

Brief City News

Prowler Gets $182—A prowler entered the rooms of E. O. Clarke and Norma Smith at 2125 Douglas street yesterday and stole $182 from Clark and $36 from Smith.

Negroes Celebrate Today—Omaha negroes will observe the 58th anniversary of Lincoln's emancipation proclamation today. The day will be marked by neighborhood meetings.

Thursday a Holiday—A proclamation declaring Thursday afternoon a holiday to commemorate the 300th anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims was issued by Mayor Smith yesterday.

Pined For Threat—For threatening his sister, Mrs. Ida Smith, 2922 DuPont street, with an ax, Charles Miller, 2817 Parker street, was sentenced to five days in jail in the police court yesterday.

High To Give Stag Party—The central high school Hi-Y club will give a stag party at the Y. M. C. A. Friday evening for the incoming freshmen boys, at Central High school this semester.

Smash Show Window—Gems and rings valued at $100 were stolen from the show window of J. J. Richter's jewelry store, 1612 Harney street, Monday night. The thieves broke the window with a brick.

Military Drill Suspended—Due to a failure of the government to send officers to take charge of the cadet battalion at Commerce High school, military drill there has been suspended during the fall semester.

To Discuss Improvements—The city council and city planning board will meet this afternoon for further discussion of the eight large improvements, including the St. Marys avenue project, pending before the board.

Ask $350,000 Damages—Damages totaling $350,000 are asked against the city in three suits, despite District Judge Sears' announcement that he would issue an injunction stopping the St. Marys avenue paving project.

Kidnaper Arrested—F. A. Gordon, 3402 Lafayette street, was arrested for kidnapping on the door of J. W. Dill, 1405 Sherwood avenue, early yesterday and charged with drug business. Gordon was seeking the use of a telephone.

Report Denied—Denial that 2,000 negroes had migrated here from the south last month, and that the Omaha Chamber of Commerce had subscribed for the fund to bring them here was made by E. W. Prior, president of the Colored Commercial club.

Damaged By Bath—Suit for $100 was brought yesterday by Dr. G. A. Angus, 3520 Hamilton street, against Clarence Ward, head of the Omaha Auto bath in three suits, despite District Judge Sears' announcement that water left in the gasoline had impaired his car, following an auto bath.

Shawgo Exonerated—Judge Fitzgerald yesterday dismissed Arthur Shawgo, 709 North Seventeenth street, arrested last week on charges that he had assaulted Mabel Noonan, 9, after evidence was brought before juvenile authorities that the child had been forced to tell a falsehood about the affair by her mother.

Condition Serious—The condition of George Herring, 1312 South Fifteenth street, who was struck by an automobile Monday night, was reported still serious at Ford hospital last night.

Want Old Job Back—Former Policemen Peter Hagerman and Victor Lundeen, who were discharged recently, in a letter received by the city council yesterday, ask to be reinstated. No action has yet been taken by the council.

Caretaker Sues Owner—Dr. Thomas E. Dalley, dentist in the Brandeis building and owner of an apartment house at 115 North Fifteenth street, was sued in the district court yesterday for $10,000, by his caretaker, Mrs. Marie Stinson, who charges assault and battery.

Checks Forfeited—About $20,000 in certified checks may go to the city as a result of a resolution adopted by the city council yesterday morning, authorizing forfeiture of these checks given by paving contractors who later refused to sign the contracts awarded them by the city.

Soft Drink Merchant Arrested—James Griffin, a soft drink merchant at 424 North Sixteenth street, was arrested yesterday on a charge of keeping a disorderly house, and is held for investigation by the government. A quantity of illicit liquor was seized at the time of his arrest.

Boy Run Down—Emmett Riley, 12, 2565 St. Marys avenue, was run down and seriously injured yesterday morning while on his way to school, by an automobile driven by F. F. Bell, Palestine, Tex., at Twentieth street and St. Marys avenue, and was removed to the Ford hospital. Bell was charged with reckless driving.

Wants Alimony—Myrtle Smith sued J. Sidney Smith for divorce in district court yesterday. She alleges her husband has been concealing property by transferring it to Miss Ida Thorson in trust for himself. Smith was one of the men indicted in the famous "wild horse" swindling case in federal court several years ago.

Arend Succeeds Bruce—John A. Bruce, city engineer, whose resignation was formally received and accepted by the city council yesterday, effective October 1, will be succeeded in office by A. C. Arend, who has been assisting the city's new building code committee. Mr. Arend's salary will be $400 a month. Mr. Bruce resigned to devote full time to private business.

Robbed in Restaurant—While eating breakfast yesterday at the Golden Star restaurant, Twelfth and Douglas streets, Lee West of Gibson, Neb., reported to police, a bundle containing a pair of overalls, a pair of khaki breeches, two razors, two cartons of cigarettes and other personal effects, was stolen.

Campaign Against Speeders
Is Meeting With Results
Publicity and law enforcement campaign against reckless driving in Omaha is obtaining results, Police Judge Foster told the traffic regulation committee of the Chamber of Commerce at its meeting Monday noon. Fewer accidents have occurred since the opening of the campaign, the judge declared. Judge Foster made suggestions for motor traffic regulation similar to that in use in other cities.

Appointment Ratified
The appointment of O. M. Adams as superintendent of the Board of Public Welfare was formerly ratified by the city council yesterday morning. Mr. Adams started his new work on Monday. He succeeds the late T. H. Weirich.
