

Nebraska Women Fight Morehead On Liquor Issue

Both Democrats and Republicans Join In Campaign to Defeat Wet Gubernatorial Candidate.

Prominent democratic women of Nebraska have joined their republican sisters in subscribing to a letter in which John H. Morehead, democratic candidate for governor, is referred to as the chosen candidate of the wet wing of the democratic party and who was in league with a coterie of democrats who used their power and influence in a futile attempt to defeat prohibition and suffrage.

Among the democratic women who signed a circular letter against Morehead, are: Mrs. Mary Smith Hayward, Chadron; Mrs. E. E. Thomas, Omaha; Mrs. Edna M. Barkley, Lincoln; Mrs. H. C. Sumney, Omaha; Dr. Inez Philbrick, Lincoln.

The following is the text of the letters which have been received by Omaha women:

Investigate Records.
"After working so many years to secure the ballot for the Nebraska women we feel that it is not inappropriate to suggest to the new voters the following points:

"First: Without regard to party affiliation every voter should investigate and know the political record of every man on the national, congressional and state ticket.

"Second: We would warn you against the candidacy of Mr. John H. Morehead for governor of Nebraska. He is the chosen candidate of the wet wing of the democratic party, headed by Senator Hitchcock, Arthur Mullen and others, who have used the power of their party, money and press to defeat prohibition and suffrage in this state and through Senator Hitchcock have worked to defeat both in the United States congress.

"Choose Carefully.
"A vote for Mr. Morehead means a vote to keep in power in this state this wing of the party, and we fear they will use every effort to weaken the enforcement act. Think this over carefully. Vote for the man you can trust."

- It is signed by the following:
- Mrs. Charles Dietrich, Hastings.
 - Mrs. John Baker, Hastings.
 - Mrs. Emma Clifton, U.S. Place.

Fire Completely Destroys Restaurant in Loup City

Loup City, Neb., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Fire of unknown origin early Monday morning destroyed the restaurant of J. W. Thompson and partially destroyed the Plants hardware store adjoining. Some damage by water was done to other buildings, but hard work on the part of the fire department prevented the fire from spreading farther. The loss may reach $20,000 and is partially covered by insurance.

Corn Pickers Needed.

The free employment bureau, room 109 city hall, is receiving many calls for corn pickers. These calls are from Nebraska and Iowa towns and the pay offered is from 6 to 10 cents per bushel.

New Way to Remove Hairs Creates Sensation

What beauty specialists regard as one of the most important discoveries in recent years is the plasticine method of removing superfluous hair. Its great advantage, of course, lies in the fact that it actually removes the hair roots. It does this quickly, instantly, harmlessly. Sufferers from the affliction named need no longer despair. The hair roots are pulled out before your very eyes, leaving the skin as smooth and hairless as a baby.

Because it offers such complete relief, a stick of plasticine is the most intensive thing a woman can buy for the removal of hairy growth. For the same reason druggists are having an enormous demand for it. You can try it with entire safety; it is so harmless one could even eat it without any ill effect.

Woman Comes: Misses Hubby Wife Travels From Oklahoma City to See Spouse—He Leaves for Her Home.

A little woman of evidently straitened circumstances, who traveled with her children all the way from Oklahoma City, Okl., to meet her husband here without informing him in advance found yesterday that he had just left Omaha.

The little mother, middle-aged, dressed in worn, threadbare clothes, and very tired looking, went to Postmaster H. S. Daniel to ask him to help her find her husband.

She said that she had expected to reach Omaha in time Tuesday to go to the postoffice and wait at the general delivery window, where she knew he was wont to go each day.

But the train was late and when she went to the general delivery window yesterday to ask about him she found that he had called every evening through Monday, when he had left a forwarding address and said that he was going back to Oklahoma City.

The woman gave her name as Mrs. E. H. Newman.

Work on Sherman County Court House Is Resumed

Loup City, Neb., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—Work on the Sherman county court house, which has been held up for over 60 days by lack of materials, has been resumed again. Both face brick and terra cotta are now on the ground, and work is being rushed.

Excursionists in O'Neill

O'Neill, Neb., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—The trade boosters and good-fellowship delegation of the Sioux City Chamber of Commerce, making a tour of the territory along the North-western to Crawford and from Norfolk to Bonestell, were the guests of O'Neill for an hour.

An electrolytic process has been patented for the extraction of oil from both vegetable and animal sources.

Lincoln Woman, Blind,—Operates Her Own Grocery

Miss Edna Kooztz, Sightless for 26 Years, Trusts Public When It Comes to Money Matters.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 20.—Blindness has not proven a handicap to the business career of Miss Edna Kooztz, proprietor of a grocery at 444 South Tenth street, this city. Though totally blind, this Nebraska girl has mastered all the principles of business, and without assistance sells enough groceries to net her a profit considerably more than she needs to support herself.

By cultivating a memory that compares favorably with that of nationally known so-called experts, Miss Kooztz is able to put her hands on any one of several hundred articles on the shelves of her store. By her remarkable sense of "feel," coupled with her memory, errors are unknown in her store.

With the speed of a crackerjack clerk, Miss Kooztz brings down from the shelves articles of food as fast as the purchaser names them off. In a lighting like fashion, and with the precision of an adding machine, she totals up the amount of the purchases much quicker than many clerks with vision.

Miss Kooztz, who became blind when 4 years of age, is now 30. She is a graduate of the state school for blind at Nebraska City.

In addition to being a retail grocer, Miss Kooztz is assistant manager for the Lincoln agency of one of the large Omaha wholesale grocers.

Anybody Could Do It. Admirers of Miss Kooztz say she is the only blind person in Nebraska engaged in a business dealing with the public at all times.

Miss Kooztz is extremely modest in telling of her achievements, and says there are hundreds of other blind persons who could succeed just as well as she if they took it upon themselves to start. "The training we receive at the blind institution is sufficient to make any person with a normal mind self-supporting," she said.

Miss Kooztz has the utmost confidence in the honesty of the public. Only one man, she says, ever took advantage of her blindness. This man, she said, was in the habit of visiting her store several times a week to purchase cigars. When she would hand over the box for him to make his selection, he would take two or three cigars and pay for but one. She said she suspected him for several weeks and the next time he came in she was "ready." She knew exactly how many cigars were in the box and when he had taken what he wanted, she quickly counted the remainder and told him he would have to pay for three cigars, not one. That was the last time he visited her store.

Children Play Pranks. Several children, she said, have attempted to deceive her in a child-like fashion, but were always detected. One youngster came in with a "bill," which he said was $1 denomination, and wanted to buy a package of chewing gum. No sooner was the "bill" in her hand than she knew by its size that it was not legal tender. She laughingly returned the piece of paper to the youngster.

Another youngster attempted to pass a lead check on her as a 50-cent piece. His detection was quicker than in the case of the boy with the "bill."

In accepting bills in payment of groceries Miss Kooztz must depend entirely upon the honesty of her customers as to the bill's denomination. "There is no way of telling a $1 bill from a $10 or $20 bill," she said. It is very difficult to deceive her with pewter coins.

After she receives the bills Miss Kooztz folds each denomination in a different way. In going over her day's receipts she can tell exactly what each bill is by the way it is folded.

Miss Kooztz takes care of all her own correspondence, writing her letters on a typewriter. Her incoming letters, of course, are read to her by friends.

In addition to being a business woman of considerable ability, Miss Kooztz is an accomplished singer, pianist and organist. On a number of occasions she has appeared in the choirs of local churches.

As a housekeeper she has few equals. Baking fine cakes for her friends is one of her chief joys at home. During lull moments at the store she does fancy work and knit

ing. Her chief outdoor sport is fishing
