For best results in painting, the undercoat should be a dull finish. Gloss paint should never be put on over gloss.

Golden Wedding Is Occasion For Festivity

A happy occasion was the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Randall, celebrated by a dinner Wednesday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. T. E. Brady. Forty guests attended, including from out of town Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Randall, Moline, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Randall of Council Bluffs; Mrs. George G. Goulder and Mrs. Lynn Seels, Davenport, Ia.; Mrs. Mary Olson, Dixon, Ia.; Mrs. William Pitstick, Sac. City, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schepers and E. S. Randall of Elmwood, Ia. Mr. F. S. Randall is the only surviving member with Mr. R. H. Randall of a family of 12 children. He was a witness at the marriage of his brother 57 years ago.

The home where the festivities took place Wednesday was decorated in yellow and gold. Chrysanthemums and asparagus ferns were used effectively throughout the rooms. Favors were yellow baskets in which forget-me-nots were caught with yellow ribbon. A huge wedding cake was cut by the honored bride. Mrs. S. Hecht played a wedding march and old-time songs were sung by the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall have been residents of Omaha for 15 years. Their two children, both of Omaha, are Mrs. Brady and M. B. Randall. Mrs. M. B. Randall was assisting hostess with Mrs. Brady.

A dinner party was given Thursday evening for the out-of-town guests who are remaining until Friday for Ak-Sar-Ben gaieties.

Miss Dinning A Bride

Mrs. Allan Tukey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Dinning, and Miss Louise Dinning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Dinning, were married at the home of the bride's parents Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Rev. Frank Smith of the First Central Congregational church officiating.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Tukey served overseas during the war. They are very well known in Omaha as prominent members of the young social set.

Only members of the two families witnessed the ceremony. Mrs. Harry Byran of Chicago, who was Miss Lydia Tukey, and Mrs. A. P. Tukey, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Tukey. The bride's parents are her brother, Robert Dinning, completed the family attendant.

The bride wore her going-away gown. After an eastern trip, Mr. and Mrs. Tukey will reside in Omaha.

Formula for Rouge.

If you will rouge, and we all will do so if inclined to be pale, begin in the center of the cheek, toning down toward the cheek bones.

It is the brilliant tone high on cheek bones and near the ears that makes the rouged woman appear grotesque and wins her the appellation of being "painted."

Dust powder over the rouge, toning it down and wiping off lightly so neither rouge nor powder is visible.

Here is an excellent rouge you can prepare at home:

Rice powder, three tablespoonfuls; ochre, one-fourth less, powdered carmine, one-fourth less.

What Is Beauty?

Beauty is not nearly so much a question of certain physical characteristics as it is making the most of those you have. A girl may have beautiful hair, for instance, and utterly devoid of all other good features, yet be referred to as "handsome." On the other hand, the girl with "strings" locks who has a rose-leaf skin may be dubbed "homely." Rarely is a single individual blessed with all the beauty points.

For Ak-Sar-Ben Ball

Mrs. James E. Davidson is chairman of the Coronation ball committee, which means, as everyone familiar with Ak-Sar-Ben ball affairs knows, that Mrs. James E. Davidson is an important personage in the success of that brilliant occasion. Mrs. Davidson claims no credit for the endless number and variety of details which she has had in charge. This does not indicate that she has had little to do, but rather that she has done cheerfully.

A few cents buys "Danderine." After an application of "Danderine" you can not find a fallen hair or any dandruff. Besides every hair shows new life, vigor, brightness, more color and thickness.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are hard of hearing or have head noises go to your druggist and get a box of Farmington (double strength), and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Goggles should be worn, breathing becomes easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to take, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should use this prescription a trial.

To Regain a Healthy, Girlish Complexion

If you would have a clear, fresh, girlish complexion, one ounce of ordinary mercuric iodine will aid you in this direction more than shelves full of cosmetics. It produces a natural beauty. This wax, procurable at any druggist, completely absorbs a had complexion, revealing the healthy young skin underneath. Its work is done so gradually, day by day, that no inconspicuousness is caused. The wax is applied at night, like cold cream, and removed in the morning with soap and water.

Another valuable rejuvenating treatment—this for wrinkles—is to bathe your face in a solution of powdered eosin, one ounce, dissolved in a half pint of witch hazel. This has a remarkable action in smoothing out the lines and "firming up" the loose tissue.

Music Reunites Divorced Parents.

Cupid had commanded music as an effective aid in reconciling estranged couples.

From St. Louis comes the story of a physician and his wife who were divorced last autumn. The father was given the custody of the children with the understanding that their mother was to see them at stated intervals in a music store of which the physician was part owner.

While the mother was visiting her children in the music store recently the father came in. Instantly the thought came to his partner that there was an opportunity to attempt a reconciliation. He put on a phonograph the record of a plaintive song, the burden of which was that the singer realized what it meant to be alone.

The effect was immediate. The doctor and his wife patched up their differences and were remarried. Among the presents at their second wedding was the record with which Cupid effected their reconciliation.

The old custom of legal adoption in the Hawaiian Islands, originating when the tribes were often at war, was intended to bring peace among them. The practice still prevails, and when a child is "spoken for" by some relative or friend, the baby, as soon as it can leave its own mother, will be given to the foster mother and will be regarded as a sacred trust. One mother had eight children, seven of whom were adopted by friends. The mothers are afraid to keep them, if asked for, for fear of harm to the child.

The substantial saving on every piece is just additional evidence of the great Purchasing Power of the Union Outfitting Company, located just out of the High Rent District. As always, you make your own terms.

Do You Know—XVI

Three Questions a Day for the Housewife.

1. What is the difference between green and black tea?
2. How to keep a kettle of frying fat in good condition?
3. How to remove wagon grease from wash clothes?

(These questions will be answered Monday by the Housewife.)

Answers to Yesterday's Questions.

1. More tomatoes are canned in the United States than any other vegetable.
2. Strictly speaking, frying is cooking in deep fat, while cooking food in a frying pan in a small amount of fat is sauteing.
3. Eggs should not be washed until immediately before using; when the shell is washed the egg does not keep so well, hence it is better not to put them in the refrigerator at all, but in a cool place beside the refrigerator.

Makes Hair Fluffy.

To insure fluffiness the hair carefully in tepid water in which you have squeezed the juice of a half lemon. Now, while the hair is drying, massage the scalp with the tips of the fingers, in a circular motion, sitting in the sunshine, if possible. Rubbing a small quantity of vaseline into the scalp at this time is not a bad idea, being careful not to smear the hair. When dry sit before your mirror and study the outline of your face, then see if you are wearing your hair in the most becoming way to you.

Never mind what the prevailing style is. It is not a fad, but becomingness, that counts. If the coronet braided round your head suits your style better than any other, adhere to it.

The Washington College of Law purposes to establish a scholarship to aid girl law students who are without the means necessary to secure their professional education. The scholarship is to be named in honor of the late Belva A. Lockwood, who was chiefly instrumental in securing the legislation necessary to admit women lawyers to practice in the supreme court of the United States.

The Softening Wave.

A little wave in the hair softens the lines of the face. If your hair is not naturally wavy, either have a permanent wave put into your straight locks or do them up at night on one of the new wavers that gives such a natural appearance to the hair.

Unbleached Muslin.

The firm, finely woven quality that some stern housewives use for sheets may supplant the batik craze that has about run its course in Greenwich Village. One short haired young woman, wearied of the smocks of many dabs, is appearing in an unbleached muslin gown sent her from an obscure Kansas town by a little mother who never heard of futurism or the new art in costuming. And because it is refreshingly simple and original other village queens are adopting the mode. It is made in one piece, with a round neck, short sleeves and large pockets, one end of which forms the strap for the belt. The sleeves, neck, pockets and belt are edged with an old fashioned cross stitch in black. On the front and on the pockets are embroidered prim hollyhocks or sunflowers.

Although the New York Telephone company recently increased the wages of the operators, establishing a minimum wage of $15 and a maximum of $25, the bureau of Women in Industry considers it too low and adds that the rate of promotion is too slow to be an incentive for the operators to remain with the company.

Japanese women are fast becoming followers of the western fashion of dress for women and are laying aside their kimonos for the more advanced styles worn by their western sisters.

"FREEZONE"

The greatest masterpiece in the Art Gallery of Life is Nature's "Picture of Health."

It is a marvelous portrayal of the human body at its best. One benefits in his composite detail a true symbol of strength. It presents a figure of striking appearance in its erect carriage, clear skin, sparkling eyes, strong, limber, steady nerves and firm muscles; fairly vibrating in animation, keen, alert, fresh, and spirited, with an air of unbounded confidence and a face radiant in color and illuminated with a glow of hope and cheerfulness.

Could Nature have taken you for her model? Suppose you study yourself in the mirror of the present and compare your looks, your feelings and your condition with the general characteristics of this picture of the human body in perfect working order, all parts of which are sound, well organized and disposed, performing their functions freely, naturally.

If you fall in any single point of resemblance, you are not the picture of health. It is inadvisable, then, that you look to means to rebuild your strength, energy and vigor—to bring your body up to a normal state of efficiency in all of its parts.
