

Volunteer Squad Of Traffic Cops Is Here to Stay

Commissioner Ringer and Others Instruct Citizen Officers at First Meeting of Instruction School.

Omaha's volunteer traffic force of 100 business men is here to stay. It is to be a permanent organization. It means business. Its members have offered their services to the police department in the interest of safety for the people on the streets of Omaha, not to obtain any coveted privileges, or for honor and glory, but to assist the police in bringing the motor criminal to justice. Judgment will be used. There are not too many citizens wearing police badges. There are just enough to fight the menace to public safety on the streets of Omaha.

These impressions were given by the interest manifested by the "civilian cops" at their first session of the school of instruction in the Chamber of Commerce Friday night. "I am certainly glad to see that you men are taking this matter seriously," declared Commissioner Ringer.

Chief of Police Eberstein, Traffic Sergeant Emery and Judge Foster were on hand to assist Commissioner Ringer in imparting the necessary information to the volunteers in the discharge of their duties as traffic officers.

Numerous questions were asked by the "civilian cops" as to what to do in particular cases, and how certain provisions in the city and state ordinances were to be interpreted, following a lengthy prelection by Police Commissioner Ringer on the traffic laws.

Matters that could not be covered at the meeting will be fully explained in a letter which the police commissioner will mail out today. Aside from suppressing reckless driving, the campaign, which will continue indefinitely, will also educate the people driving motor vehicles to a knowledge of the state and city traffic ordinances, according to Mr. Ringer.

This, he said, will create a sentiment, which should be known to others besides lawyers, that "ignorance of the law is no excuse."

Referring to the permanency of the organization, Mr. Nesbit, who presided at the meeting, announced that there is a waiting list, and any officer on the force who is found to be not sufficiently active will have his badge taken away from him and he will be replaced by one from the waiting list. New applicants will be considered in the order of filing their applications with the safety of traffic committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Riot in Londonderry
Londonderry, Ireland, Oct. 16.—Scenes of wild disorders recurred here last night. Carlisle road was again the center of the fighting, the trouble beginning when a band of youths suddenly appeared and began firing pistols. They maintained a running fire and rival groups returned the shots. Pedestrians fled in terror. Soldiers were rushed to that section of the city and cleared the street.

Auburn Girl Going To India as Midwest Bible Missionary

Lydia May Rediger.

Auburn, Neb., Oct. 16.—(Special.)—Lydia May Rediger, the first foreign missionary to be sent abroad by the Midwest Bible school of the Assembly of God, a Pentecostal school established here only a month ago, has started on her long journey to Saharanpur, India, to work among the Mohammedans and Parsees of that mountain country.

Miss Rediger is 29 and her parents live at Auburn. She is a graduate of the Moody Bible institute of Chicago and of the Beulah Heights (N. J.) Bible school. She has done social settlement work at Hull House, Chicago; in Akron, O., and in the slum districts of New York City.

She will sail for San Francisco November 2 on the first dispatch boat, Santa Cruz, which has a passenger list of only 29. Her first destination will be Calcutta, and from there she will go north to Delhi, and then to the northern boundary of Saharanpur, close to Nepal.

Habeas Corpus Asked
By Husband for Wife, Heiress to Fortune

Auburn, Neb., Oct. 16.—(Special.)—William H. Redmond, an Auburn tinsmith, has instituted habeas corpus proceedings in the United States circuit court at St. Louis to obtain possession of his wife, so that he can have her removed to the State Hospital for the Insane at Lincoln. Mrs. Redmond, who has been mentally incompetent for years, is heiress to a large estate. She has been in the Missouri state hospital at Fulton for many years.

Her guardian, J. W. Howell, Mexico, Mo., is resisting the efforts of the husband.

War On Immoral Dances
Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Chief of Police Joe Donoghue has declared war on immoral dances. With two public dance halls and another hall soon to open, the dance problem is acute.

Burlesque High Mark Is Set at Gayety by The Sporting Widows

"The Sporting Widows," featuring Al K. Hall (Alcohol), at the Gayety theater, sets a high mark in burlesque. In many respects it is superior to "Peek-a-Boo." The play abounds in picturesque settings and pretty girls.

The stage settings, the most beautiful shown this season, called for applause. The wardrobe is the largest and most lavish of the season and adds to the beauty of the large and shapely chorus.

Hall and Robert Startzman have one of the biggest laugh-producers of the season in a skit, "Buying a Phonograph." A New Year home scene is lavishly produced, and the intermingling of jazz and old-fashioned songs proved popular.

"How to Get a Divorce" is a pleasing comedy in which Hall features. "The Bride and the Synagogue" is a comedy in which Hall features. "The Bride and the Synagogue" is a comedy in which Hall features.

June LeVeay and George Weist have a collection of songs that please every taste. Pretty Gertrude Beck also leads in song numbers.

People of U. S. Want Change,
Governor Coolidge Says

Washington, Oct. 16.—Conviction that the people desire a change and that republican victory in November was assured, was expressed here by Governor Coolidge. It was evident, he said, that the people did not favor the covenant of the league of nations as President Wilson brought it back from Paris, but, in reply to a question, he added that in his opinion the high cost of living question probably concerned the people more intimately than any other.

Mexican Agent Named

To Succeed Calderon
Washington, Oct. 16.—Roberto V. Pesqueira has been appointed confidential agent of the Mexican government in Washington to succeed Fernando Iglesias Calderon, recently recalled to take his seat in the Mexican senate, according to official advices. The new agent will combine duties of Mexican financial agent in New York, which position he has held since the De la Huerta regime, with those of his post here.

The wool industry ranks as the fifth principal occupation of Roumania. Several manufacturers, however, were obliged to close their plants two or three months previous to the present year's shearing, which substantiates the report that the total production supplies only three fifths of the country's demand.
