

Fierce Attack On A. M. A. Launched By Osteopaths

Control of Army, Navy, Public Service, Y. W. C. A., and Red Cross, Charged at Convention.

Charges that the alleged politico-medical machine, known as the American Medical Association, has used its influence to exclude osteopathic physicians from practicing in public hospitals...

"We insist and demand that the osteopathic school be given unlimited freedom under the law to develop its efficiency and to demonstrate its distinctive merits," said Dr. Smith.

"Thousands of American soldiers are returning to civil life with shattered health and crippled bodies as a result of their participation in the war for the preservation of liberty and at the same time they are denied one of the most precious rights of free men—the right to the physician of their choice."

"Wherever the medical school has control of health affairs it assumes the right to enforce its special prophylactic and therapeutic measures upon the people without their consent," declared Dr. Smith.

Dr. Bryon S. Peterson of Omaha, secretary of the association, stated the osteopathic association is only too glad to co-operate with the medical profession.

Other doctors who will address the convention today are: Dr. C. H. Atzen of Omaha, Dr. Minnie Johnson of Lincoln, Dr. Jennie M. Laird of Omaha, Dr. Myrtle Moore of Lincoln, Dr. James D. Edwards of St. Louis, Dr. H. V. Halladay of Kirksville, Mo., Dr. Frank Barger of Sidney and Dr. Frank A. Bates of Geneva.

A banquet will be held this evening at the Hotel Castle. Carl K. Struble will be toastmaster.

Booze Caused Downfall, Declares Bank Cashier

Blaming his downfall on the high prices of contraband liquor, Harry J. Buckeye, 21, former assistant cashier of the State bank at Council Bluffs, Wash., surrendered himself to Omaha police Monday night for forging three checks totaling $865 in Kansas City last month.

He was booked as a fugitive from justice pending arrival of Kansas City officials. He arrived in Omaha yesterday from St. Joseph where he had gone from Kansas City with the aid of friends when he realized what he had done.

Buckeye says his parents live in Canada and have money. He says he hopes they will aid him in this, his first real trouble.

25 Persons Injured In Train Wreck In Arkansas

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 28.—Twenty-five persons were injured, several of them seriously, when two Missouri Pacific passenger trains collided head-on near Malvern, Ark., last night.

Mrs. O. N. Wallace of Ely, Nev., was injured internally. It was said the wreck was due to a misunderstanding of orders. The injured were taken to Little Rock.

South Side

Pajama-Clad Torch Bearer On Way to Heaven, He Says

Garbed in pajamas and a bathrobe, holding aloft a candle in each hand, Elijah Dickson, 3114 Cottage Grove avenue, was arrested yesterday as he stood on the steps of the St. Cecilia cathedral, urging workmen to follow him to heaven.

Police suspect Elijah had been communing with Friend Bacchus. He fought when taken into custody. He was placed in the county jail.

Young Wife and Cash Are Missing, Husband Reports

Anna Monkenen Logos, 19, pretty wife of John Logos, 4826 South Twenty-sixth street, has been missing from her home for three days, her husband reported to police yesterday, asking them to assist him in finding her.

Cox Defends League of Nations Replying to The Bee in His Speech Here

Governor Declares Article 10 Is Essential to Covenant—Says He Does Not Approve of All of Burleson's Administration—Fails to Refer to New Jersey Brewers' Letter.

Gov. James M. Cox of Ohio, democratic candidate for the presidency, brought the league of nations to Omaha last night. Before an audience of almost 3,000 persons he praised the Wilson covenant as having the greatest benefits and no disadvantages.

The republican party, he declared, does not want the democrats to get credit for having brought about world peace, and in this way he explained the opposition of Senator Lodge and the other statesmen in the majority in the senate.

Mr. Cox, although replying to several questions asked by The Bee, did not address the published letter in which the New Jersey Liquor Dealers' association announced it was raising a campaign fund for him as a wet.

"I believe the outstanding issues of the campaign are such that men and women ought not to think as partisans, but meet their civic responsibility as American citizens," he said, in announcing that he stood for "progress and peace," and leaving the issue of the senator Harding stood for poverty and war.

Tells of Compensation Act

As proof of his progressiveness, Governor Cox retold the story of the enactment of a workmen's compensation act in Ohio similar to that in existence in Nebraska and 33 other states. He did not announce any domestic policies of his own, but confined his address to international questions involved in the league of nations.

"In Ohio we found that if government was to hold the confidence of the people, it has to be changed to doing, saving the beats of the people," he said. "Our government had to be of, for and by humanity, and had to be altered as humanity altered. We saved Ohio from the control of big business, and in so doing, saved it from socialism."

Expounds Monroe Doctrine

"I consider the league as the child of the Monroe doctrine. In order that the readers of this paper may know more than its editor probably knows, I'm going to recite in simple language what the Monroe doctrine is. This declares that the other nations of the world shall not trespass on any North or South American country. There must not be any territorial burglary. This is the same principle which is given wider scope in the covenant."

Attacks Harding

At this point Mr. Cox attacked Senator Harding as the leader of reaction in Ohio, and charged he stood for reaction nationally and internationally today. Frequently in the course of his speech he referred heatedly to his republican opponent and his position against the league of nations covenant.

"As soon after March 4 as possible, assuming that a democratic senate is chosen, we will ratify the treaty, accepting any reservation calling attention of the nations of Europe to the limitations of the United States constitution," he announced.

Rev. J. M. Wilson Made Seminary Head Here

Wanted to come under the care of the United States. This question came up in the San Francisco convention and the opinion was that for the present, at least, we ought not assume the Armenian mandate.

Creel's Conduct No Issue

"Do you approve of George Creel's conduct of the publicity bureau?" "That's a live issue out here. With all respect to Mr. Creel, he is in many ways a wonderful man, his bureau has been closed for months, and is not an issue."

Hitchcock Presides

Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock presided at the meeting, and asked the ushers to collect contributions from the audience to pay for the hall. He referred to Mr. Cox as the leader of the democratic party, saying that Wilson stepped down when the nomination was made, and incidentally remarking that if you were the leader of the party until Wilson was named, this reference to the Nebraskaan brought only feeble cheers, which were dwarfed by the ovation for President Wilson that was called out by a reference in a speech of welcome by Mayor Ed. P. Smith.

Refiners in Canada Cut Sugar Price to 19 1/2 Cents

Montreal, Sept. 28.—Sugar refiners announced a cent and a half reduction, making the price 19 1/2 cents a pound. The price of flour today went down 50 cents a barrel, and offered to the public at $13.50 and to the bakers at $13.00.

Oldest Odd Fellow Dies

Des Moines, Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram)—Lieut. Col. Frederick Christianer, 92, oldest Odd Fellow in the state, died at a local hospital yesterday, the result of a cold contracted while attending lodge meeting in Ankeny. He took his first lodge work in 1865.

Leo Bozell, secretary of the Omaha Real Estate board, left today for Beloit, Kan., to attend the funeral of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Roy Bozell.

Negro, In Battle With Officer, Is Shot Four Times

Box Car Robber Suspect Attacks Special Agent—He Is Dying In Bluffs Hospital Now.

Ernest Williams, negro, 29, 5301 South Twenty-eighth street, is dying in Mercy hospital, Council Bluffs, from bullet wounds received yesterday morning in a struggle with James Watson, special agent for the Illinois Central railroad.

Williams, with a companion, were seen in a box car in the Illinois Central yards by Watson while making his rounds. Sighting Watson and his flashlight, Williams leaped on the agent's shoulders and his companion fled.

A struggle ensued between the negro and the agent, in which the officer finally resorted to his revolver, firing five times. Four of the bullets took effect in the negro's head, stomach, right arm and right cheek. The fifth inflicted a flesh wound in Watson's left wrist.

The negro fled into a cornfield. Dr. A. B. Marshall, who filled the office for 10 years, but resigned last May because the work was too heavy. He remains president of the board of trustees and is now pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Clarinda, Ia.

Woman Given Divorce In Bluffs, Is Held For Perjury

Desire Barlow, divorced in Council Bluffs July 7 from Frank L. Barlow, who was arrested two weeks ago in Los Angeles on charges of perjury at the time of her divorce hearing, was returned to Council Bluffs yesterday by Sheriff Groneweg for trial.

At the time of her divorce, she testified she had been living in Council Bluffs two years, one year of which she said she spent at the home of Mrs. Frank Navaska, 3624 Avenue A. Mrs. Navaska denied this.

Des Moines, Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram)—Lieut. Col. Frederick Christianer, 92, oldest Odd Fellow in the state, died at a local hospital yesterday, the result of a cold contracted while attending lodge meeting in Ankeny. He took his first lodge work in 1865.

Des Moines, Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram)—Lieut. Col. Frederick Christianer, 92, oldest Odd Fellow in the state, died at a local hospital yesterday, the result of a cold contracted while attending lodge meeting in Ankeny. He took his first lodge work in 1865.

Des Moines, Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram)—Lieut. Col. Frederick Christianer, 92, oldest Odd Fellow in the state, died at a local hospital yesterday, the result of a cold contracted while attending lodge meeting in Ankeny. He took his first lodge work in 1865.

Des Moines, Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram)—Lieut. Col. Frederick Christianer, 92, oldest Odd Fellow in the state, died at a local hospital yesterday, the result of a cold contracted while attending lodge meeting in Ankeny. He took his first lodge work in 1865.

He was later seen leaving the field one mile away by Ole Olson, Northrup switchman, who notified police. He was captured and taken to Mercy hospital where officials say he will die.

Bluffs Judge Again Sustains School Board

Application of the First National bank, State Savings bank, and E. A. Wickham, of Council Bluffs, for a writ of certiorari in district court in the case against the Council Bluffs school board Monday, was denied yesterday by District Judge Woodruff.

Judge Woodruff declared in his decision he had denied a similar application of Maurer and Wolman last week in the same case and felt this second application was unnecessary and uncalled for in view of his earlier decision.

The application was sought on grounds attacking the November election of 1919 on $475,000 bond issue for the new West End High school.

15,000 Pay to See Ball Game, 8,000 Attend Free Cox Meet

Base ball in Los Angeles the day Governor Cox was there on his western tour netted 15,000 paid admissions, while the governor's meetings, which was free to all comers, had but 8,000 present.

Just sixty dozen House Dresses and Bungalow Aprons in the lot, every one neatly made from first quality Ginghams, Chambray and Percales. Choose from light and dark colors, short or long sleeves, plain or fancy. You'll surely be surprised at these extraordinary values, and when you see them in our windows you'll appreciate the fact that it will be the wise shopper indeed who will be down here early Thursday morning.

Watch Wednesday evening papers for full particulars of this exceptional event. And your friends will appreciate being advised of this big money saving opportunity.

Beddeo Clothing Co. 1417 Douglas St.

HERE'S NEWS THAT EVERY OMAHA WOMAN WILL BE VITALLY INTERESTED IN:

For Rent

Typewriters and Adding Machines of All Makes

South Side Pajama-Clad Torch Bearer On Way to Heaven, He Says

OUR MAMMOTH REMOVAL SALE Gathers momentum as it nears the end. PIANO PURCHASERS! A moment if you please. Don't miss the great bargains to be had in this big removal sale.

OUR MAMMOTH REMOVAL SALE Gathers momentum as it nears the end. PIANO PURCHASERS! A moment if you please. Don't miss the great bargains to be had in this big removal sale.

AUTOMOBILES One Price Cash Sale OF USED CARS AND DEMONSTRATORS DOUBLE DISCOUNT ON EVERY CAR