

Votes of Women On Constitution Number 20,487

Amendment Prohibiting State Aid in Sectarian Institu- tions Carries by Larg- est Majority.

Lincoln, Oct. 12.—(Special)—According to figures prepared by Secretary of State Amberry, 20,487 women voted at the constitutional election and 69,107 men, making a total of 89,594 votes. At the last election there was a total of 225-717 votes cast by the men and as the women did not vote at that election the indications are that less than one-third of the vote was cast.

The proposed amendment securing the largest vote was No. 23, prohibiting state aid to sectarian institutions. Fifteen thousand two hundred and seventy women voted for the measure and 2,123 against.
Of the men voters 45,725 voted for it and 13,242 against.

The amendment receiving the smallest majority was No. 6, to raise the membership of the senate to 50. Among the women, 10,093 voted yes and 6,472 voted no. The men gave a majority against the raising of the senate membership, 30,153 voting for the change and 32,666 against, but the women did the work and saved the amendment.

One of the amendments which brought on one of the hardest fights in the constitutional convention and which met much opposition in the campaign was No. 17, to elect supreme judges by districts. The majority in favor of the amendment was 35,559. The women voted 12-839, yes, and 4,302, no. The men cast 44,073 votes for it and 17,051 against it.

No. 40, increasing the salaries of state officers and supreme court and district judges received a majority of 45,883. The women favoring the amendment numbered 14,849 while those against it were 2,256. The men voted 46,544 for the increase and 13,254 against.

AT THE THEATERS

HARRY HAYDEN became well known to the theater-going public while playing the juvenile lead in Beala-co's "The Boomerang." He is delighting Orchestra audiences this week with his quiet comedy work in "The Love Game."
"Visions of 1918," presented by Percy Bronson and Winnie Baldwin, is a satirical comedy with clever lyrics and charming dances. Jack Wyatt, with ten Scotch lads and lassies, presents a spirited act in which folk songs and dances are delightful elements. Dainty Marie not only gives a very graceful performance on the Roman rings, but dances and sings effectively.

Charles Dillingham's operetta "Apple Blossoms" will be offered at the Brandeis theater for the last two times today, matinee and evening. The composers are Pete Kreidler, the violinist and Victor Jacobi. This is Kreidler's first operetta.
In the company are John Charles Thomas, who will be recalled in "Maytime"; Wilda Bennett, who has been seen in various musical plays; Percival Knight, the English comedian, who first appeared in this country in "The Arcadians"; Adele and Fred Astaire, the dancers; Maurice Darcy, Edna Temple, Harry Cornell, Kathleen Bronson, Dorothy Haighton and a chorus of distinction.

"The Boys from Home" is the title of the musical burlesque, which is the "backbone" of "The Social Maids," at the Gayety all week, and it is enough of praise to say that Leon Borg is responsible for the book and Will H. Vodery wrote the special music. Always present and aiding the principals when exploiting fun, dancing and song, is a real beauty chorus of 20 girls, every one of whom is a tal-entful singer and a graceful dancer. Ladies' matinee at 2:15 daily.

Joseph Belmont's canary chorus, consisting of thirty-three feathered songsters, who harmonize and thrill in perfect rhythm with Mr. Belmont's piano playing, to the great delight and enjoyment of the Empress audiences, will close their engagement with tonight's performance.
Rose and Thorn, "The Yale Boy and the Swede Girl," win commendation with their bright new material. Paula Armstrong accomplishes feats heretofore exhibited by only the strongest men.

Omaha will see for the first time "Some Baby," farce by Zillah Covington. "Some Baby" opens for four days at the Brandeis starting tomorrow night with a matinee Saturday and Sunday.

Connie Talmadge used to do sto-nography work. She hasn't forgotten it. Nor has she forgotten some evils of employers as learned under their vigilant care. In "Good Ref-shows the fallacy of employing help solely on the reference plan. The picture will be shown next week at the Rialto theater.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CAR IN AMERICA

PAIGE

The Controlling Factors in Price Making

On September 29th we announced a sweeping reduction in the list prices of our motor cars. At that time we stated that there was no economic justification for such action and it could only mean a very substantial loss to this company.

This loss we very cheerfully accept in the interests of a worthy movement to decrease the excessively high costs of living. But no business can remain permanently on a non-profit basis and, unless commodity prices do actually decline, our experiment will merely prove to be an expensive failure.

In brief, materials and production costs must come down in the very near future or the price of Paige cars must inevitably go up. These two elements—materials and production costs—are the controlling factors in price making and upon them rests the entire manufacturing structure.

We have stated the facts in a blunt, straightforward way. Paige cars are today selling for less than the cost of production and you, of course, realize that such a condition cannot continue indefinitely.

It merely remains to affirm that we shall not, under any circumstances, depart from the high standards of quality which have always characterized our vehicles. Irrespective of cost, the Paige will continue to be a fine mechanical product—worthy of your complete respect and confidence

This ghost was a 1920 model

LAST MONTH, on a bet,
WITH THE boys up home,
I SPENT a night
ALONE IN the old,
HAUNTED HOUSE.
AND WHEN I heard
MOANS AND groans,
I SAID "The wind."
AND TRIED to sleep,
I HEARD rappings,
AND SAID "Rats."
AND ROLLED over,
THEN I heard steps,
AND IN the light,
OF A dying moon,
A WHITE spook rose.
I WASN'T scared—much,
BUT DIDN'T feel like
STARTING ANYTHING,
BUT THEN I caught
JUST A faint whiff
OF A familiar,
AND DELICIOUS smell,
WHICH TIPPED me off.
SO I gave the ghost,
THE HORSE laugh,
AND SAID "Ed,
YOU FAT guy,
MAKE SUN ghosts,
BUT BEFORE you fade,
LEAVE WITH me one
OF YOUR cigarettes,
THEY SATISFY."

THAT spicy, delicious aroma of fine tobaccos, both Turkish and Domestic, makes you almost hungry for the "satisfy-smoke." And there isn't a ghost of a chance you'll ever find its equal anywhere—for the Chesterfield blend is an exclusive blend. It can't be copied.
