Candidates for Congress File Expense Report Nebraska Senator Says His

Few Contributions Received By Office Seekers-Disbursements in All Districts Are Small.

By E. C. SNYDER.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 23.— pecial Telegram.)—Pre-election statements of candidates for congress, under the corrupt practices act, are being received by the clerk of the house of representatives. Five districts in Nebraska are already on

C. F. Reavis states that his total contributions have been $1,000 and his total expenditures $60. The $1,000 contribution came from the national republican congressional committee and his expenditures have been a contribution of $25 to the Nemaha county republican county central committee and $35 to the Johnson county republican county republican central committee.

Frank A. Peterson, the democratic candidates for congress in the First district, states that he has received no contributions and has expended nothing to bring about his election.

Evans Spends $300. Congressman Robert E. Evans of the Third Nebraska district has received $1,040 in the way of contributions-$1,000 from the national re publican congressional committee, $5 rom B. Ready, Hartington; $10 from O. Milligan, Scribner, and $25 rom Charles E. Abbott, Fremont. His expenditures amount to $300 given to L. D. Richards, treasurer of the republican congressional com-mittee, for the Third district, to be "used only for purposes not re-quired to be reported under the pro-visions of the Nebraska corrupt Webb Rice, democratic candidate for congress in the Third district, has had no help from the democratic congressional committee and has received no individual contributions. Mr. Rice has spent, however, $350 for advertising in 52 newspapers. Albert P. Sprague of York, demo-cratic candidate for congress in the Fourth district, has received $74 in and Hampton totalling $26 aside from telephone, telegraph, writing, printing and postage and traveling expenses, Mr. Sprague has spent $66 for newspaper advertising; $55 for motion picture slides, and $64 for advertising metings. Few Candidate Fate.

Congressman M. P. Kinkaid of the Sixth district has received no contributions whatsoever from any source. He has spent a total of source. He has spent a total of $401.50 for advertising in the newspapers of his district.

ent $60 for spreading cards. Statements are yet to be received from Congressman Jefferis and Mr. O'Hare in the Second district; Conressman M. O. McLaughlin in the ourth district; Congressman W. E. Andrews, and his democratic opponent in the Fifth district, and the non-partisan candidate in the Thrid dis-trict. These candidates have until midnight tonight to file their returns, under the law.

Hay Barn Burns.

Wahoo, Neb., Oct. 23 .- (Special.) The large hay barn on the Jay Willey farm north of Mead burned from spontaneous combustion. The barn contained about 150 tons of hay belonging to Ernest Fuchser, who operated the farm.

Lighting Fixtures-Granden Elec-

Hitchcock Sees Victory for Cox

Speeches Well Received in G. O. P. Territory.

Washigton, D. C., Oct. 23 .- (Spe-Sunday, said that he was confirmed in his opinion that the tide had set in for Cox. He spoke of his meetings in Connecticut and New Hampshire as being unusually well attended and extremely enthusiastic, and he cited instances in cities where his audiences had largely exceeded in numbers those attending republican meetings, notwithstanding he was campaigning in rock-ribbed republican strong-holds.

Professor Cornman and Miss Atward of the state university will lecture and Thursday, Professors Frisbie and Boomer will be the chief speakers.

A school and stock parade will be held Friday. The boys' and girls' calf clubs are to hold their annual through the chief speakers.

Thursday and the Shorthorn club Friday. Each club will sell 32 animals.

Senator Hitchcock is convinced that the women vote is committing itself very emphatically to the league of nations and that Moses in New Hampshire and Brandegee in Condemocratic national headquarters that the democrats would get a senator in each of the following states: Indiana, Missouri, Utah and Wisconsin.

He said contributions were pour ng into the democratic national committee in great numbers, and that generally there were more than 1,000 some of the club members money for their efforts.

Senator Hitchcock will leave here

Canadian Authorities omorrow night and announced that n addition to spending the last three days of the campaign in Nebraska, he will fill the following engagements for the national committee: Akron, O., October 25; in Missouri (towns to be named later), October 26; Coffeyville, Kan., October 28; Wichita, Kan., October 29.

Shell Shocked Soldier Alliance, Neb., Oct. 23.—(Special Telegram).—Lee Francis Barr, shell-shocked soldier, who attempted suicide by hacking his throat with a knife and then jumping from the second-story window of a hotel several days ago, was adjudged insane living in Kansas. by the county insanity commission and will be sent to a sanitarium at Lincoln. The young man suffered a broken leg when he jumped from the window, and is now in a hospital contributions as follows: T. W. the window, and is now in a hospital Smith, 10; Ed Cutts, $28; F. G. Slater, $10, and anonymous contributions from the towns of Phillips and will kill him. He served more > return. A brother lives at Ashby, Neb, and has been here caring for his brother since the attempt at suicide.

Beatrice Man Arrested

For Alleged Rug Theft Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 23.—(Special Felegram.)—The home of Mrs Lawrence of this city was robbed durpapers of his district.

Thomas C, Grimes of Broken Bow, the democratic candidate in the bert Bitting. Beatrice man, whom Sixth district, has received no contributions from any source, but has one of the rugs to a local firm, is one of the rugs to a local firm the rugs to a local under arrest charged with the rob- his return.

against Mrs. Hazel Stanely of Guide Rock, Neb., charged with forging a heck for $13 on Miss Viola Ashenfeller of this city, while a resident of Beatrice last summer, was called before Judge Craig today and dis-missed on motion of the state's at-Extraordinary Dress Sale Monday at

JULIUS ORKIN 1508-10 Douglas Street Don't miss it. For particulars se

our advertisement on Page 6-A

Haas Brothers The Shop for Women

100 Beautiful Tailor - Made Suits on Sale at About One-Half their actual Worth --Monday

Sizes, 16 to 44

100 Crepe Back Satin Dresses in Navy, Black and Brown, in sizes 16 to 40, special, Monday

Haas Brothers

Entire Second Floor, Brown Block, 16th and Douglas Streets. Take elevator to second floor.

Red Cloud Farmers to Hold Institute and Parade of Live Stock

Red Cloud, Neb., Oct. 23.—(Spe-ial Telegram).—The annual Red Cloud farmers' institute is to begin its session Tuesday. This is one of the big events of the year in Red Cloud. The exhibits usually have the proportions of a county fair. cial Telegram.)—Senator Hitchcock, Tuesday evening a program is to be who is in the city for a test over given by the schools; Wednesday Sunday, said that he was confirmed Professor Cornman and Miss At mals.

The clubs were organized by County Agent Fausch, Mr. Fausch, with other stockmen, purchased a number of pure-bred heifers with expenses, will go to the boy or girl who fed the calf. A similar affair held last year was successful, and some of the club members made big

Canadian Authorities Say Convict's Wife on Way Here Lincoln., Oct. 23.—(Special.)— Irs. Barr, alleged wife of Dick Barrett, escaped convict who was captured in Canada last week and returned to Nebraska, is on her way to Lincoln, Canadian authorities say. Mrs. Barr is alleged to be the woman who assisted Barrett and another convict to escape from the prison camp near Tecumseh about

Box Butte County Women

Pledge Support to G. O. P. Alliance, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special elegram).—More than 100 republican women of this county attended a woman's meeting here and pledged than a year in France, and has been their support to the entire ticket. subject to mental lapses since his Addresses were made by the county airman and other prominent party women. Committees were appointed to further the work before election day, One democratic woman-leader and one Nonpartisan leaguer at-tempted to heckle the speakers, but re unsuccessful.

> Requisition Is Granted. Lincoln, Oct., 23.—(Special.)— George W. Skyrme, arrested in Oma-

Gretna Banker Dies.

home here after a protracted illness.

Noted Lecturer Visits in Omaha

Colorado Author and Naturalist Guest of C. N. Dietz, His Old Friend.

Enos A. Mills, famous Colorado few hours in Omaha today with his old friend, C. N. Dietz, en route to his home at Longs Peak, from a meeting of authors and celebrities at Chicago. He has been a frequent visitor at the Dietz home, 428 South Thirty-eighth street, for many years. Enos Mills was born at Kansas City, Kan., in 1870, and began the study of nature, his chosen profes-sion, early in life. He went to the Rocky mountains and established a home in a cabin on Longs Peak,

Since that time he has explored the Rocky mountains extensively alone on foot and without firearms. For many years he was a guide on Longs Peak, which he has climbed 250 times. His pet hobby has been fighting for the protection and development of forests, wild flowers and scenery.

The books he has written include The proceeds of the sale of each calf, after paying the note and sale expenses, will go to the boy or girl who fed the calf. A similar affair the Rockies," "In Beaver World" and "The Story of a Thousand-Year

Propose Change in Route

Of Golden Rod Highway Wahoo, Neb., Oct. 23.—(Special.) -G. A. Bryant, chairman of the Butler county good roads committee has written to Saunders county highway commissioners that the Golden Rod Highway association desires to change the route of the marked road one mile south of the present line across Saunders county. Mr. Bryant states that the highway is developing a good deal of traffic from Polk and Butler counties to Fremont and Omaha and they desire the change across Saunders county as the southern route has fewer hills and bridges.

Governor McKelvie Is

Well Received at Comstock Comstock, Neb., Oct. 23.—(Special.)—Governor McKelvie spoke to 500 people here and although mostly Nonpartisan league crowd, he was not heckled and made a good im-pression on his audience. Comstock and territory will go strong for Governor McKelvie, not only will the republicans vote for him, but most of the democrats and Nonpartisan league members.

Beaver City Farm Home Burns; Family Escapes

Beaver City, Neb., Oct. 23.— (Special Telegram.)—The farm home of F. W. Boker, near here, was burned Friday morning. Mr. Bocaped in their night clothes. Nothing was saved. Origin of fire is un-

Sloan at McCook.

Mrs. Maud M. Burrows of Kearney Dismiss Forgery Charge.

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 23.—(Special)

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 23.—(Special)

Patrick J. Langdon, 65, president of the Bank of Gretna, died at his al questions and policies in a con-

Hall County Legion Plans Celebration Of Armistice Day

Grand Island, Neb., Oct. 23.— (Special.)—Armistice day, November 11, will be celebrated in Grand sland in an elaborate way, if the lans of the business interests of the city, in conjunction with the American / Legion, are carried out A general committee representing the Legion, the retail dealers' section of the Chamber of Commerce, and the chamber's board of governors has been appointed to com-plete arrangements. Judge Oldham og Kearney has been obtained as one of the speakers.

The Omaha-Grand Island High school foot ball game has been advanced to Thursday for the event. There will be a parade in the morning, with the speaking program and athletic events in the afternoon, and surrounding communities will each send delegations. The local post is one of the strongest in central Nebraska, having enrolled over 500 of the 1,250 service men who went from Hall county.

nor Hart of that state was authorized by the last legislature to investigate the Nebraska law and prepare for the consideration of the next session of that body a law based on the Nebraska law.

Sterling Boy Injured by

Rifle Shot Will Recover Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 23.—(Special.)
—John Huls, jr., 12, of Sterling,
Neb., who was accidentally shot in the abdomen and seriously wounded by a 22-rifle, will escape the surreon's knife, as the ball passed from the body through a natural source. The attending physicians say this is a remarkable case, and that the lad's recovery is only a matter of a

Home From Prison Congress. Lincoln, Oct. 23.—(Special.)—Sec-retary H. H. Antles of the State department of public welfare, with other delegates, has returned from the semicentennial session of the Amercan prison congress held at Co-

Couple to Be Wed On Theater Stage

Bride Will Throw Bouquet to Audience Fallowing Public Ceremony Monday Night.

When smiling Cupid flings cked dart through the hearts Miss May Paisley and Constant J Kimling, both of Omaha, at their public wedding on the bema of the Rialto theater Monday night, there will be revived one of the oldest traditions in the fiction of the bridal

Following the ceremony by Rev. Charles W. Savidge, the "marrying parson," the bride will throw her bouquet into the audience. Whoever catches the bridal flowers is destined to wed within a year according to time-honored tradition. a grand ball at night.

Large delegations from Hastings and possibly Kearney are expected, and the various posts in the smaller wor.en.

cording to time-honored tradition.

John Loveridge, manager of the Rialto, announced that the first 10 rows of seats will be reserved for wor.en.

California G. O. P. Leader

To Support Governor Cox San Francisco, Oct. 23.—An-ouncement that he would support Washington Plans to Copy

Code Law Used in Nebraska
Lincoln., Oct. 23.—(Special.)—
Commissioner F. H. Gloyd of the Department of Agriculture of the state of Washington has written to Governor McKelvie asking that a couple of copies of the Nebraska code law be sent to him.

In explanation he says that Governor Hart of that state was authors.

Washington Plans to Copy made by Chester H. Rowell, former publisher of the Fresno Republican, in a telegram to United States Senator and will speak twice daily during the week and on Monday of next week, with the exception of Thursday, when he democratic natoinal committee here.

Mr. Rowell was former chairman of the republican central committee and four years ago was a member of the republican national campaign committee.

Monday, speak-ing in the afternoon at Fremont and in the evening at Seward, and will speak twice daily during the week and on Monday of next week, with the exception of Thursday, when he democratic natoinal committee here.

Mr. Rowell was former chairman of the republican central committee and four years ago was a member of the republican national campaign committee.

Mr. Rowell states Sent to Monday of next week, with the exception of Thursday, when he will deliver one address in Lincoln.

His itinerary is as follows:

Monday 2 p. m., Feremont Seward, and will speak twice daily during the week and on Monday of next week, with the exception of Thursday, when he will deliver one address in Lincoln.

His itinerary is as follows:

Monday 2 p. m., Feremont Seward, and will speak twice daily during the week and on Monday of next week, with the exception of Thursday, when he will deliver one address in Lincoln.

His itinerary is as follows:

Mr. Rowell was former chairman of the exception of Thursday 2 p. m., Feremont Seward and on Monday 2 p. m., Feremont Seward and

Monticello Seminary

Student Body Formed Here Former students of Monticello seminary, Godfrey, Ill., from the states of Nebraska and Iowa met in Omaha Saturday and formed a student association. This association will use its influence in promoting the interests of the school. Miss Harriet Congdon, principal of the school, was present at the meeting which was held at the Athletic club.

Dismiss Larceny Charge. Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 23 .- (Special.)

Crowds Greet Congressman. Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 23 .- (Special.) dressed large crowds at Cortland sort at Wahoo, was formally opened and Ellis on campaign issues. and Ellis on campaign issues.

Sherburne, Neb., Man Seeks Aid of Police in Missing Grip Mystery

The mystery of the missing grip,

Who got my bag?"

Z. A. Sherburne, Haryard, Neb., took a taxicab from Union station Friday afternoon. Three other men rode with him. One got out at the Paxton hotel with two grips, Another got out at the Conant hotel with two grips. The third got out at the Rome hotel with one grip. And Sherburne got out

Castle hotel with no grip.

He appealed to police. Detectives trailed the first man to the Paxton but learned he did not enter the hotel. He has the missing grip, they say, but who is he? Senator Norris Heads Speakers Last Week

Of G. O. P. Campaign

head-liner for the republicans the closing week of the campaign. He will enter the state Monday, speaking in the afternoon at Fremont and Monday 2 p. m., Fremont; 8 p. Seward; Tuesday 2 p. m., York; 8 p. Aurora; Wednesday 2 p. m., Kearney p. m., Minden; Thursday 8 p. m., Linco Friday 2 p. m., Fairbury; 8 p. m., atrice; Saturday 2 p. m., Holdrege; 8 m., Heatings, Monday, November 1, 2 m., Cambridge; 8 p. m., McCeok.

He will be accompanied until Saturday by O. S. Spillman of Pierce, who leaves the senator to fill a speaking engagement at Seward in

A. J. Weaver of Falls City will accompany Senator Norris Saturday speaking with him at Holdrege and

Reavis Declines to Debate

League With Peterson Lincoln, Oct. 23.—(Special.)— Congressman C. F. Reavis of the First Nebraska district will not debate the issue of the league of na-The case of the state against Boston with his democratic opponent, coe and Edward May, charged with hog stealing by S. K. Beam of this time has passed when such arrangecity, has been dismissed in the district court. The alleged theft of the swine occurred last winter.

Wahoo Park Opened. Wahoo, Neb., Oct. 23 .- (Special.) Congressman McLaughlin ad- Wanahoo park, the new pleasure re-

Fifth Salvation Army Corps in State Now in Service at Alliance

Alliance, Neb., Oct. 23.—(Special Telegram).—Organization of a Salvation Army corps in Alliance is now assured by the arrival here of Ensign Henrietta Parks and Lieutenant Helen Walenski, who were ordered here from Hastings by Adjutant sook of Des Moines, for the purpose of establishing the corps.

The two workers met with the locations of the purpose of the purpose of the two workers met with the locations. cal county advisory board, and plans were outlined for obtaining a hall and living quarters for the workers, who will begin their work immedi-

The Alliance corps will be the fifth the state, others being at Omaha, Hastings, Kearney, and a Swedish corps at Holdrege. Local enurches and business organizations are heart-ly supporting the project.

Morris & Co. Salesman Is Arrested for Reckless Driving

When his automobile tried to climb a telephone pole at Twentyfourth and Parkers streets yesterday afternoon, R. W. Kinney, salesman for Morris & Co., 2910 South Seventeenth street, was arrested by Officers Vanous and Hammond for intoxication and reckless driving. force was necessary, police said, to get Kinney to submit to a trip to Central police station, where he is held for trial.

Man Who Accidentally Shot Companion Exonerated

Baltimore, Oct. 23.—Corporal Ernest Volk, who last Monday shot and killed Private Charles Pilven of Lynn, Mass., has been exonerafed by a board of inquiry, it was learned esterday. Corporal Volk's explanation that his rifle was accidentally discharged while he was cleaning it was accepted by the board.

Republican Registration

Leads, 2 to 1, at Norfolk Norfolk, Neb., Oct. 23.—(Special Telegram.)—A week's registration here for the November election places the republicans ahead by about 2 to 1. About 4,000 Norfolk men and women will register bemen and women will register be-fore next Saturday.

Few Hogs in Lots. Wahoo, Neb., Oct. 23 .- (Special.) Jake Wernsman of Fremont, auctioneer at the Moerenberg hog sale at Wahoo, asserts that in his 35 years of experience with farmers in Saunders county, he has never known so great a scarcity of hogs. Bee want ads are business getters.

hompson-Delden "THE FASHION CENTER FOR WOMEN"

ompany

Two Anniversary Occasions in October

The Thompson - Belden Store was founded in Omaha October 28, 1886.

The present location was occupied October 30, 1905.

These two occasions will be celebrated in a fitting manner during the coming week.

Thirty-Four Years in Omaha. fifteen years at Howard and Sixteenth streets.

Man has more desire for beauty than knowledge of it."-DOUDAN

Thompson-Belden Apparel

A ttaining beauty in costuming is more a matter of selection than of expenditure.

Only the worth while in fashions finds a place in Thompson-Belden displays.

Gowns, Suits, Coats, Blouses and Skirts

For the Fall and Winter are being shown in a pleasing variety in the apparel section on the third floor.