

Watkins Declares U. S. Doesn't Care For Fund Probe

Prohibition Candidate Declares Not Money, But League, Labor and Liquor Issues.

Hamline, Minn., Sept. 10.—The country at large will not care 30 cents to find out the exact figures, or even the approximate figures, of any campaign fund, said Aaron S. Watkins, prohibition candidate for president, in a speech at the Minnesota state fair today.

"It is said by some that all the national elections since the civil war have followed the line of largest contributions," Mr. Watkins continued.

Takes Rap at Cox. "The fact that the side with the largest campaign fund has usually won may be a case of cause and effect one way or another. It may be true that the party which is on the way to victory may easily secure the largest campaign funds because a going concern always attracts followers and supporters. So that man who calls attention too largely to his opponent's campaign funds may be betraying the fact that the swing is against himself.

The real questions of this year are the league of nations, the labor problem and the extinction of the liquor traffic. On all these questions we believe that the rural population can be reached with reason and will vote in accordance therewith.

Mr. Watkins Devoted the Major Portion of His Speech to Discussion of Rural Problems, the Most Important of Which, He Said, Was the Steady Decrease of Rural Population.

He said that the solution of the question was to "develop a genuine loyalty to the farm. He concluded: "As long as boys and girls on the farm are taught that the great opportunities, intellectual, social and financial, are in the cities, we shall cry out in vain against the exodus from the farm. Whenever we begin to plan the farm as a permanent place to live and the best place to enjoy life, then the farm will be in condition at least to state its problems to the country and to assist in their solution.

George La Rue and Relles Toullun, Alleged Members of an Automobile Ring Which Police Say Has Been in Operation in Omaha for the Past Year, Plead Guilty to Receiving Stolen Property in Central Police Court Yesterday, and Were Held for District Court Trial on Bonds of $2,000 Each.

The stolen car which led to the arrest of the two is said to be the property of Dr. J. W. Osburn, Des Moines. Detective A. B. Walker of Des Moines is now in Omaha making efforts to take La Rue and Toullun back.

The Arrest of the Two Has Implicated Wiley Compton, Jimmy Cosgrove and Frank Wickland, All of Omaha. Compton Was Arraigned Today. He Declared the Whole Thing Was a Frameup. Cosgrove Is Being Held for Further Investigation, but Detectives Doubt if He Can Be Implicated in the Alleged Ring.

Thomas Zacek, State Food Inspector, Has Started a Campaign Against Alleged Uncleanliness in Omaha Restaurants. On His Complaint Louie Ahko, Proprietor of a Cafe at Fifteenth and Farnam Streets, Was Arrested for Sleeping in His Kitchen; George Kazerd, of the Busy Bee Confectionery, 218 South Fourteenth Street, Was Arrested for Using Dirty Ice Cream Cans and Not Having a Screen Door on His Restaurant; and Max Rosenbloom, Saratoga Cafe, 2407 Ames Avenue, Was Arrested for Maintaining Unsanitary Conditions.

Judge Fitzgerald told Ahko to sleep at a safe distance from his kitchen. He told Kazerd to wash his ice cream cans and secure a screen door, then dismissed the two. Rosenbloom said he had already sold his cafe, but the judge insisted it was "just as bad to sell a dirty cafe as to keep it," and fined him $5.

Demo Women to Pay Five Cents for Every Inch of Waist Line
