

Poles Continue Persecution of Jews Is Charge

American Investigator Declares Anti-Semitic Pogroms Have Continued Since Armistice.

New York, Sept. 27.—Continued persecution of Jews, with bloodshed and cruelty, in Poland and Hungary is reported by Morris Rothenberg, chairman of the executive committee of the Provisional American Jewish congress, who returned here recently from the Jewish world relief conference in Carlsbad. Mr. Rothenberg declares that attacks on Jews in Poland have ceased at no time since the armistice. He says that while anti-Semitic excesses in Poland were mitigated by the protest meetings held in America, "assaults upon persons and property in a smaller degree continued throughout Poland."

"Gradually these assaults assumed larger proportions," said Mr. Rothenberg, "until within the last few months Jews have found it unsafe to walk the streets. Conditions came to such a state that the Jewish deputies in the Polish Parliament appealed to the minister of war and Minister-President White, who promised that they would take steps to stop these outrages, but nothing was done."

Persecute Jews in Army. Mr. Rothenberg said that during the advance of the soviet armies on Warsaw the Jews readily enlisted in the Polish armies, but that they were attacked and persecuted by the Poles and were given the most filthy and menial work to perform. The Jews complained to the military authorities, but the persecution was not mitigated, he charged.

"Immediately after the first victories all Jewish soldiers were driven from the various fronts," Mr. Rothenberg asserted, "their ammunition was taken away, their uniforms removed, and they were put under guard as though they were offenders. The Polish soldiers began to regard the Jewish soldiers as criminals. Every time the Poles took a city they killed Jews who came their way, and numbers of old Jews were shot without trial. The officers in charge afterward said that they killed bolsheviks. This was a lie. In order to cover these outrages the minister of war issued an announcement that a large number of armed Jewish bolsheviks were found in many cities."

Gave False Reports. This information was fed only to the Poles and was not mentioned in the dispatches for the outside world because it was apparent that these statements could not be substantiated.

Mr. Rothenberg charges that the minister of war and Minister-President Witos refused to see Jewish delegations who called upon them to complain about anti-Semitic outrages. "The spirit of the Jews in Poland is being utterly crushed by these terrible events and they feel that they cannot much longer bear up unless these terrible excesses are stopped," he added.

According to Mr. Rothenberg, 300 Jews have been murdered in Hungary from December, 1919, to June, 1920, and he charges that the officers and soldiers of the white army are the chief perpetrators of anti-Semitic outrages. He said that the "young nationalists" declared that they were willing to stop the pogroms provided laws were enacted that would destroy the Jews economically.

Flogged for Profiteering. "This is now being done," said Mr. Rothenberg. "Laws have been passed punishing profiteering by flogging. But the producers are not affected by this law, it is only the middlemen, which means the Jews. Those who are found guilty are flogged and put in concentration camps and exiled."

Ousting of Jewish civil service employees in Hungary is also reported by Mr. Rothenberg. "Laws are also being passed specifically directed against the Jews without mentioning them," he said, "as for instance licenses of all persons engaged in commercial or industrial pursuits are revoked and application must be made for new licenses which may be issued at the discretion of the department in charge. Such licenses are not being granted to Jews thus utterly preventing them from pursuing their former occupations. A law was passed that only those belonging to military institutions could be admitted to universities. As Jews are not allowed to belong to these formations, Jewish students are unable to get into universities. Many of them have been compelled to go to neighboring countries in order to pursue their studies and are experiencing want and suffering."

has the money come from to buy up these newspapers in the western country? There was not a single newspaper of any size in some of the western states that was publishing the creed that we are preaching in this campaign. Big business, I have charged from the outset, has been making these contributions. If political leaders are disposed to keep the truth from you now, what can you expect as to the facts with reference to the affairs of government if the government is turned into their hands?"

"I shall force this issue until the end of this campaign. I shall charge a deliberate and a corrupt purpose to keep the facts from the people, because if you present the subject of the league of nations to the American people and the men and women give an honest, unprejudiced and nonpolitical expression of their views, the league will be approved by a majority of the electorate in every State in this American union."

"It is a great joy to be a free man in a campaign," continued the governor, "to be under no obligations to large interests. It will be a great privilege to be a free man after March 4."

The governor's opportunism was given play here by his appeal to the church people. He asserted that church members, by impulse and ideals, were in favor of the league of nations; that the church has been unjustly criticized for not having been able to prevent wars in the past.

"We have the voice of God spoken through the religious conscience of the country," he said. "Our spiritual impulse will carry us through and will render it impossible to have more wars."

Referring to "idealistic and humanitarian" reasons why this country should be in the league, he made an appeal to the farmers by holding out the hope that if the United States would enter the league the farmers of Nebraska would receive better prices for their wheat, hogs and other products. He asserted they would receive better markets in Europe.

His appeal to the Irish vote was based on the assertion that if he were president and this country a member of the league, he would bring the Irish question to the bar of public opinion through the league of nations.

He appealed to the sympathies of the gathering by charging that a "deliberate attempt is being made to keep the facts from the people."

Governor Cox repeated most of the arguments which have been stated by the league proponents. The world war was started by a quarrel between European kings and he explained that the provisions of the league covenant would prevent such quarrels being extended into sanguinary conflicts.

Three holdups and several burglaries were committed in Omaha Sunday night, two of the stickups being made by a pair of boy bandits. Victims of the boy bandits were P. M. Houg, 3528 North Twenty-seventh street, who donated $3 to them at the point of a revolver at Twenty-seventh and Evans streets, and John Whalen, 1146 South Thirty-second, who made a donation of $4 and a watch under similar circumstances, at Twenty-fourth and Boyd streets.

Burglars heaved a brick through the plate glass window of the store of Sol Bergman, 409 South Fifteenth street, and stole $150 worth of jewelry.

A stamp machine containing $8 was stolen from the Crosstown drug store, Twenty-fourth and California streets, but the machine, minus the $8, was recovered about an hour later at Twenty-fifth and California streets.

Hans Nielsen, who operates a soft drink stand at 414 North Fourteenth street, reported some one shattered a rear window and stole $8 from his cash drawer.

Cox's Speaking Tour Making G. O. P. Votes, Declares Nebraskan

Chicago, Sept. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—"If there is any suggestion I might make for the betterment of the republican cause," said L. D. Richards of Nebraska at the Auditorium hotel yesterday, "I would say that if the democrats are really hard up for cash, Treasurer Upham of the republican committee should advance them enough to keep Governor Cox on the stump."

"For heaven's sake don't let them stop Cox. He is making votes for us by the wagonload. By all means keep him going."

"Nebraska is what might be termed pathetically republican; way down low it is republican. It is not a doubtful state. The fellows who know say that it will go republican by from 50,000 to 60,000."

Mr. Richards, who was a delegate-at-large to the republican national convention, said that a straw vote taken on the Nebraska special train en route to the G. A. R. encampment at Indianapolis resulted as follows: Harding, 203; Cox, 20; noncommittal, 20.

Victor Rosewater, formerly national committeeman from Nebraska and editor of The Omaha Bee, said yesterday: "Put Nebraska down from 60,000 to 100,000 for Harding and Coolidge. The Nebraska voters are against the entire Wilson administration and want to get rid of it."

"What M. Deschanel needs is complete quiet, repose and calm for his overworked nerves," said Dr. Trepsa.

M. Deschanel entered the sanitarium under the name of Duclou and it was only after the newspapers had published this fact that the personnel of the institution became aware of his identity.

Governor Says Appeal of Demos Is "Deceitful"

In Speech at Crete State Executive Scores Misrepresentation in Regard to Lowering of Taxes.

Lincoln, Sept. 27.—(Special.)—Speaking at Crete Monday afternoon, Gov. S. R. McKelvie characterized the appeal of the democratic state candidates to the tax prejudices of the people as "deceitful."

Governor McKelvie said the voters should concern themselves more about the purposes for which the state's money is spent and the manner in which it is being administered rather than the amount of the taxes. Touching upon the tax question, the governor in his Crete address said:

"I dare say that there is not one taxpayer in a hundred who realizes that only 19 cents out of each dollar of taxes goes to the state, the balance being expended for the support of other units of government. Consequently, the only amount that can be affected by the governor or the legislature is 19 cents out of each dollar. This means that to the taxpayer whose taxes are $100, the possible saving that would be made by a 10 per cent reduction in taxes would be only $19.00."

"This emphasizes at once the deceit of the democrats, who are making their appeal to the tax prejudices of the people. A reduction of 10 per cent in the total appropriations for the state would be at least $1,500,000 and such a reduction could not possibly be made without seriously hampering the building of roads, the support of the state university and other state institutions, and the carrying on of other necessary work in the state, but even if it were made, it is safe to say that very small would be the saving to the average taxpayer."

"Consequently, the thing in which the taxpayer is primarily interested is not so much the amount of his taxes, as the purposes for which the money he is paying is expended, and the manner in which it is being administered."

Woman Goes to Court When Told Hubby Is Gone

San Francisco, Sept. 27.—Lack of geographical knowledge almost broke up the happy home of Mrs. Alta Johnson Meyer, bride of a few months.

H. W. Meyer, aviator, became acquainted with Miss Johnson while flying at Pueblo, Col. They were married and came to San Francisco. One day Meyer told his wife he was going to Santa Rosa to obtain work. A joking friend told the young bride Santa Rosa was in Alaska. She believed it and had a warrant issued for desertion.

The judge was more familiar with geography and after a lesson in that subject dismissed the charge and the Meyers went their way rejoicing.

24 in Camp at Bangor, Me., Await Coming of Christ

Bangor, Me. Sept. 27.—Six men and 18 women, founders of a new religious sect, are in camp on the outskirts of this city awaiting the second coming of Christ. They resemble the famous Millerites, except that they set no exact date for the advent of the millennium.

The party told the police they came to Maine from Pennsylvania. Neighbors have christened them the "Allenbyites," because the new sect believes that General Allenby, when he captured Jerusalem, inflicted a prophecy in the gospel according to St. Luke, and hold that the time has come for the children of Israel to return to Palestine.

Depositors In Banks of Boston Start Heavy Run

Savings Departments of Institutions Invoke Law Demanding 90 Days' Notice to Prevent Withdrawals.

Boston, Sept. 27.—Several hundred persons gathered outside the offices of the Tremont Trust company here today when the doors were opened at 8:45 a. m. 15 minutes before the usual hour, and lines quickly formed before several payers' tellers' windows. After steady withdrawals for nearly an hour, with the crowds increasing, bank officials announced that the law permitted a bank to require 90 days' notice for withdrawals from the savings departments would be invoked forthwith "for the protection of the depositors."

The regulation would be withdrawn "as soon as the public calmed itself," it was announced.

"We have plenty of money to pay everybody," officials said, "and were prepared to do so this morning, but the crowd became so large that it was impossible to handle them and we invoked the law for the protection of depositors."

Other Banks Invoke Law. Opening for business today, the Fidelity Trust company served notice on depositors that its savings department would take advantage of the same law.

Several banks opened their doors with a large amount of ready cash piled high within the tellers' cages as provision against repetitions of the runs which developed Saturday out of the closing of the Cosmopolitan Trust company.

A recurrence of the runs in some degree was anticipated, depositors having become alarmed and, in the case of the Tremont Trust company, having made constant withdrawals from early morning to nearly midnight Saturday, the management extending the closing hour from noon to accommodate them.

Changes Are Ordered. The feeling of uncertainty over the banking situation was the subject of discussion by Governor Coolidge and bankers yesterday, but without announced decision of any contemplated action.

One effect of the close scrutiny of the affairs of local banks which Commissioner Allen has been making, was an order from him to the management of the Old South Trust company to drop from its payroll former Governor McCall and four other officials, including two vice presidents. As chairman of the board of directors of the company, Mr. McCall, who was appointed recently, is drawing a salary of $8,000 a year. The object of the order is to reduce the bank's expenses, although the men named may continue to serve without salary.

The Old South Trust company, closed a year ago, reopened recently after having rehabilitated its finances without loss to depositors.

Man Takes Police Motor to Escape From Detective

Alleged Auto Thief Steals Officer's Automobile Under Latter's Nose In Dash to Freedom.

James Murphy, Omaha detective, is looking for an automobile thief. This is the scenario: Sunday Murphy and Detective Arthur Cooper went to La Platte to take into custody Leo Small, alleged automobile thief, and a car he is said to have stolen in Omaha.

On the return trip, at Sixteenth and William streets, Murphy, who was returning Small in a police car, observed another car which he thought was stolen.

Cooper was driving the recovered car and was quite a distance in advance of Murphy. Murphy got out of the police car to investigate. Just as Murphy was taking a look at the license number, Small gave the police car the gas. Despite that one tire was down Murphy jumped into the car he was investigating and gave chase, but Small had too much start.

Car Is Located. Yesterday the police car was found abandoned at Thirtieth and California streets. Small was arrested for possession of a car which was stolen on August 30 at Krug park. Clyde Allman, living in La Platte, came to Omaha yesterday to claim the car. He was lodged in jail for investigation.
