Creighton Plays Des Moines. Friday Creighton university jour-neys to Des Moines, where the Blue and White eleven will mix with the Des Moines college team. Des Moines was beaten last Saturday by the Parsons college team at Fairflax, Ia., in a tight game, 7 to 0. This game should be a good battle with Creighton carrying off the long end of the score. Nebraska university will have to uncover some "new stuff" in the next few days if it expects to win over the Colorado Aggies. Saturday the Aggies won over the "Cow-boys" at the University of Wyoming, winning 15 to 0. That Coach Schulte will have his Cornhuskers in fine shape for the tussle can be expected, as the game with Washburn developed the team's points, and also brought to light some very promising material. Commerce Meets Old Rivals. The Commerce-Central game at Rourke park Saturday should prove a real treat. Commerce did not meet Central last season, but felt very confident after the season was finished that it could have defeated the Purple and White eleven if given the chance. Central won from the Bluffs,

38 to 0, last week, while Commerce

At Luxus park will find the South High eleven in battle with the heavy University Place squad. So far the University Place lads have run up a total of 101 points to 15 for their opponents in two games They defeated Lincoln and Havelock High schools, the former, 17 to 15, and the latter, 89 to 0. But Coach Patton's charges are not worrying over the University Place victories and, according to reports, are confident of taking the Lincoln

suburbanites to a trimming. "Y" Handball Meet Will Start Today

While Coach John Riddell's York champs met defeat at the hands of Coach Speer's Normal team, 27 to 0, it was one of the fastest opening games ever staged in the conference Wesleyan Beats Tarkio. A number of teams loom up as possible contenders for the title, namely, Nebraska Wesleyan university, University of Omaha, Grand Island college, Hastings college, Doane and Peru state normal. Wesleyan opened its schedule Saturday at Tarkio, Mo., where it won, to 0. Wesleyan with nearly all of its last year's team, should make a great bid for championship honors. Grand Island in its initial game with the freshmen team showed the effects of good coaching, totaling 60 points to 9 for the freshmen. Hasings and Doane both played practice games with their second string and won handily; these teams with Peru, and University of Omaha will have to be considered in championship circles. Dodgers Lead in Strong Pitchers Robinson's Great Strength in World Series Lies in Arms Of Grimes and Pfeffer.

Reaching our final summary of the world series contenders we find that Brooklyn is predominantly strong in pitchers and Cleveland in batting strength and team spirit. Can Brooklyn's recognized superiority in pitchers offset Cleveland's lineup of ,300 hitters?

A year ago Pat Moran's pitchers turned the trick. But as we write this it becomes more and more evities it becomes more and more evitations. dent that the series of 1919, the only one won by the National league in five years, was not decided strictly on its merits. Whether Cincinnati would have won in 1919 had all the White Sox played their best we are not prepared to say. We know the dope all pointed to Chicago last fall. Mails Another Kerr?

Caldwell has been of little use to Cleveland in its last drive for the American league flag, but when Bagby and Coveleskie are right, they rank with the best pitchers in the game. Duster Mail, once Dodger, has been the sensation of the closing weeks of the race and may be the Dickie Keer of 1920.

The Dodger staff, however, possesses the advantage of having been rested a full week before the start of the series, just about enough to enable them to freshen up for the big test. Cleveland has been obliged to fight to the finish, and both Bagby and Coveleskie have shown signs of overwork. The entire Brooklyn team finished the season much fresher than Cleveland. Some of the Indians, especially the veteran Doc Johnston, have become jaded from the hard grind.

Indians Outhit Dodgers. The figures show that Cleveland outhits Brooklyn, 300 to 276, and also is a more consistent fielding combination, the Indians' fielding average being 976 against 967 for average being .976 against .967 for the Dodgers. Brooklyn has made 31 more errors. There is little to choose between the clubs in base-running, as Cleveland has only 56 steals against 57 for the Dodgers. In extra base hitting Cleveland has a tidy lead in doubles and homers; the Dodgers lead in triples.

We recall that before the 1919 series Kid Glesson remarked of Cin-
