

Council Bluffs Society

Luncheon. Mrs. Ernest Eldred Hart entertained a foursome at luncheon last Monday in honor of Mrs. Lettie Montgomery who recently returned to the city after an absence of several months in the east.

Motor Trip. Mrs. W. L. Douglass, Mrs. E. A. Wickham, Mrs. William Coppock and her guest, Mrs. Albert Zingrie of Los Angeles, Cal., motored to Fremont, Neb., Thursday where Mrs. Zingrie will remain for a few days with friends. Later she will return to Council Bluffs to continue her visit.

Bridge Luncheon. Mrs. Reed Flickenger and Mrs. Ned Empkie gave a luncheon Tuesday at the Omaha University club. Places were marked for 16 and very low autumn flowers made a lovely centerpiece. The afternoon was spent with bridge in one of the parlors and Mrs. Fred Baumeister had high score. Mrs. Frank Palmer received the consolation prize.

Dances. The jazz orchestras will be busy this winter if the number of dances which are being planned is any evidence.

The committee in charge of the assembly parties, which are always social events, will soon announce their dates, and semi-monthly dances are to be given in the Elks' ball room beginning October 21.

Some worth while affairs for the younger set are also scheduled for the holiday season.

Monday Bridge Club. Instead of meeting on their regular day the Monday Bridge club met for luncheon last Tuesday with Mrs. W. S. Stillman.

Frances Earenficht in Ballet.

Council Bluffs was well represented at the Omaha Auditorium last Tuesday night for the combined program of the Pavley-Dukrainy ballet and Philharmonic orchestra. Niece of Mrs. Wilson a Visitor

Miss Anne Maury of Roanoke, Va., who, as niece of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, spends much of her time at the White House, will arrive shortly to be the guest of Miss Leta Hunter of Council Bluffs. Miss Maury and Miss Hunter were schoolmates at Beechwood, Philadelphia. Miss Maury will be a bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Mary Mitchell and Mr. Robert Sample, an event of the near future. Another guest of Miss Hunter, and bridesmaid for Miss Mitchell, will be Miss Virginia Brown of Uniontown, Pa. These charming guests will be honored at numerous affairs during their visit with Miss Hunter. Mrs. William Coppock last week at the Country club. In the second flight, Mrs. W. L. Douglass defeated Mrs. Herbert Duquette in the finals. For Miss Mitchell. The first of the pre-nuptials for Miss Mary Mitchell was given Saturday afternoon when Miss Marjorie Menold of Omaha entertained at bridge. Several other affairs have been planned and Miss Mitchell's calendar will be full until October 23, the date set for the wedding.

Tag Day Planned For St. James Orphanage

A tag day will be held Saturday, October 23, for the benefit of St. James Orphanage. The affair is under the auspices of the Daughters of Isabella, an organization formed one year ago. This is the first activity of this body of 400 Catholic women.
