

Helpful Tips For Press Chairmen

Now that the club season has arrived, and each mail brings notices for the daily and Sunday club page, it is well for the press chairmen to have a little visit with the club editor, if not in person, then through the columns of the paper.

The most essential features of club notices naturally are the name of the organization, the hour, date and place of meeting.

If the sender will sign her name with her address and telephone number it will facilitate matters greatly, as it is possible the club editor may want a news story with pictures in the notice, in which case she will wish to communicate at once with the press chairman and arrange for it. Keep to facts—do not embellish, tell the story simply, but tell it all. Another essential point is the dating of the communication. One may say "the club will meet next Tuesday," but unless it is dated, the club editor is in doubt how long some "hubby" has carried it in his pocket before mailing it.

Always use full Christian name or two initials in giving the name of any one connected with an affair. Do not say "Mrs. Smith will give an address." Give her full title. She will appreciate it.

If possible always send advance notices rather than those of past events. Sunday club notices must reach the editor before 3 p. m. on Friday. When pictures are to be used on the Sunday club page, they must be in the office the Wednesday preceding. Daily copy must have gone through the club editor's hands before 12 noon and should reach her long enough before that hour to allow for preparation for printer.

Many notes reach the club editor's desk, asking if there is a charge for the use of club notes. There is no charge. The department is run for the purpose of promoting the interests of club women, whose work at the present time covers a broad field of endeavor. It is the desire of the club editor to co-operate with the officers and members of every woman's organization in Omaha and the various suburbs.

She does not feel that she is doing the club women a favor by using the notices. She wants to use them, and welcomes the heavy mail which puts her in touch, as later it will put thousands of readers in touch with the worth while activities of the women of today.

Objectionable Positive Manners

Have you the positive manner? It is possessed more often by the woman in the home, the wife and mother and housewife than by any one else in the world. The woman in business or profession, no matter how great her success or undisputed her authority, comes daily in contact with other persons as positive in their opinions and as much entitled to express them as she is. The young girl instinctively feels that she does not gain friends by being too positive, moreover, if she has brothers and sisters she soon learns the folly of it, and any woman bent on winning the admiration of men knows that one of the surest ways to bore a man is by being too much interested in your own opinion.

But the woman in the home, especially if household and family duties have prevented her from mingling much in society and civic matters,
