip of Omaha Congressman Gives Him Much Encouragement Over Republican Situation.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 10.—(Special Telegram)—Congressman Jefferis of Omaha, who has been in Washington for the last two days...

Maryland, he thought, would elect a republican United States senator and Harding stood a good show of carrying the state because of the dissatisfaction with Senator...

Senator Hitchcock, in a heated debate over the league treaty, told Senator Moses that he would be agreeable to his people for the position he had taken on the league...

Campaign Fund Probe To Stop Until Sept. 22

(Continued From Page One.) he added, "Furthermore, the substitute, form 102, was not presented at the luncheon in the Union League club in Chicago and I was there throughout that conference."

"I never saw a quota list for cities or any other quota list except that for states prepared in my office," said Mr. Uphaus.

"You assume responsibility for the 'Palom singers'?" asked Senator Pomeroy.

"I do and am proud of the work my ex-Y. M. C. A. campaigners are doing," said Mr. Uphaus.

Tells of Money Raised. Supplementing previous testimony before the committee Uphaus turned over information concerning prevention contributions to the organization.

From December 1, 1913, to June, 1920, Mr. Uphaus said, the committee received $1,835,353.70 from 18,515 contributors. Of this amount $1,365,897.49 went into the committee treasury.

The balance, he said, was sent to states which have an arrangement with the national committee for joint contributions and allocation of campaign funds.

States Owe Committee. The treasurer's figures showed that in eight states—Alabama, Arizona, Indiana, Maryland, Nevada, South Dakota, Tennessee and Washington—the state organizations were indebted to the national committee in amounts from $112 for Nevada, to $14,500 in Maryland.

The largest contributions came from New York, Pennsylvania and Illinois, these states having paid their credit about $1,000,000 of the total.

U. S. Armored Cruiser Aground in Baltic Sea. Washington, Sept. 10.—The armored cruiser Pittsburgh is aground in the Baltic sea three miles off Libau, on the coast of Courland. A report received at the Navy department from Vice Admiral Huse, on board the Pittsburgh, did not indicate whether the vessel was in serious danger.

Polcs Decide On Terms to Be Presented at Riga Meet. Warsaw, Sept. 10.—Decisions relative to the military situation, Lithuania and peace terms to be insisted upon by Poland at the conference with soviet Russia at Riga, were reached at a session of the council of defense Wednesday night, but the government refuses to give any details relative to them.

Deportees Put to Work In Russia Men Expelled From United States as Undesirables Forced to Repair Railroad Beds in Native Land—Several Placed Under Arrest.

Chicago Tribune—Omaha Bee Local Wire. Washington, Sept. 10.—The State department learned from sources it regards as official that the Russian bolshevik sympathizers and undesirable deportees to Russia some months ago by the United States were put to work by the soviet authorities. They were unwilling to perform the tasks assigned to them by the bolshevik officials and were informed that there was an existing Russia machinery operated by the extraordinary commission, for dealing with such cases, an institution that deals primarily with incipient rebellion, and other movements dangerous to bolshevism.

Lord Mayor of Cork Must Die, Final Word

"For not only has the government presented Parliament a measure claiming to represent Irish opinion, any proposals they put forward so long as these proposals include separate treatment for Ulster and do not involve the secession of Ireland from the United Kingdom or risk the military security of these islands in time of war."

Government Is Adamant. The statement from Downing street continues: "The conference of ministers called this morning by the premier definitely decided that the government's attitude will remain unchanged."

Nevertheless it is a fact that Premier Lloyd George returned with the idea of finding a way to release the hunger-stricken lord mayor, but discovered that he will lose the political backing of Parliament and that his cabinet will crash if he reverses his first decision to allow him to die.

"The government," continued the statement, "would positively resign if the king acted for clemency. He will not act, however, because he realizes that it would be impossible to form another cabinet without a general election."

Long Record of Arrests. New York, Sept. 10.—An official record of the case of Lord Mayor MacSwiney, just received in the United States from Dail Eireann, the organ of the Irish Parliament, indicates that MacSwiney was arrested because he was presiding at a Sinn Fein court, but that the British government would not try him on that charge because a large English insurance company was one of the litigants.

The Dail Eireann also gives the history of MacSwiney and the English administration in Ireland. It shows that his arrest was practically a succession of arrests and deportations.

Starvation Threatens Inhabitants of Russia

(Continued From Page One.) because France has a claim on what would be the largest market in Russia for loans to Russia. What the bolshevik really did want, if not formal recognition, was at least the prestige among the Russian masses, that relations among the powers would bring to them, thus strengthening their steadily weakening hold on the people.

"A secondary but none the less real policy, was to take advantage of the presence of the bolshevik emissaries in England to spread bolshevik propaganda, and this was done. Krassin and Kamenoff got in touch with the leaders of labor in England. The organization of the labor council in England was a direct result of their activities. The labor council itself offered evidence of that fact when it insisted upon the removal of the blockade of Russia, the withdrawal of aid to Poland and the Wrangel, and recognition of the Provisional Government of Russia. The labor council also recommended direct action to accomplish its purposes."

No Change in U. S. Attitude. Following official denial yesterday of called reports that the United States was ready to offer economic aid to General Wrangel's government in south Russia, a department official explained that there has been no change in the attitude of the United States toward the south Russian government.

The attitude of the United States toward General Wrangel is one of sympathetic interest, but is not one of approach to recognition, even as a de facto government of Russia, although it has de facto authority over the territories it controls.

Officials believe that Admiral McCully, American representative in the Black Sea, to whom was attributed the promise of American support, had been misquoted or that his talk with south Russian government representatives had been misinterpreted.

Wife of New York Mayor Does Her Own Work, and Likes Job

New York, Sept. 10.—The wife of the mayor of the great city of New York does her own housework and enjoys it.

A report that Mrs. Hylan was taking care of her own home and cooking her meals occasioned considerable flutter among that part of femininity which spends its leisure hours retailing the idiosyncrasies of "the last cook."

"But it is true, Mrs. Hylan herself verified it. She handed out some advice as follows: "Know how to serve yourself and your own family. This is the only safe answer to the servant problem."

"I have been without a servant since early in May. The judge (Mayor Hylan) and myself have done all our own housework because of our lack of home help. On the contrary, we are enjoying ourselves, having a regular picnic."

"When we dine at home there is no maid to interrupt the freedom of our chat and confidence. "We have a great many problems facing us every day, but the servant problem is not one of them. We wait on ourselves and each other and like it."

Wife Alleges Hubby “Has Taken Unto Himself Another Woman Recently.”

Alleging that her husband, Arthur H. Marvin, has taken unto himself another woman very recently and is lavishing his attentions and love upon this other woman, Mrs. Luella May Marvin, filed suit for divorce in district court Friday.

Mrs. Marvin asserts that her husband has given the other woman an automobile and bought her a diamond ring, although he has never given his wife an automobile, she says.

He is the owner of four automobiles and has $20,000 and an income of $5,000 a year, she asserts. Marvin is owner of the Nebraska Imperial Oil company.

They were married at Wahoo, Neb., in 1906. An order was issued in district court, restraining him from disposing of his property during the pendency of the divorce suit.

Minneapolis Labor Chiefs Go to Jail for Contempt. Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 10.—Accepting jail sentences in preference to fines of $125 each, four prominent labor leaders of Minneapolis were placed in the county jail last night to start serving sentences of six months each for contempt of court.

The four are Dan W. Stevens, president of the Minneapolis trades and labor assembly; Leslie Stufton, its secretary; L. W. Thompson, organizer, and R. D. Cramer, editor of the Labor Review. The contempt action grew out of a court injunction restraining the four and others from interfering with the business of a local theater.

Wrangel May Save Russia, Is Belief

New York, Sept. 10.—The armed forces of General Wrangel in south Russia "seem to have found at last the right path" which may lead to Russia's salvation, Prof. Michael I. Rostovtsoff, chairman of the Russian liberation committee in London declared here last night in a discussion of the anti bolshevik movement in his country.

He came to the United States at the invitation of the University of Wisconsin, where he is to lecture this fall. Following an outline of the principles adopted by the government of General Wrangel, Professor Rostovtsoff said that "insofar as the Poles will fight the government of Lenin and Trotsky, and not Russia as such; insofar as they will not aspire to territories where Poles constitute an ethnic minority, Poland and her armies will be considered as friends and associates."

The south Russian government should be rendered all assistance by government and people of the United States if America believes General Wrangel's principles are practical and righteous," the professor said, adding that imperative measures to aid General Wrangel include:

"Assistance to the Wrangel government in munitions and supplies; vast humanitarian assistance to the civil population within the 'liberated regions'; encouragement to commerce which would seek economic relations with Russia and assistance to those Russians who have been compelled to leave their country and are barred from return."

Eastern Companies Charged Here With Misbranding Goods

Two libel suits were filed in federal court Friday afternoon by United States District Attorney Thomas S. Allen, charging the Martin Rudy company of Lancaster, Pa., manufacturers of Madam Dean's female pills, and the Plockham & Witt company of Chicago, wholesale grocers, with misbranding their products.

Attorney Allen charges in his suit against the Rudy company that the firm violated section 8 of the food and drug act.

In the libel suit against the Chicago concern Allen claims that the Boston-Gallagher, wholesale grocery firm of this city ordered five barrels of horseradish style prepared mustard from the Plockham & Witt company, and that when the barrels arrived in Omaha they were found to contain mustard bran and charcoal mixed so as to reduce the strength and affect the quality of the horseradish.

Cox Declares He Is Progressive

Asks Seattle Crowd to Forget He Is Candidate of Political Party This Fall.

Fair Grounds, Spokane, Wash., Sept. 10.—Speaking to a large crowd at the Interstate fair here, Governor Cox said he had come here to know the people.

"I am a progressive. I am a democrat in the broadest sense," the governor continued.

"I come to preach progress and the gospel of peace," he said. "I ask you to forget that I am a candidate of a political party," he said. "Let us assemble as Americans and not as partisans."

Governor Cox reiterated his attacks on the "senatorial oligarchy." The candidate also went over his charges against the republican contribution plan and the republican leaders. He produced his information—the republican treasurer's "official bulletin," the copy of subscriptions to the republican handbook of William Barnes, jr., of New York, whom he dubbed "the Saint Paul of the republican party," as the author of the "republican bible" for 1920.

In his fair grounds' audience, Governor Cox also discussed his charges of the republican contribution quotas. Assistant Treasurer Blair, the candidate said, testified yesterday that the number of cities allotted quotas was 54 instead of 51, as named by the governor in his Pittsburgh address.

Referring to denial of his charges before the senate committee, Governor Cox declared that "he had the right to insist upon enforcement of laws against perjury."
