Cardinals Take First of Series From New York

Giants Unable to Solve Pitcher Haines Until Last Inning-Final Score,

6 to 3.

New York, Sept. 12.—St. Louis won the first of the series from New York today, 6 to 3. The Giants went into the last inning with the score 6 to 0, against them and started a rally which included five hits and three runs. Haines then gave way to Sherdel. With the bases filled, Young was thrown out at first, ending the game. The Giants played poorly in the field and were unable to solve Haines until the ninth inning. In the seventh, Kelly and Bancroft executed a triple play.

The field for the free-for-all trot looks as though there would be plenty of fireworks before the decid-ing heat is finished. Six horses were entered, and five of them are here, as follows:

Single G, 1:59½; Johnny Quirk, 2:03½; Hal Mahone, 2:01½; Royal Earl, 2:05½, and Dolly D, 2:08½. Russell Boy, who was also entered, probably will not be here, as he was racing over the half-mile tracks back east the last I heard of him,

Single G Takes Chew. Single G is in the same good condition as when I saw him last, and was consenting to stand still long enough to have his stable blanket patched when I visited his stall. Later he begged for a carrot, got it, and then accepted a large sized chew of tobacco from his groom. Sterrit and Myers arrived a day or so ago with a string of runners, including Carmelia Miller, Carl Roberts, The Cub and The Cub, Jr. They raced last week at St. Joseph, where Carmelia Miller won the stock yards derby, the feature run of the meet-ing. The mare will start in the derby here, and, judging from her per-formances of the last month, will be a strong contender. A large tent pitched back of the barns in which several "colored gentlemen" were shaving, shining their "kicks" or patching their clothes, & their needs required, and a couple of blacksmiths, busy in front of the stables, gave the final touch to the scene. Surely, it will be a great
