Nebraska Packer's Son Alleged to Have

Chicago, Oct. 9.—(Special Tele-gram.)—Glen T. Aldrich, son of C. M. Aldrich, wealthy Nebraska City, Neb., packing house owner, under declared that, although little had arrest in Portland, Ore., will face a number of charges when he is returned here. A second wife has ap- war, peared, charging desertion and non-support. He must also face a charge of passing worthless checks.

The second woman to file charges alleges that Aldrich married her nine days after his first marriage. According to reports received here, Aldrich claims his first marriage took place while he was drunk. Both however, are anxious to be rid of him.

Aldrich was in the navy, but it it charged that at the time of his arrest he was dressed in a bogus naval officer's uniform.
