

Former Premier To Take Up Fight For Irishmen

H. H. Asquith Gathering Anti-Government Forces for Attack On "Scandals of British" in Parliament.

London, Oct. 14.—H. H. Asquith, former premier of Great Britain, is preparing to rally all the anti-government forces to take part in the fight in parliament as soon as it opens, over the scandal of British government in Ireland. He has been collecting information and he told me this morning that he has a damning indictment of the utter breakdown of the government, and the discipline of the army. He will fire his first gun in a speech on Ireland, which he will make at New Castle on Saturday.

It is possible that the Irish question may give Asquith an opportunity to return to power. The old liberals, all of labor, and many of the Tories are disgusted with the present policy of the government and might be induced to form a coalition for the purpose of settling the Irish difficulty.

A chart in the archives of the British secret service shows the ramifications of the red propaganda over western Europe from headquarters in Berlin and also shows the connections of the reds with revolutionary movements in Ireland and in other parts of the British empire. The head centers on Victor Kopp, who handles funds from Russia and also organizes propaganda through newspapers and agents operating from New York and other subcenters. A prominent feature of Kopp's work is the distribution of arms for revolutionary movements, as well as the organization of an espionage system.

Most of the lines lead to various points on the continent of Europe, but the most interesting is one that leads through Chatterton Hill, a renegade Englishman, now a resident of Berlin, through a Mrs. Lincoln, who is said to be either British or American, and then through Paris to three members of the inner Sinn Fein circle in Ireland. It is believed that a great deal of money has been sent to Ireland over this route, though, of course, this cannot be proved.

Government To Proceed With Irish Home Rule Bill

By The Associated Press.

Belfast, Oct. 14.—Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, and Sir Frederick Nevill MacReady, commander of the military forces in Ireland, were in complete accord and did not contemplate resigning.

He said the government intended to continue with the home rule bill which it had prepared, and would enlarge it in the most generous manner, especially in the direction of finances, thereby making a complete and final settlement of the Irish problem.

"The government will not be deflected in its course by promises of better measures or other measures," said the chief secretary. "It follows, therefore, that we will not allow an independent Ireland or part of Ireland being independent. We believe in the imperial and strategic unity of these islands."

Reign of Terror Breaking

"The real bar to peace in Ireland and the immediate passing of a bill that would enable Irishmen to govern their affairs is the campaign of deliberate and callous murder, arson and intimidation in certain parts of Ireland. No civilized government could tolerate that, and I can assure all those who read what I say that it makes no difference what it is in men, money or time, the government will go forward undiminished to treat criminals like the criminals they are. We are breaking the terror. In certain counties the boycott has ceased and it will cease everywhere."

"I am not one of those who believe that the setting up of two parliaments in Ireland carries with it any of those disabilities and awful consequences that people who know nothing about home rule are constantly prophesying."

"We are faced today, not so much with the Sinn Fein movement as with the inner circle of that movement—an inner circle of men who believe that they can intimidate the Irish government and the British government, and get the support of the civilized world by a policy of assassination."

The secretary contended that no civilized government in the world would sympathize with that policy, and declared that no threats and no dangers would deter the British and Irish governments from going on with a serious duty which must be carried out.

Proposals That Germany Resist Treaty Rejected

Generals Seek to Secure Support of Independent Socialists In Failing to Carry Out Terms But Fail.

Halle, Germany, Oct. 14.—Proposals have been made to the independent socialists by some German generals that enforcement of the peace treaty be resisted, but the party leader of the party's right wing, declared in a speech at the conference today in opposition to a union with Moscow.

The Russian soviet government intended to make war on France if the Polish campaign had been successful, he said, and England also would have been attacked. The independent socialists were not yet ready for conflict with England or France, he continued, but desired to conquer Germany first and see strong proletarian organizations both in England and France before undertaking to overthrow the capitalist classes in those countries.

He opposed union with Moscow on the ground that the soviet agrarian policy was contrary to socialism and implied too much power. The soviet's terrorism policy, he declared was abhorrent to socialists.

The ring wing greeted Herr Crispian with tumultuous applause, through which the radicals sat silent.

Lithuania Now Ready to Resume Negotiations

London, Oct. 14.—The Lithuanian delegation in London has received an official dispatch from Kovno that Prince Sapieha, the Polish foreign minister, has sent a note to Lithuania agreeing to the Poles ceasing hostilities on their present line and proposing to resume peace negotiations at Orany.

Lithuania, the dispatch adds, agrees to resume negotiations, but demands that the Polish troops immediately evacuate Vilna and that the Polish government declare its attitude toward the so-called government of General Zeligowski and M. Abramowicz, the well-known Polish nationalist leader, from whom it declares, all military supplies should be cut off.

Columbus, O., Oct. 14.—Prison officials and others interested in the welfare of law offenders from all parts of America will gather in Columbus today for the semi-annual session of the American prison congress.

Every phase of criminology will be discussed in open meetings of the congress by acknowledged authorities.

Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, democratic presidential nominee, has promised to address the congress Sunday afternoon, providing his presidential speaking tour does not conflict.

Many Noted Speakers.

Other speakers who will address the congress on Sunday are George W. Wickham, New York City, president of the congress, and Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth, New York, of the Voluntary Prisoners League. The subject of President Wickham's address will be "Progress of Fifty Years." The American prison congress held its first meeting in Cincinnati, O., in 1870.

Objects of the association include improvement of the laws in relation to public offenders and the modes of procedure by which such laws are enforced; study of the causes of crime, the nature of the offenders and their social surroundings, the best methods of dealing with offenders and of preventing crime; improvement of the penal, correctional and reformatory institutions throughout the country, and the government thereof, including the appointment of boards of trustees and of other officers; care and provision of suitable and remunerative employment for paroled and discharged prisoners and probationers, especially such as may have given evidence of reformation.

Japan and Britain Bitter Against New Shipping Act

Nationalist Party in Philippines Back of Big Campaign in Opposition To Measure.

By CHARLES DAILEY.

Manila, Oct. 14.—The strong suspicion that Japan and Great Britain have been behind the opposition to the application of the new coastwise shipping law has not been confirmed in any responsible quarters, but the rumor persists, nevertheless.

When the law was passed, Japanese and British shipping interests in the Philippines immediately set up a howl. This was followed almost immediately by strong propaganda from the nationalist party, which called a convention at Manila to lodge a formal protest and it set on foot a campaign of vast proportions, which reached every municipality in the archipelago. Since then resolutions protesting the law have been coming at a lively rate and all seem to indicate a common origin. It was held that the Japanese and British were behind this propaganda, although their official representatives denied it.

Closes Traffic To Japan.

It is easy to see why Japan opposes the enforcement of the coastwise shipping law. Regarding their opposition with a broad view, it is easily settled that a blow at American's infant merchant marine now would equal a dozen blows a few years hence, when America has become a power in Pacific commerce. A nearer view indicates that Japan is suffering a severe industrial depression and many of her cargo carriers are laid up in home ports. Japan plays no small part in the inter-island trade in the Philippines, having many small vessels so engaged.

This traffic is closed to Japan under the coastwise law, hence their intention to employ every possible means to defeat the act.

Spokesmen for the independence party abruptly changed their front, their reason being that the president had not proclaimed the act yet.

It was pointed out that the shipping act annuls a score of commercial treaties and for this reason was likely to be fought.

The stand taken by the Filipinos in opposing the law was that it was a blow to their independence aspirations, and they have refused to assent to any restrictions on their rights of liberty.

Japan has been steadily increasing its grip on that Philippine trade not controlled by America. This is especially true of coal, of which the Japanese have a virtual monopoly. Japanese coal, of course, comes only in Japanese bottoms, and its only competition is Australian coal, which Japanese shipping interests control by extensive contracts in New South Wales. Thus Japan dictates the price of coal in the Philippines.

Feel Growing Menace.

If freed from American domination or control, the trade of the Philippines would pass quickly into the hands of the Japanese. The Filipinos appear to be entertaining no hostility or fear of Japan. They feel as long as the American flag flies here that Japan cannot be a serious economic menace, since the American exclusion act keeps out the Japanese.

On the other hand, they hold, though no responsible leader will consent to be quoted, that the Philippines have less to fear from Japan as an independent government than as a dependency. In other words, they believe that American possession constitutes a greater menace than if the islands were wholly in the Philippines' hands, for the reason.

No Fear Now of Indigestion

A Host of People Seem to Thrive on What Used to Provoke Indigestion Before They Learned of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

When the stomach becomes sour, with gasiness and heartburn due to indigestion or dyspepsia relief may be had by one of two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Simply chew them, not hot water nor any other filler for a stomach already too much overworked.

These tablets supply to the stomach the alkaline effect which is what relieves the sour acid condition. They also contain pancreatin to help digest the starchy foods such as potatoes, rice, oatmeal, white flour, etc.

Get a 60-cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, have it on hand at all times and thus have no fear of indigestion or dyspepsia.

The fact that these tablets are on sale everywhere in the U. S. and Canada shows how generally recognized they are as a relief to the stomach when the dyspeptic stomach needs a little help.

Removes the Roots Of Superfluous Hair

(Entirely New Method)

"Seeing is believing." When your own eyes see the roots come out, you know the entire hair is gone, not merely the surface hair.

The fact really true that the new phenetic method removes superfluous hair completely—roots and all—without the least injury, leaving the skin soft, smooth, hairless. You do the work in a fifty, in your own home, without assistance. It does away with numerous and expensive visits to the electrolysis expert. Does away with depilatories or shaving at frequent intervals. Nothing like it ever known before. Perfectly harmless, odorless, painless. Get a $15.00 bottle, follow the easy instructions, and have the surprise of your life.

son that the growing enmity between Japan and America, due to the rivalry for Pacific trade supremacy, invites a Japanese attack on the islands. They believe there would be less prospect of attack if the islands were free, but they do not reckon on the possibility that if they were independent the old feud between the non-Christians of the southern part of the islands and the tribes in the north might be reunited, whether with or without Japan's intrigue, and thus give Japan an opportunity to step in and take hold of the government, on the grounds of preserving peace in the Orient. Those who know Japan and its present policy are positive that where Japan sets its foot it will not be ousted except by superior power.

Apex of High Prices Reached Says Hoover

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 14.—The apex of the high cost of living has been reached in America, and from now on prices will undergo a continuous downward readjustment, Herbert Hoover declared here last night in an address to the Topeka Rotary club.

"If this price readjustment is not based on a plan providing easy stages in its descent it will go down with a crash and result in the destruction of countless industries," continued Mr. Hoover. "America needs a national program to control this downward readjustment and to protect our industries from ruin."

"Labor wages do not need to come down with the high cost of living if labor increases production. The present readjustment demands reconstruction and reconstruction means adding to the capital account or building up our railroads and industries."

Reparation Commission of Pact to Be Abandoned

Paris, Oct. 14.—Abandonment by the reparations commission of the task assigned to it by the treaty of Versailles is the principal feature of the compromise adopted during the conference between Premiers Daladier and Lloyd George of Belgium and Great Britain, says the Petit Parisien.

Exchange of views relative to reparations continue between England, France and Belgium, it is said, and Premier Lloyd George persists in the belief that the Germans will carry out more willingly an agreement in which they have had a share in framing. France and Belgium, it is indicated, have acceded to this view, and Germans will probably be admitted at the proposed Brussels conference. They may also share in the deliberations of the supreme council.
