Cornhúskers to Tackle Coyotes This Afternoon

oach Schulte Has Nebraska Pigskin Players in Good Condition for Game At Lincoln.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special.)
—Coach Schulte's gridiron players are ready to tackle the South Dakota Coyotes when the visitors trot on the Nebraska field tomorrow afternoon. The foot ball enthusiasm, that swept over Lincoln last week when the Huskers met Notre Dame and four other contests were held in and about Lincoln, is lacking, but the Neuraska mentor is looking for a good battle from the Northerners.

In contrast with last week's training, the Nebraska squad has been given the stiffest workouts of the year during the past week. The varsity and freshman teams have been scrimmaging every night and those who were not in scrimmage were racing up and down the field in signal practice.

Besides preparing his men for the game Saturday, Coach Schulte has been looking ahead to the eastern games. Both contests in the eastern games. Both contests in the east promise to be real battles and for that reason, Schulte may run in a bunch of second-string men if he sets a safe lead over the South Dakota aggregation.

Cornhusker fans are hoping that their team will beat South Dakota by a wide margin to make up for a 0 to 0 tie in the last game with the Coyotes, six years ago.

Coyotes, six years ago.

Most of the men on the team who have been suffering from injuries are recovered with the possible excep-tion of Hubka, who will probably not get into Saturday's game.

Chase Said to Be Real 'Fixer' Of 1919 Series

Cook County Grand Jury Votes True Bills Against Former Big Leaguer, Abe Attell and Burns.

Chicago, Oct. 22 .- The Cook county grand jury, investigating the basc ball scandal today voted true bills against Hal Chase, former major gambling; Abe Attell, former featherweight boxing champion, and "Bill" Burns, big league pitcher.

The jury also again voted indietments against the eight Chicago American league players accused of "throwing" games in the 1919 world's series. This was done to overcome legal technicalities believed to have ments previously. Announcement of the jury's action was made by the state's attorney's office.

Chase Real Fixer.

The names of Chase, Burns and Attell have been frequently men-tioned in connection with the investigation. Attell and Burns were said to have been mentioned by witnesses as some of the "fixers" of the series. Attell now, is believed to be in Canada.

An official of the states attorney's office said that the indictments were voted after testimony had been giver. the jury that Chase was the "real fexer" of the 1919 world series. Chase was said to have approached Attell, asking him if he could place $100,000 in bets and also if he could raise money for the scheme. Attell is then said to have approached a New York gambler, whose name has been given the jury, the official said.

The name of "Sport" Sullivan of Boston also was mentioned by witnesses, who told of Chase's activities in connection with the series' "fix-ing," the state's official said. Sullivan was approached by Chase and his clique for financial support, he said.
