

Dorothy Belt Is To Be Ak's Queen Jingle Opines

"Senator" Alfred Sorenson Wins Prize in Bee Contest Tuesday With Merry Rhyme.

Dorothy Belt will be queen of Ak-Sar-Ben this year, according to the judgment of "Senator" Alfred Sorenson, winner of yesterday's prize in The Bee's jingle contest. The "senator" jingles as follows:

I long have felt That Dorothy Belt Queen of Quiver should be; Loyal to duty, And a charming lady is she.

Write a jingle about some man or woman who, you think, would make a good king or queen of Ak-Sar-Ben this year. You may win not only the day's prize, but also one of the grand prizes to be awarded when the contest ends.

These are the rules of the contest: 1. No governor of Ak-Sar-Ben or any member of his family is eligible to compete, nor any employee of The Bee or his relative. Anyone else may contribute one or more jingles.

2. The guess must be embodied in a jingle, either a "King's Jingle" or a "Queen's Jingle." It must be written plainly and enclosed in an envelope addressed to the Ak-Sar-Ben Jingle Editor of The Bee.

3. Each jingle must be on a separate sheet of paper, the "King's Jingle" on one and the "Queen's Jingle" on another.

4. The author of the best jingle each day will receive two tickets to Con T. Kennedy's Ak-Sar-Ben carnival shows.

5. The person who guesses correctly the name of the king will receive any $10 article in any Omaha store; the person who guesses correctly the name of the queen will receive a second order for $10 worth of merchandise in any Omaha store.

6. In case two or more persons make the same winning guesses the author of the best jingle will receive the first prize and the au-

What is more appealing to human sentiment than a child at prayer? And doesn't this scene of old age and youth with folded hands, taken from "The Jack-Knife Man" at the Rialto theater this week, bring home memories of another day?

An innovation in the way of entertainment will be tried tonight when the management of the Rialto theater will present an all-night show.

Following the showing of "The Jack-Knife Man," after the electrical parade passes Sixteenth and Douglas streets, Douglas Fairbanks in "The Mollycoddle," will greet the patrons of the Rialto. It will just be

A machine has been invented that makes a paper barrel every 20 seconds from a roll of paper six inches wide, which is split, gummed and automatically formed.

AT THE THEATERS

A Kansas City youngster and stage "extra" Grace La Rue now starring in "Dear Me" at the Brandeis theater, this week, came under the observation of Julia Marlowe, who remembered the youthful westerner after her elevation into a singing part in "The Tourists." On Miss Marlowe's recommendation, Miss La Rue studied elocution with the coach who had instructed Miss Marlowe herself and Maude Adams as well. This line of study proved of great benefit to the young singer. Miss La Rue's delivery of words both sure and spoken has been compared favorably with De Wolf Hopper's who is considered a standard in the dramatic field for clear and telling enunciation.

Ak-Sar-Ben visitors are thronging the Orpheum at every performance. The bill is headed by the liveliest sort of musical revue, "The Spirit of Mardi Gras." Hilarity is distributed by the jazz orchestra of six instrumentalists. There is an array of singers and dancers, chief of whom is Annelie Victoria. Then there is a mystery act. How can a girl of 95 pounds assume the weight of 300 pounds? This she does. No man can lift her. She challenges any man in the audience to stop upon the stage and raise her off her feet. On parade days the Orpheum performance will start as soon as the procession passes the theater.

Concluding performances will be given of the show at the Empress, which has as its featured attraction the comedy satire, "Oh, What a Day." Comedienne of the Jack-Lait. It is seldom a tenor in vaudeville chooses his songs and presents them as does William Smythe, the lyric tenor. The most laughable offering of the bill is that contributed by Hugo Latona, the "Swede Billy Sunday" while Time and Tide present a splendid comedy cycling act.

Ed Lee Wroth and his "Best Show" are making a successful bid for laughter at the Gayety theater all week. The comedian-star is seen again in a series of adventures which have for their central figure, "Higgins," which he has made a burlesque classic. Matinee daily all week. Tonight's curtain will not rise until after the parade has passed.

First Ak-Sar-Ben Parade Is Depicted in Pictures

Colored pictures showing the first Ak-Sar-Ben parade are on display in a show window in the First National bank building on Sixteenth street, just south of Farnam street. The floats of 1895 were horse-drawn, and far less spectacular than the electric pageant of today. The animating idea of the celebration was indicated by a float entitled "The return of prosperity." The conquest of the prairies, the elimination of the grasshopper menace, and the wealth of the harvest were depicted. Samson and all the maids of Quiver were aboard.
