

Special Train Of Governor Cox Goes Into Ditch

Spreading Rails Cause Caravan Carrying Democratic Nominee to Leave Track Injuring Three of Party.

Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 23.—Governor Cox's presidential campaign train was wrecked about 4:30 o'clock yesterday, 14 miles north of here, while enroute to Prescott, Ariz.

The democratic presidential candidate and his party were badly shaken when an engine and four extra cars of the special train were derailed, but all escaped serious injury.

The most seriously injured was Charles A. Nichols, engineer of Prescott, who had a leg broken in jumping from his cab when his engine toppled over.

The four forward cars were derailed, the governor's private car, the Federal, at the rear, and the adjoining compartment for his newspaper men, except for its forward part, remaining on the rails.

A baggage coach jumped the track about 15 feet and turned over on its side. Two passenger coaches and another compartment car behind also derailed 10 feet or less from the track and partly toppled over.

The first engine of the double-header, Engineer F. C. Sutton of Prescott said, left the rails first and then jumped on again, but the second engine toppled over, amid a cloud of escaping steam.

The tender of the forward engine also fell over, while the first passenger coach ran the length of the overturned baggage car and jammed its forward end into the trucks.

All of the passengers on all cars were thrown topsy turvy. Some suffered bruises and cuts from flying glass. In the rush to escape several women passengers in the coaches were put through broken windows.

Spreading rails were assigned by railroad men as the cause of the wreck, which compelled the governor and his party to return here and cancel his evening address at Prescott. His future itinerary also was upset.

The accident occurred a half-mile out of Peoria, a village on the Santa Fe railroad, 14 miles north of Phoenix. After Cox made several speeches here, the train, consisting of six cars, and drawn by two heavy engines needed for the upgrade at Prescott, left here at 4 o'clock.

About a half-hour later, while running at a speed estimated at between 35 and 40 miles an hour, the train jarred suddenly, as if in collision, and then application of the emergency brakes, bumping over broken rails and ties and jamming of cars, told passengers the story.

Governor Cox was in the dining room of his private car, going over papers with Dr. Robert C. Goldsmith, his assistant, on the league of nations question, when the crash occurred.

"What's that?" he shouted, rising to his feet, to be thrown heavily across the car, into a steel wall. He was shaken up, but rushed out to assist the injured, and soon was nonchalantly viewing the wreckage, smoking his pipe and waiting for the wrecking train to arrive and take him back to Phoenix.

Of the passengers, including several of the local reception committee of Prescott and Phoenix, Judge E. E. Bollinger, Kingman, Ariz., of the Mojave county, suffered a good deal of bruises and several cuts and lacerations. Personal effects of all members of the train were scattered and broken.

Charles Nichols, the engineer, was taken to Phoenix in a passing automobile and first aid was given to several others. Philip Atton, Prescott, brakeman, who was alone in the baggage car when it turned over, suffered scalp lacerations. The fireman on the second engine was unable to jump and crawled from the wreck without a scratch.

Arrangements were made to have the governor and his party taken from here to Albuquerque, N. M., where he was to speak tomorrow night, by a different route, leaving here at 9:30 p. m. and traveling on the Arizona Eastern line to Deming, N. M.

New York Couple Agree To Divide "Wet Goods" In Divorce Petition

Chicago Tribune—Omaha Bee Leased Wire. New York, Sept. 23.—Mrs. Ella Guthrie Willard, daughter of William D. Guthrie of New York, filed suit against Eugene S. Willard for an absolute divorce.

An agreement to divide all wines, liquors and cordials now stored in the town and country houses has been made, Mrs. Willard said in her complaint. In this agreement Mr. Willard agrees to assume all responsibility that might be incurred under the Volstead act for the removal of his half of the supply. The agreement specifies that Mrs. Willard shall turn over to her husband an inventory of all liquor owned by both parties, wherever it may be. "No mention is made of the value of the stock."

No Price Slump Due to Ford Act, Says Auto Head

C. W. Nash Sees No General Reduction at This Time; Labor and Material Still High.

No general reduction in automobile prices may be expected as the result of Henry Ford's action in cutting the price of the Ford car to a prewar basis, according to C. W. Nash, president of the Nash Automobile company, Kenosha, Wis., who arrived in Omaha yesterday to attend the meeting of Nash salesmen at the local agency.

"There has not been enough reduction in the price of labor and materials to make it possible," said Mr. Nash.

"There has been some reduction in the cost of leather and in lumber, but this will not be reflected in price until materials purchased at the former levels have been disposed of, and even then the reductions will not be sharp."

No Slump Expected.

"The fact that Ford has reduced his cars does not reflect any fall in the cost of materials or labor. Everyone knows that labor has not gone down. None of the other materials which go into a Ford have slumped in cost."

"If the prospective purchaser thinks the matter over he may come to the conclusion that the margin of profit of the Ford company on a war basis has been pretty high."

"It does not mean to say that there will be no reductions. There will be some that are forced on companies not on a more solid financial basis. They will have to get money and as the banks have tightened the lines, they will have to cut prices. Then, too, some makes have no doubt been working on a wide enough margin on war price basis to stand cuts."

Money Tieup Harsh.

"But I do not look for any appreciable reductions in standard makes. I know that as far as the Nash is concerned we could not afford to put out the car we do for any less."

"I think that the original action on the part of the head of the federal reserve district in which Omaha is located in cutting off loans to automobile men was harsh, but I do not believe that the average banker holds any enmity toward the automobile man as a good citizen."

"The banker has a duty to perform at this time of money stringency and the blame in some cases may not lie altogether with him for failure to provide loans."

Girl Struck by an Auto Is Seriously Injured

Dorothy Frey, 7, living near Briggs station, Florence, was struck and seriously injured by an automobile driven by Ivan Root, 3826 North Twenty-third street, Wednesday night at Thirtieth and Fillmore streets, Florence.

The accident was not reported to police, but Officer Phalen checked up the details.

Alleged Omaha Highjacker Sentenced to State Prison

Nebraska City, Neb., Sept. 23.—(Special.)—John Seaton, convicted in the district court in connection with the attempted "highjacking" of the E. A. Duff residence here last May, was sentenced to serve from one to 10 years in the Nebraska state penitentiary by Judge James P. Begley. A motion for a new trial was overruled and Seaton was released on $2,000 bond signed by J. M. Livingston, indigent, it is said by Jimmy Griffin, well-known Omaha man, who was here to look after Seaton's interests. Griffin claimed the two Cadillac cars taken in charge the night of the alleged "highjacking" and they were turned over to him. Seaton said yesterday that his correct name was Frank Keating and that his home was in Omaha.

Automobile Is Stripped In Front of Police Station

H. T. Clark, Twenty-fifth and Newport avenue, has no more faith in police.

Believing the neighborhood of the police headquarters to be the safest place to leave his automobile while he watched the parade Wednesday night, Clark parked his machine right in front of Central station.

When he returned to drive it home, he found two tires and two rims stolen from the machine.

Civil War Vets Recall Scenes of Great Struggle

Marchers Get Great Ovation Along Route of Parade— Many Drop Out Because of Heat.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 23.—Weary from marching, but delighted with their enthusiastic reception, the 15,000 civil war veterans who paraded at the 54th annual encampment of the C. W. R. rode today.

On benches in parks and around the Soldiers and Sailors' monument the veterans talked of their march, and of the days when their hikes were longer.

The parade covered a route less than a mile long, but it taxed the strength of many. A temperature of 85 degrees made marching uncomfortable, and before the parade was finished many were carried to first aid stations to recover from mild heat prostrations.

The marchers were greeted with a warlike enthusiasm. A continuous roar of cheers greeted each contingent.

Daniel N. Hall, commander-in-chief, flanked by the color and standard bearers, reviewed the parade as it passed, the Indiana state capitol.

Illinois Leads Parade.

Leading the procession were members of the Illinois department led by E. M. Armstrong of Peoria, department commander. Following the Wisconsin and Pennsylvania delegations were two former slaves, Charles Wyatt of New Orleans, wearing the army uniform which he wore in the war, and Harry Johnson of Danville, Ill., wearing his wartime navy uniform.

In the Ohio department was Dr. G. T. Harding, father of Warren G. Harding. The old guard of Ohio, marching in full uniform, included at right shoulder and with fixed bayonets, brought roars of cheers.

New York veterans marched by in step calling out the familiar "left, left" as they stepped along. Following came the departments of Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Maine, California, and Rhode Island, Vermont and the District of Columbia.

Nebraskans Next.

The band was playing "Maryland, My Maryland," led by the Maryland veterans, Nebraska, Michigan, Iowa, Colorado, Wyoming and Kansas veterans, the latter wearing large sunbonnets, made up the next division. Delaware veterans came next and then the Minnesota soldiers, who carried a large flag, Departments of Missouri, Oregon, Kentucky, West Virginia, South Dakota, Washington and Alaska, Arkansas, Tennessee, Louisiana and Mississippi, Florida, Texas, Idaho, Arizona, Georgia, Alabama, North Dakota, Oklahoma and the United States veterans, marched by in perfect alignment.

The Hoosier veterans, 1,000 strong, followed the others.

Following the marchers came automobile mobiles carrying veterans unable to march.

The business sessions of the encampment will be held tomorrow when officers will be elected and the city chosen for the next encampment. The encampment will close Friday.

ECZEMA CAUSED YEARS OF INTENSE AGONY

"I have suffered intense agony from eczema on my leg and other parts of my body for years, and received only temporary relief from other preparations. "I've got a hundred testimonials says Peterson of Buffalo just as sincere and honest as this one. Years ago, when I first started to put out PETERSON'S OINTMENT, I made up my mind to give a big box for 50 cents, and I am still doing it, as every druggist in the country knows."

CURED HIS RUPTURE

"I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to say but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation. If you write to Eugene M. Fuller, painter, 714 G. Marcellus Avenue, Manhattan, N. Y., better cut out this notice and show it to any other who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation."

Thousands See "Wet" Parade in Coast City

San Francisco, Sept. 23.—Because a warehouse in which 800,000 gallons of whisky was stored had been robbed twice, the liquor was moved by federal authorities to another warehouse, said to be burglar-proof. Thronged gathered along the streets to watch the procession of trucks. Revenue agents said the parade was watched with looks of mingled awe and dismay.

Six Injured When Two Cars Hurtle Over 60-Foot Bank

Passengers of Two Autos Badly Cut and Bruised When Machines Plunge Into Gulch.

Six persons were injured, two of them seriously, when two automobiles in which they were riding to Omaha to view the Ak-Sar-Ben parade Wednesday, collided at the Ralph Dryden farm, 15 miles east of Council Bluffs, and fell down a 60-foot embankment.

Roy Kraft of McClelland and Maule Kritchard were leaping the Dryden farm, when their automobile crashed into the side of a car in which George and Sidney Palmer, Esther Clatterback and Cecile Rodwell, of Oakland were driving down the main road.

The impact of the collision forced both cars over a 60-foot embankment at the edge of the road. Both cars were wrecked.

All six suffered cuts and bruises and the Clatterback girl's arm was fractured and George Palmer's neck and shoulder severely gashed by windshield glass.

They were taken to Edmondson hospital in Council Bluffs. The other four victims of the accident were taken home.

Farmer, Saving Coin, Tips Bell Boys With Fruit

Scottsbluff Visitor Dispenses Fruit From Gunny Sack He Refused to Part With.

J. C. Dermody, a farmer near Scottsbluff, Neb., had never had much experience with big hotels.

He had read much, however, concerning the necessity of tipping everyone connected with a big town hostelry, and although the sugar beet crop never had been better, the idea of distributing his "root of all evil" to a regiment of bell boys, room clerks and French waiters was far from appealing.

Hence, when he arrived in Omaha Wednesday for Ak-Sar-Ben he carried not only the scarred family suitcase, but a well filled gunny sack as well.

Keeps Gunny Sack.

When he entered the lobby of the Hotel Conant he permitted a bell boy to relieve him of his suitcase, but refused to relinquish the gunny sack.

He marched solemnly up to the desk, deposited the sack on the floor and asked for a room. Dave Young, manager, sensing something unusual, stepped forward to wait on Mr. Dermody. He selected a key and called a boy.

"Hey, just a minute," shouted Mr. Dermody as the boy started toward the elevator. "I want to pay this man for his trouble." He dived deep into the bag and produced two large, rosy apples.

"Grew 'em myself," he explained proudly as he handed them to Mr. Young.

"The bell boy returned to the lobby after 'rooming' Mr. Dermody with two more of the apples.

"Not a Bad Tip."

"Some tip," he grinned, but after taking a large bite he added reflectively that "it wasn't such a bad tip at that."

"That man's solved the tipping problem," smiled Mr. Young. "But if he had to pay for the apples he wouldn't be saving so much. Those apples would cost as much as the average tip a bell boy gets for rooming a man."

"I'm satisfied though," he concluded, as he munched contentedly on his "tip."
