What's What

By HELEN DECIE.

Of the two high school girls pictured, one at the left is wearing a long-sleeved school blouse of pongee, simply made, with hunter's green satin ribbon running through eyelets around the deep collar and forming the scarf in front. The other girl, who is going to a matinee, wears with her trim blue serge coat and skirt the blouse, as illustrated, fashioned of sheer batiste, with yoke and short-sleeved cuffs of hand embroidery, edged with Val lace.

Simplicity is the keynote of good taste for girls of high school age. Everything may be, and should be, as dainty as possible, but elaboration is bad form. Daughters of refined mothers are not given to the "loud" dressing and flashy jewelry which, among the less well-informed, so often mar the effect of youthful beauty.

Dr. Elizabeth Bass of New Orleans, La., has been chosen head of the Medical Women's National association.

Do You Know—XX

Three Questions a Day for the Housewife.

1. When the grape industry was started in this country?
2. The way to cook prunes to make them most tender?
3. How to cool any liquid quickly if you have no ice?

(These questions will be answered this week by the Housewife.)

Answers to Monday's Questions.

1. Raisins are good food for anyone taking a long walk, because they check thirst and contain also nourishment in a very concentrated form.

2. Pack sliced or shredded pineapples for 24 hours in a covered glass dish on ice.

3. To dry lettuce quickly without breaking place it in a cloth and swing it quickly around.

Fine Arts Society Present Year's Program

The Fine Arts society has a partially assured schedule which it considers the best yet attempted by the society, according to Mrs. A. Darlow, publicity chairman.

Friday, November 12, W. L. George, celebrated author of many books, will lecture on "The Modern Novel."

Monday, February 21, the noted poet, dramatist and essayist, also author of "Abraham Lincoln," John Drinkwater, will lecture on "An English Dramatist's View of Lincoln." Early in February John Livingston Lowes, professor of English in Harvard college, author of convention books and poetry, is assured for a lecture.

In early March Ralph Adams Cram, architect and author, is expected.

For the middle of March it is gratifying to know that Mrs. Douglas Robinson will speak on modern poetry. As is well known, Mrs. Robinson is a sister of Theodore Roosevelt. It was she who seconded the nomination of General Wood in Chicago. It is hoped that this society will be able to secure Gilbert K. Chesterton.

There are other noted lecturers in view which the public and society will be informed about as soon as the final contracts are signed.

Mr. Maurice Block of the Chicago Art institute has been secured as director of the art school. As has been previously stated, this institute will be free from all expense to the student.

Clubdom

Mrs. Charles Hubbard, chairman of the executive board of the Omaha Council of Campfire Girls, has sent out an S. O. S. to all members of the organization asking them to report at the headquarters, room 23, Patterson block, to help tie tags for the Campfire tag day, Saturday, October 2.

The Mothers' Culture Club will open the season Wednesday with a 1 o'clock luncheon, at the home of Mrs. W. H. Indoe, 905 North Forty-ninth street.

The Wamm club will meet for supper Wednesday evening at 6:30. The sewing class will meet Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.; Miss Emma Kissling, instructor.

Members of Alpha Grove No. 2 and new members of Druid Grove, Woodman circle, will be entertained at a social Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, in the new hall, A. O. U. W. building, Fourteenth and Dodge streets.

Draperies Specially Priced For Saturday at Bowen's

That most desired time when you can secure new draperies for your home, when you can "dress up" the interior appearance of the rooms at trifling cost, will occur Saturday, Oct. 24, at the Bowen Store, 16th and Howard streets.

There is no denying the beauty of the immense stock of few draperies shown at this store—neither is there any denying the exceptional values of the draperies offered in our big one-day sale. If you are only looking for a single drape or draperies to be made and hung in several rooms, you will realize an immense saving by buying here Saturday.

Count the number of draperies or curtains you want and be at the H. R. Bowen Co.'s store early Saturday morning. From our large stock there will be no trouble in selecting exactly what you want.

The NEW EDISON
"The Phonograph with a Soul!"

Our Budget Plan Says "NOW!"
Certainly

now. Why wait? Our Budget Plan says you get your New Edison right away, as soon as we can get it to your home.

It says, too—that you don't have to strain yourself in a financial way. It shows you how to regulate your enjoyment expenditure and make room for a New Edison.

You don't feel the purchase when you buy by our Budget Plan. It gets in its best work while you are already enjoying your New Edison.

You Save time by this thrifty way of buying. Save money, too, because you avoid a lump sum expenditure. Don't forget to ask about it.
