Melchoir was substituted for "Gunboat" Smith, Philadelphia scrapper, who was unable to appear. The Chicago heavyweight mauler had the best of the encounter from the time it started until Referee Duffy stopped the bout. Melchoir was unable to put over the finish blow, but he handed his opponent a thorough beating in the six and one-half stanzas, and the announcement that the fight had been stopped must have been sweet music in Schmader's cars.

Tilden and Hardy, the latter non-playing captain of the Davis Cup team, are en route to San Francisco where they will be joined by William Johnston and Watson Washburn, proceeding thence to Australia and New Zealand, where they expect to bring back the Davis cup, emblematical of the world's tennis title.

White River Junction, Vt., Oct. 14 The horses competing in the 300 —The horses competing in the 300-mile endurance test swept out of this town and into New Hampshire to-day with 120 miles to cover to reach their goal at Camp Devens, Mass., tomorrow evening. Of the 27 mounts that started the race only 16 remained, seven having been left in the stables as a result of lameness or swollen ankles developed in vestrday's hard drive. The four others dopped out earlier in the test.

Again today Bunkie and Mile Deenise were fist on the trail. "Since Tanlac has done so much for me I can't help but think of others who need at like I did, and I feel like I ought to tell them about it," declared Mrs. M. A. Layton, of 634 Wabash avenue, Wichita, Kan. "For three years I suffered from a very severe case of stomach trouble, and before I got Tanlac was in a badly rundown condition. I had scarcely any appetite at all, and the little I did manage to eat seemed to lie in my stomach undigested, causing a heavy depressed feeling that made me very uncomfortable. "I had terrible dizzy spells, felt tired and wornout, and seemed to have no energy at all. My back ached and pained me drea-ifully, and I was so nervous and restless that I was so nervous and restless that at night I could scarcely sleep. I became so weak and rundown I wasn't even able to do my house-work, and nothing I took seemed to itelp me any.

"My son brought me a bottle of Tanlac one day, and I was so pleased with it that I just kept on taking it until three bottles has built me up and put an end to all my troubles. My appetite is just splendid now, and I eat anything I want without it causing me a particle of trouble. The dizziness has entirely disappeared, and I never have a sign
