Cleveland Wins American League Pennant by Trimming Detroit

Cleveland Will Oppose Dodgers In World Series BASE BALL DIRECTORY

Indians Trounce Detroit, 10 to 1 and Clinch American League Pennant-Bagby Does the Hurling.

Detroit, Oct. 2.—Cleveland won its way into the world series to-day, taking the American league pennant with a 10 to 1 victory over Detroit. Cleveland needed but half game more margin in the league race to remove the possibility of a tie with Chicago.

The Indians opened their of-fensive in the third inning and sustained it practically throughout the game, coupling it with Oldham's five passes and some poor fielding by Detroit. While Jim Bagby was hit hard, he kept the hits fairly well scattered and was accorded brilliant support. It was his 31st victory of was given an ovation when he stepped to the plate in the first in-ning. He responded with five bril-liant fielding plays and three hits in six times at bat.

Oddly enough, Speaker made the final putout of the game which brought his team the championship. ball, but the manager refused, saying he wanted it as a keepsake. There was little doubt of Cleveland's victory after the third inning, when errors by Jones and Young, combined with singles by Speaker and Gardner, sent in three runs, Burns sent in two more with a double to the scoreboard in the sixth, and Bagby followed in the seventh with a triple to the same place. sending in three runs. Evans scored Bagby with a single. In the eighth, Wood tripled over Flagstead's head and scored on an out.

'Tank" Manley Saves Day for Moore and Newman Stars of Nebraska Attack—Kansans Stage Surprising

Defense.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 2.—(Special Telegram.) — Nebraska university took Washburn college to a 14 to 0 defeat here today in the first game of her 1920 foot ball schedule. The game proved to be more of a contest than Cornhusker rooters and coaches had expected. It took Nebraska the entire first period and business. After that the ball was in Nebraska's possession most of the time. Statistics give Nebraska considerable advantage over the Kan-with their flashy, snappy attack.

Time and again before the Creighton line had drawn together into position the visitors had snapped the ball into play and were skirting the Creighton ends for long gains. It was that very style of play failed. Verne "Dinty" Moore, end that enabled the Dakotans to cross the locals' line in the third quarter.

Cliff Long, sensation of Creighton's 1919 squad, was able to play but 15 minutes, being removed after the stellar game, and his offtackle and end runs were consistent gain. the first quarter with a wrenched ers. Moore was also responsible for the second touchdown in a great de-gree. He carried the ball most of the way down the field and then was sent across for a touchdown. Dick Newman, quarterback, also played a masterful game. He piloted the husker machine with good judgment. Newman made the first touchdown himself on a trick play.

Nebraska backs in their onslaughts by a series of drives, in which Moore figured most prominently. The ball was taken across the down. Day kicked goal again. The score was Nebraska 14, Washburn 0. After a few more minutes of play, Moore was taken out and Schoeppel substituted. Schoeppel, Dale and Hartley carried the ball toward the Washburn goal several times, but were unable to put it across. In the fourth period Stevens intercepted a Nebraska forward pass and threatened to score before he was overtaken by Hartley on Nebraska's 15-yard-line. Washburn was held for downs. The ball see-sawed back and forth considerably during the last few minutes of playing. The game ended with Nebraska in possession of the ball on Washburn's 20-yard-line. The lineup and summary follow:
