Several Testify Against Gilinski In Murder Trial

Omaha Gunman Identified by Witnesses as Man at Wheel of Bank Bandits' Auto.

Jackson, Mich., Oct. 27 .- (Special Telegram.)-Efforts to shake the testimony of witnesses who saw Dave Gilinski at the wheel of the car in front of the bank at Grass Lake while the bank was being robbed signally failed at the taking of testimony in the trial of Gilinski, Omaha gunman, on the charge of first degree murder for the killing of Undersheriff Harry Worden at Mack Island, in a battle between the officers and the four men traced to the island after the robbery.

The physicians, who performed the autopsy and removed the fatal bullet from Worden's body, retailed the character of the wounds and identified the bullet by a private mark which had been made in the presence of the three doctors. She ate some and was taken ill immediately after. An analysis of the confectionery showed it contained arsenic and strychnine.

Witness Describes Struggle. The witness stated that Harris and Deputy Sheriff Verl Kutt, rolled down the stairs in a struggle for Kutt's gun as the shots rang out at the door and that he ran down and started for the telephone in obedience to Kutt's order to call for help and did not see Gilinski when he is alleged to have appeared in the second door down the veranda and fired twice at Worden.

amination, Attorney Noon sought to question the probability of his recogpizing any of the men as the car passed the barber shop and scored a point against his own side when the witness stated that he now recalled that the man driving was dark-haired, young and had a large nose and he believed it was Gilinski.

Grocer's Testimony Damaging. grocer, whose store is a few doors from the bank, gave the most damage ing testimony against Gilinski. He stated that he came to the door of his store and his attention was attracted to the car by the unusual position in which it was parked, the The next witness, John Fuller, them.
