

Girl Who Eloped Dying of Poison; Police Seek Man

Father Comes From Cheyenne to Be at Bedside of Daughter Who Ran Away.

Little more than a month after she left the home of her father, M. C. McGough, Cheyenne, Wyo., Helen McGough, 18, is on her deathbed at University hospital, slowly dying of poisoning, which, police assert, she took herself.

By her deathbed is her father, who was called to Omaha by a telegram announcing his daughter's serious condition.

Somewhere is a man known in Omaha as "Clyde Jones," who brought the girl to the Star hotel, 804 South Thirteenth street, early in the week and registered as "Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jones." Jones was last seen by Mrs. Dora Sayer, owner of the hotel, on Wednesday morning, shortly after, it is believed, the disheartened girl swallowed poison.

Man Disappears.
"He came out in the hall and said his wife wasn't feeling well," Mrs. Sayer said. "That was the last I ever saw of him. I understand he is a stationary engineer."

"It wasn't long until the girl came out in the hall. That was the first time I had seen her since she was in the hotel. She complained of being nauseated. Later in the day a physician was summoned and she was taken away in a patrol wagon."

Ran Away from Home.
"Her father didn't seem to know anything about Jones," she told me that she had run away from home several times and her last disappearance was in September. She was missing when he and his wife returned home from work, and he didn't know where she was until he received a telegram telling of her illness here."

The father steadfastly refused to leave the deathbed at the hospital yesterday.

The story told by the girl when she was taken to the hospital was that she married Jones at Cheyenne two years ago and came to Omaha a short time ago. She said they had quarreled the night previous to taking the poison because he upbraided her when she went out in the evening to visit a girl friend.

Letters in her room were addressed to Miss Helen McGough, Cheyenne, Wyo., and Miss Helen McGough, Haverlock, Neb. She told officers she was 22 years of age. Her father asserted that she was only 18.

Musicians Return To Work In Moving Picture Shows Here

Omaha musicians have returned to work in downtown motion picture houses.

A strike of the musicians' union since September 1 has been declared off pending settlement of the wage issue by arbitration.

Until formal settlement is effected the musicians have been granted an increase of 43 per cent over their former wage scale. Side orchestra men will receive $30 a week.

An agreement was reached that each side will choose three of their representatives, who in turn will agree upon a seventh man, in an effort to arbitrate the wage issue.

Four Waterloo, Neb., men were placed on trial yesterday in county court charged with assault in connection with the attack on a picnic party at Waterloo last summer. The men are John Hoefeldt, Carl Lockwood, Tony Zimery and Albert Snyder.

Colder Weather Coming In 24 Hours, Prophet Declares

The first 20 days of October have shown a mean temperature of 12 degrees above normal, but there is a strong likelihood that the grand average will be given a sudden jolt within the next 48 hours.

"There was a drop of 20 degrees at North Platte in the last 24 hours," said Meteorologist Robbins yesterday, "and Omaha was 26 degrees higher than North Platte. The low pressure is centralized today in the Dakotas and the high pressure on the Pacific coast. The low pressure moving eastward will cause lower temperature here. We are to have a decided drop in Omaha in the next 24 hours, but not enough to cause alarm."

Two Women Among Civic Club Secretaries Here

Two women were among the 15 secretaries of Nebraska commercial clubs who registered yesterday for a state conference in the Omaha Chamber of Commerce today and tomorrow. They were Mrs. Eather Stock Kroger, wife of the editor of the Kearney Hub and secretary of the Kearney club, and Miss Lillian Thompson, secretary of the Minden commercial club. Frank H. Beels of Hastings presided at the meetings today. W. S. Whitten of Lincoln made the opening address. Discussion of trade development and publicity was led by Arthur Thomas, of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce.

"I can't help worryin'," wailed the culprit suddenly and leaned on the nearest shoulder. "I want to be good, but I like fun and playin' tricks."
