

Slump in Wheat Unnatural, Says Kansas Report

Governor Allen Finds Price Drop Due to Manipulations in Futures and Free Canada Grain.

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 26.—Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas tonight turned over the material he had gathered showing the alleged cause for the drop in the wheat market to G. A. Stephens, special agent of the federal trade commission...

The world war has been ended for two years; yet the burdens of that war rest heavily upon the shoulders of the American people. Waste, which may be viewed with tolerance under the stress of haste of war...

G. O. P. on Foundation of National Constitution Says Governor Coolidge

"When the wise and unselfish men laid the foundation for the United States of America indicated the future for us, they well knew that issues of the moment would change; they well knew that each generation would face new problems...

correction of all the ills which have been bred in the false doctrines of extra-constitutional government; it demands removal of burdens placed upon the people through disregard of the sane functions of government...

Problems Are Many. The problems of peace are not less important than those of war. They demand as high dedication and as lofty fulfillment from those entrusted with the administration of government...

ders of the history. The need for this policy is again apparent to thinking men. The war for four years acted as a wall, but that is past, and already we are threatened with a perilous industrial competition expressed in terms threatening to the material and social welfare of every American who labors in the field of industry.

Fair to Labor. "The republican party believes, as it always has believed, that American labor is entitled to receive from the government such legislation as shall guarantee a fair return for labor performed and that it is entitled to receive constant protection against aggressions from a competition based upon a scale of social existence alien and repugnant to American ideals of self-respect and American demands of material comfort."

"There is but one ark upon which our national faith may rest secure. It is our constitution. Departure from that, whatever the profession of motive, is a journey towards the precipice beyond which is national disaster."
