Andy Gump and Old Timer Are Right On the Job at Ak-Sar-Ben Carnival. Min Would Hardly Have Sanctioned All That Her Gay Husband Did, But She Wasn't There to Stop Him.

Oh, Min! If you could only have seen Andy Gump at the Ak-Sar-Ben carnival Monday night, you would never again let him associate with his whiskered friend, Old Timer.

Honest, Min, it was Old Timer that brought four gallons of confetti and started it all.

"Now, Andy, every time you see a girl with one of those open neck sweaters, leave a pint of this stuff down it," he said.

"This is more fun than fishing," said Andy, as he showered one girl after another with the colored scrap of paper.

Thought Him a Scam. The girls all thought Andy was a scam, but now and then a husband would glare at him viciously until it was noticed that he was under the protection of the gigantic Old Timer.

Always learn something when I head into this old town. Passed my deck of Camels to a fine, business-looking citizen in the Pullman dressing room this morning and this opened up a conversation. Listen, Pete, that man talked the Camel language according to Hoyle! 'Camels are the very quintessence of cigarettes', said this party. Pete, get that word? It fits—it spreads the news—it spills the whole Camel story! And, if you don't get what I'm driving to you, look the word up in Webster's! Why, Uncle Dan put it there when he dreamed Camels were coming! That man slipped into one word—mellow-mild-body, no cigarette aftertaste, no cigarette odor—and—the best cigarette in the world at ANY price! Pete, why do you hear men of all types everywhere actually boasting Camels? That's because they know Camels are right! They know from Camels flavor that Camels have the quality—and they know that Camels blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos makes the most delightful cigarette any man ever put between his lips! Old oil well, I'm no gusher, but the way Camels are going to wote and wote men every one of the seven days in every week is a sight to see!
