HARDING AND THE LEAGUE. If a further statement of his position on the League of Nations issue had been required, Senator Harding fairly met the demand in his address at Des Moines on Thursday...

On this point Senator Harding is emphatic. He could not make his position any plainer than he has in these words: I do not want any one to be misled...

As to the future of the general plan, Senator Harding is equally explicit. He points out the splendid situation of the United States in its disinterested relation to the problems of the world...

Senator Harding is the candidate of that party, obligated morally by every promise contained in the platform. As an honest man, a sincere patriot, a warm-hearted sympathizer with the world, for America first, yet not indifferent to the call from humanity...

From Romance to Reality. Romance was one perpetual joy ride for C. N. Williamson, the English novelist, whose death has just been announced...

Estimating Its Value. George Creel's public information bureau during the war cost $8,245,249.65. And our judgment is that it was worth every cent it cost except the $8,245,249.

May Unload Him Yet. We feel sorry for the New York woman who failed to sell her husband at auction, but she might have better luck if she offered him as a booby prize at a card party...

A Strong Indorsement. The socialist party in Spain is waging a war against bull fighting. This is the first thing in favor of that sport that one remembers having heard.

First call for corn huskers is out. Fireproof airplanes are promised. The "boat" should also be made fool-proof, if it is going to come into general use...

A Line O' Type or Two How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may. AGAIN it is a pleasure to agree with Mr. Wilson. "Every one who sincerely believes in government by the people must rejoice at this campaign..."

HOW TO AVOID ASTHMA. This is a suppositious case. A man has what he calls asthma, although it acts very much like hay fever. However, his attacks come on at all seasons of the year...

DISAPPOINTMENT IN MINNESOTA. (From the Minneapolis Tribune.) Women voters need not be alarmed at the requirement of some states that 18 inches of the voters' lower limbs be exposed in the polling booth at the time of balloting...

Forward Passes and Line Drives. Sir: There's a nip in the air these days—but that's the only place you can find one. "Headline Boy, wind up the phonograph..."
