THE SHOW THAT SURPRISED WISE BROADWAY

Direct From its ALL SUMMER RUN at the Beautiful Columbia Theatre, Broadway and 47th St., New York City

Reviewing It, New York Papers Said in Part:

"For three solid hours the audience was kept laughing or applauding. A hit beyond a question of doubt. The best kind of a show presented in gorgeous style. It will be talked about all over Manhattan Island before the week is over."—Evening Journal.

"Picturesque settings and plenty of pretty girls."—Evening Telegram.

"Set a high mark in burlesque. In many respects superior to 'Fock-a-Boo.'"—Globe.

"Delightfully entertaining. Will rank with many attractions in Broadway theaters styled by their producers as musical comedy."—Folly Town is a sure-fire hit!—Evening Sun.

"A stupendous glittering real production, massive and worthy of all praise."—Morning Telegraph.

"Enthusiastically received."—N. Y. Times.

"One of the most elaborately staged and costumed entertainments of its kind ever attempted. Enough original ideas and clever lines to have enticed two or three other entertainments of the art and music type."—Evening World.

"A rollicking performance that is a sure cure for the blues."—Evening World.

"An entertainment that offers the strongest kind of a bid for a visit to the Columbia to really round out the list to Broadway's worth-while in theatricals."—American.

"Folly Town" proved that burlesque is no longer a shady outpost of the theater unit to associate with its so-called more respectable looking of the stage. The present Columbia attraction is one to which dead, mother and all the children can attend without any fear that they may be shocked. The chances now are that the respectable citizen will see his neighbor at the burlesque show giving the family a good time."—Evening Sun.

THE NEW YORK CAST AND PRODUCTION IN ITS MAMMOTH ENTIRETY

Positively the most stupendous musical revue ever offered at this theater. Requires two 60-ft. baggage cars to transport its scenic and costume equipment.

Reviewing It, Omaha's Sunday Papers Said in Part:

"Omaha now knows why 'Folly Town' played all summer in New York. It's the biggest burlesque show ever produced. Attendance records at the Gayety broken. Father, mother and the children can attend without fear."—Bee.

"Three hours of clean, class' entertainment. Highly commendable production. S. R. O. sign brought out early. Jammed houses at the opening performance. Splendid scenic effects and costumes, and unusually large cast. Will rival 'Fock-a-Boo' in popularity."—World-Herald.

"Unusually snappy burlesque. Specialties which monopolize the attention. Roof-raising applause given Ralph Dunbar's famous Tennessee Ten stopped the performance for a time. It's a jazzy show from start to finish—one you shouldn't miss."—News.

Dear Reader: Accept my assurance that "FOLLY TOWN" is the best value I ever sold you, Old Man Johnson, Mgr. Ga. ety.
