

Woman Is Killed, Children Trapped When Car Upsets

Former Omaha Resident Instantly Killed When Auto Turns Turtle Breaking Her Neck.

Mrs. L. H. King, former Omaha resident, was killed and her two daughters, Ruth, 3, and Mildred, 7, narrowly escaped death when the automobile Mrs. King was driving Monday afternoon plunged over a 20-foot embankment a quarter of a mile east of Elkhorn, Neb., and pinned the occupants beneath the car.

Her Neck Broken.

She had evidently tried to save the child as the car turned over. Ruth was pinned to the ground by one of the doors. Neither was crying.

Mrs. King's neck was broken and her skull fractured. The county authorities were notified. Mrs. King was identified by a grocery bill in her purse dated at Doniphan.

Mrs. King was driving the children in to Omaha from Elkhorn, Neb., where she had been with her husband, who is an auto parts salesman.

Didn't See Accident.

Mrs. King was attempting to drive around some tar kettles used in the construction of a pavement when the car skidded in some loose dirt and went over the embankment. Members of the paving crew, some 200 yards away, failed to see the accident.

Mrs. King's body was taken to an undertaking establishment at Elkhorn and the husband notified. The children were taken to the office of T. N. Burk at Elkhorn.

Hairs Will Vanish After This Treatment

(Toilet Helps) You can keep your arms, neck or face free from hair or fuzz by the occasional use of plain delatone, and in using it you need have no fear of marring or injuring the skin. A thick paste is made by mixing some of the powdered delatone with water. Then spread on the hairs, and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and all traces of hair have vanished. Be careful, however, to get real delatone.

Banks List Towns Hit by Car Famine

One Elevator In Seward County Says Only One Car Received Since Sept. 17.

Numerous instances of car shortage in the country towns of Nebraska are being collected by the banker of Omaha in response to the request of the interstate commerce commission for specific information on where grain is unable to be moved to market. One elevator in Seward county, containing thousands of bushels of grain, has not had a car since September 17, Luther Drake of the Merchants National bank, was notified yesterday.

Indication of a growing stringency in the grain movement are found in the case of Ulysses, where the three elevators were furnished with 24 cars in July, 16 in August and only 12 in September. John W. Gamble, vice president of the First National bank, received a letter from Ogallala, where business men say they do not know how bills will be met if relief from the blockade does not come. Eight or 10 cars a week, they say, would ease matters. At Venango, where 800 carloads of farm products await shipment, only eight or 10 cars a week are supplied.

BABY NAMED LYDIA E.

Because Her Mother Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I could not write all my thanks for your blessed medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in a very bad condition and had lost two babies. One of my good friends told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and after I had taken eight or ten bottles I felt like a different woman. I kept on taking it until my baby girl was born last month and we have had her christened Lydia Elizabeth. I wish you to publish my letter to benefit other women who are suffering as I was."—Mrs. KATHERINE KURZBAKER, 1048 Manhattan Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Women who suffer from any feminine ailment should not lose hope until they have tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The many convincing testimonials constantly published in the newspapers ought to be proof enough for women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine they need.
