Coach Schulte Drilling Team For Notre Dame

Cornhuskers Practicing Behind Closed Doors for Game At Lincoln Saturday Afternoon.

Lincoln, Oct. 13.—(Special.)—Coach Schulte took his Cornhusker athletes into secret practice last night and will keep them there all week in an effort to get his aggregation in shape to battle the Notre Dame Catholics next Saturday.

Just what is taking place behind the closed doors is not known here and will be kept absolutely a secret until next Saturday's game. Coach Schissler, who scouted the Notre Dame-Western normal game last Saturday, reports that the Catholic eleven this year is the fastest that ever represented the Indiana school.

Not Forced To Open Up. It is a cinch that neither team will have much dope on the other unless someone steals some information. The Catholics were not forced to open up with anything last Saturday, but resorted merely to straight foot ball. For that reason, Schissler has come back with a good idea of the strength of the team, but little idea of Notre Dame's plays.

The same condition is true in regard to Nebraska. Halas, a former Illinois star, scouted the Nebraska-Colorado game for Notre Dame. Only once or twice were the Cornhuskers forced to show what they had and as a consequence the Catholic scout is taking back little information to his school. Halas seemed confident that Notre Dame would have little trouble downing the Corn-

Several factors are entering into speculations on the outcome of the game. Coach Schulte announced at the opening of the present season that he, of course, wanted to heat Washburn and Colorado, but that he also had to look ahead at the harder games on the schedule For this reason, it is logical to believe that he has been holding back at least part

Shelton Ball Team Wants More Games

Shelton, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special.)
—The Shelton town base ball team, which defeated the Grand Island club, 21 to 1, last Sunday on the local diamond, challenges any team in the state for a contest or a series of contests. The Hasting's Gayers are preferred. The local club is one of the best that has ever been turned out in this city. The locals are anxious to meet some good teams in the state for a side bet of $300 and the sate receipts. Managers of teams can secure further information regarding the Shelton club by writing or telegraphing Floyd Con-roy, manager of the Shelton team, Shelton, Neb.

Nebraska and Notre Dame have met in foot ball games here for the past five years. Two of the games have gone to Nebraska, two to Notre Dame and one was a 0-0 tic. For that reason each coach is strong for winning this year. Betting odds in Lincoln and elsewhere seem to be favoring the Catholics.

Jamieson's smash to Grimes in the third may have weakened the Brooklyn pitcher some. It caught him near the wrist and the hurler delayed the game several min-utes. He did not seem to have the same snap to the ball afterward.

Bookkeepers Scrimmage Central in Final Preparation For Game With Beatrice Next Friday.

Commerce High foot ball squad scrimmaged for the last time yester-day afternoon before its game with Beatrice High Friday. Commerce casily defeated Central in a practice game Wednesday afternoon. This afternoon Coach Drummond will put his proteges through a 'ight signal drill, after which he will hold "skull" practice.

Although the local aggregation is the strongest eleven ever put out by the business school, it will have no easy game with Beatrice Friday, according to reports from the Nebras-ka town. The Gege county lads have a stronger eleven than last year, their line averaging between 190 and 200 pounds.

Five veterans, four of whom are all-state men, will be seen in the Beatrice lineup Friday. They are: Bloodgood, all-state man; Hepper-len, all-state guard; Mathews, all-state end, and Meyers, an all-state fullback.

Beatrice has met with success thus far this year, having defeated all its opponents by a large score, W. L. Hughes, coach of the Beatrice eleven, has been teaching his proteges many fake plays and new formations in preparation for the Commerce game, which is the heaviest and hardest game on their schedule.

The lineup for Friday's contest will
