

Crop Production In World On Gain

Figures Show Increased Acreage In Almost Every Country of World—Much Wheat.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Production figures on agricultural crops of the world outside of the United States, assembled by the International Institute of Agriculture at Rome and given out today by the United States Department of Agriculture, show greatly increased yields for 1920 in almost every division. The 1920 wheat crop in countries of the northern hemisphere, including Bulgaria, Spain, British India, Finland, Sweden, Switzerland, Canada, Guatemala, Algeria, Egypt and Tunis, the institute reports, is 1,046,670,000 bushels, or 101.6 per cent of a five-year average production for the same countries and 179.4 per cent of 1919 production.

Area now planted for the 1920/21 wheat crop in the southern hemisphere, in Argentina, Australia and South Africa, is 28,384,000 acres, which is 128.4 per cent of the crop area for last year and 102.1 per cent of a five-year average.

Cruelty Is Charged To Omaha Attorney

Charging extreme cruelty, Mrs. Dollie Elgutter, 3709 Jones street, filed suit for divorce against Charles S. Elgutter, Omaha attorney, in district court yesterday. She also asks for the custody of her daughter, Kathryn, 11.

AT THE THEATERS

RESPONSIBILITY for the book and scene of "The Sign of the Cross" is laid at the door of Leon Berg and Will H. Vodery. Those who have enjoyed work done in the past by these purveyors of the public's happiness will need no further argument to convince them that "The Sign of the Cross" is a winner. Ahly ad- tag and abetting Nino and Spencer, the stars are Johnny O'Donnell, Ralph Brockway, Mabelle Blake, Anna O'Donnell, the Social Malls Jazzer Rag 5, Joe Mack and Billy Wainwright. In addition there is a chorus of Broadway favorites. Tomorrow's matinee starts at 3.

Two more chances are available for Omaha playgoers to see Hendrika Cromman in the ancient comedy, "Evers Last Hour." With the matinee and evening performance today at 7:30, she concludes her engagement. The curtain this evening is to rise at 7:15 o'clock. Beginning with the matinee tomorrow, the evening show will have two headlines of feature and two featured acts. Also in a clever sketch by Jack Laid a comedy with lyrics and music, the title of which is "Visions of 1920." Jack Wyatt, with his Scotch lads and his mates, will contribute the other stellar offering, "Daisy Marie, the Venus of the air," as introduced on the bill as is also the romantic comedy, "The Love Game." This is to be presented by Henry Hayden and company.

"Some Bats" the Fulton theater, New York, comedy success, with music, will be the attraction at the Brandeis theater for a run of four days, with matinee Saturday and Sunday, starting Thursday night, October 14. George Koppert, well known character actor, will have the comedy role, while Miss Katherine Holman will appear in the title role of "Some Bats."

Concluding performances will be given tonight of the popular show at the Empress, headed by the musical playlet, "Number, Please," and Captain Piccard's seals, which perform stunts which make the audience gasp with amazement. Bert Howard, composer, comedian and pianist, meets the requirements of the world of vaudeville patrons. A talented young musician is Musical Sullivan, whose selections on the xylophone are one of the outstanding features of the show.

A delightful phase of the picture production, "The Old Swimming Hole," James Whitcomb Riley's poetic gem, which Charley Ray is now making, is his policy of adhering faithfully to the time and locale of the poem. The old water mill and the sycamore tree so vividly described will be an actuality to the Hoosier poet's ideals.

Rumor has it that Charlie Chaplin has offered to give his wife a divorce and $100,000 cash in full settlement of their difficulties, and that she has spurned the offer and has come back for $300,000. Chaplin has recently declared that he intends to go to his old home in London.

In "Dead Men Tell No Tales," Vitaphone's production of the famous story by E. W. Hornung, the opening of the "Lady Jermyn" at sea and its destruction by gunpowder, form one of the dramatic scenes with 400 extra actors as crew and passengers.

Every college student in the country is writing a scenario, thinks Dr. James A. B. Scherer, writer of original stories and scenarios. Since he resigned as president of the California Institute of Technology only a few weeks ago, the educator has apparently been accepted as the guardian angel of collegiate literary hopes. "Better stories," he says, "are bound to result from this turning of educated literary minds to the problems of motion pictures."

She didn't belong among refined people; they sneered and even doubted her virtue until, in the crisis of another woman's life, she proved to be a thoroughbred. Forrest Stanley plays opposite Miss Lake.

Body of Man Is Found In Wash Room of Train
Great Falls, Mont., Oct. 8.—The body of W. L. Pierce, 50, of Salt Lake City, was found in the wash room of a train when it reached Havre last night. His throat was cut and conditions led to the belief that he had taken his own life.
