

Divorces Will Burden Courts At Fall Term

Unusual Situation Awaits District Court—Docket Is Exceptionally Heavy This Year.

An immense amount of business is awaiting the fall term of the district court which will open October 4. And a peculiar feature of the court actions this fall is the astounding number of divorce cases.

More than half of all the cases are divorce actions. This is an almost unbelievable proportion.

A check of cases filed during the month of August shows that out of a total of 247 new cases filed in that month, 129 were suits for divorce. There were only 118 civil suits of all other kinds filed in that month. This is a typical month.

Most Divorces Uncontested.
Most of the divorce actions are uncontested. It is the general belief that they are agreed on out of court and the court action has come to be a mere formality to which one of the parties pays no attention. The divorce goes by default.

However, there will be some interesting contested suits such as that of Arthur Leflang, wealthy Omaha business man, against Caroline Leflang.

"Dr." H. S. Kent, who faces three serious charges connected with the placing of two newly-born infants in an abandoned well at Thirty-third and California streets eight weeks ago and who is in the county jail, unable to get bond of $15,000, will face a jury this term.

Another Notorious Case.
Another notorious case scheduled to come to trial is that of Dr. L. S. Fields, local physician, charged with causing the death of Miss Ruth Ayer of Hayes Center, Neb., by an illegal operation, August 8. The girl's lover, Francis W. Alexander, and the nurse in the case, Mrs. Minnie Deyo, are also to be tried for aiding and abetting Dr. Fields in the affair.

A breach of promise suit which is scheduled for this term of court before "12 good men and true" is that of beautiful Gertrude Craig against Joseph Leopold, wealthy grain man. Miss Craig alleges that Leopold proposed marriage to her, showered her with gifts and then didn't carry out the alleged contract. She asks $50,000 from him.

M. F. Shafer's suit for $250,000 against D. W. Geiselman and officials of the American State bank for alleged conspiracy is on the docket for this term of court.

Four Omaha Policemen.
Several criminal cases of wide public interest will probably be tried in the early days of this fall. Claude Nethaway and George Davis, the former tried once and the latter twice for serious crimes connected with the courthouse riot of last September, may come up for trial again. The juries disagreed in all three trials after about a week had been spent in presenting evidence and arguments in each trial.

Four Omaha policemen are scheduled for trial. They are Charles Swan, motorcycle officer, whose motorcycle struck and killed Miss Anna Jensen, a school teacher, on South Thirtieth street, May 7; Heine Bosen and Frank Haley, charged with breaking and entering in connection with the "silk ring" which stole thousands of dollars worth of goods from downtown stores; and Jesse H. Alexander, charged with accepting a bribe.

Work Begins October 4.
Luciano Radicia, Jr., charged with shooting with intent to kill Sam Nanfio, May 1, will be the second case tried. Chief Deputy County Attorney Coffey will try the first case. This is one in which Wylie Compton, alias Harry Compton, is charged with receiving a stolen automobile. Len "Tubby" Clark, charged with highjacking the home of Mahel Crutchfield, 2527 Patrick avenue, April 20, will be tried in the early days of the term.

A jury list of 150 men is being summoned by Election Commissioner Moorhead to report at the court house October 4.

Most of the district judges have been at work all summer with the single exception of Judge Redick, who is on a trip to Europe.

Canoe Club at Beatrice Holds Annual Pageant
Beatrice, Neb., Sept. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—The seventh annual river pageant given by the Neeshaw-she Canoe club of this city here last night was witnessed by a crowd estimated at 15,000 people.

Residents from towns around drove to Beatrice to witness the event.

Thirty beautifully decorated canoes participated in the pageant. The prize winners were as follows: First, Fairlyland, R. H. Furnis; second, Summer, H. W. Ahlmann; third, The Swan, H. S. Ahlmann; fourth, Rose of No Man's Land, Grimes & Stout; fifth, The White Dome, Harry Babin; sixth, Much Ado About Nothing, Mrs. A. D. Green; seventh, Bigninin, Earl Mudge.

It was the biggest and most successful pageant the club has ever held.
