Sebastopol, Sept. 30.-Reliable re orts from soviet territory as far east as Rostov on the Don, and as far west as Odessa, indicate that the The red regime is having difficulty in holding its own against the uprisings street, will don a brand new foot of the people despite terrorist methods designed to check counter-revo-lutions.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Petroff, who re-cently escaped from Odessa in a row boat in which they were at sea two days before being picked up by a destroyer and brought here, and a Russian newspaper man who walked ere from Rostov, tell stories remarkably similar, relative to the reign of terror being carried on by the government. The regime, however, is failing to check the revolts

The Petrois say that repeated rebellions are occurring in Odessa and vicinity. The red garrison in Odersa, consisting of 10,000 troops, spends more than half its time outside of the city burning villages where revolutions occur and the soldiers are diverted to such an extent that the reds fear Wrangel would have no difficulty in occupying that place.
