

"Cox and Peace" Is No Surprise To G.O.P. Here

"This Reminds Me," W. G. Ure Ironically Comments on Demos' New Slogan on Party Ticket.

Republican leaders of this county were not surprised yesterday morning when they read a circular letter addressed by the county democratic candidates' organization, signed by Hester Bronson Copper, and being an appeal to the women to support the league of nations.

The last lines of the circular reads: "A vote for Harding is a vote for war."

"A vote for Cox is a vote for peace." "This reminds me," said W. G. Ure, republican county chairman, of the occasion when Vice President Tom Marshall spoke in the Brandeis theater four years ago for Wilson and the democratic cause. It may be remembered that the vice president's closing words of his Omaha speech were:

Not Surprised. "Which do you want, Wilson and peace or Hughes and war?" Charles H. Sloan of Geneva, Neb., former congressman, visited friends here this morning, having just completed a speaking tour of the state. He was not surprised that the democrats here should promote another slogan similar to the "he kept us out of war" of four years ago. He asserted that the women of Nebraska have been growing more and more convinced that their interests and that the interests of their country would not be conserved by supporting the Wilson league of nations.

One Died Overseas. "Take my own case," he said. "We had three sons in the world war. Two returned and one died overseas. Do you think that Mrs. Sloan or myself would vote for anything that would make it probable that our boys, or other boys, would have to go overseas to police some foreign country? In my recent travels through Nebraska, I have not found much sentiment among the women for the proposed league covenant."

Mr. Sloan believes that the democrats have gathered all the strength they are able to muster to their standard and they are now making a last desperate stand. He referred to Governor Cox's recent statement that he would sit with the senate and reach an agreement as an indication of weakness and surrender.

Neither Became Law.

"Governor Cox was in congress while I was there and I know that he voted for a bill which would place all grains and other agricultural products from Canada on the free list, and he voted for another bill which would have placed all meats and cereals of the world on the free list, but neither bill became a law," he added. "I have been telling these things to the farmers of Nebraska and they are interested. The farmers are vitally concerned in the economic problems of our country."

As for the league, if one will study the covenant carefully, it is apparent that it would be easy for this country to get in, but not so easy to get out. The covenant provides that for emergency from the league it is not only necessary to serve two years' notice, but all obligations to the league must have been observed and also all international obligations must have been carried out. Can you not imagine the possible situations which might arise if we signed on the dotted line and became a signatory to such an agreement?

Congressman Confident.

The former congressman is confident that Harding will carry Nebraska by not less than 50,000. Mrs. C. A. Severance of St. Paul, Minn., who spoke in Nebraska on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, under the auspices of the republican national committee, closed her itinerary here Wednesday night at First Unitarian church, with these words to the women of Nebraska:

"Women, don't be carried away by emotionalism, don't be deceived by slogans, such as 'He kept us out of war.'"

Improvement Shown In Shortage of Cars

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—Although the volume of freight traffic has steadily increased, freight car shortages have decreased recently, indicating a marked improvement in the general traffic situation.

Reports compiled by the car service division of the American Railway association show that for the week ending October 8, the average daily shortage of freight cars, as compared with the orders placed by shippers, was 75,336. Of this total shortage, 36,361 were box cars, and 25,914 were coal cars. For the previous week the total was 60,141.

During the week ending October 9, the number of cars loaded with commercial freight was greater than for any previous week this year, a total of 1,009,787, which has been exceeded but once in railroad history, according to the records of the car service division.

Ryan Gives Additional $15,000 to Democrats

New York, Oct. 29.—Allan A. Ryan today contributed an additional $15,000 to the democratic fund, making $45,000 in all.

In a letter to Democratic National Chairman White, he said Republican National Chairman Hays had made a "tame apology," with respect to the cartoon recently published in "Harvey's Weekly."

Iowa Farmers' Union Joins

Strike for Higher Prices

Des Moines, Oct. 29.—The Iowa farmers' union pledged its 35,000 members to support the strike for higher grain prices recently declared by the Iowa farm bureau federation. Making allowances for the applications in the membership of the two organizations, this adds about 23,000 farmers to the number of the hold-

Over the Political Fence

The chairman of the republican county central committee urges women to vote early next Tuesday morning and suggests that those who are unable to vote during the morning, attend the polls between 2 and 4 in the afternoon and thus avoid the evening rush.

W. J. Bryan advises Omaha democratic leaders that he will be unable to speak here during the closing days of the campaign. Democracy of Nebraska has experienced several heartaches during the campaign because Mr. Bryan has been silent.

Mrs. Draper Smith was seated at a table in the Lincoln hotel, Lincoln, with Howard Kenedy, who had been attending a child welfare conference with her. She was busily engaged at her meal and did not observe the entrance of John H. Morehead, democratic candidate for governor, and Charles Pool, former secretary of state. Mr. Morehead addressed the Omaha woman in terms of mock-seriousness.

"You are not looking as well as usual, Mrs. Smith. I think you should take a rest for the remainder of the campaign."

Mrs. Smith, who had been opposing the candidacy of Mr. Morehead, caught the humor of the situation and replied that she never felt better in her life and only wished that she had nine lives to give to her party.

The local lodge of Elks will have a special wire installed in its club rooms for election night. Members and friends are invited to attend. "I observe," said Judge Ben S. Baker, "that some papers are devoting half columns to every republican they find who is going to vote for Cox. I think that any newspaper would not have space for other news if it gave one inch of space to every democrat in Omaha who will vote for Harding and Coolidge."

Henry C. Behrens, identified with local democracy for years, is now wearing a Harding and Coolidge button. He has been active in the affairs of the democratic party for 30 years and he is now outspoken against the Wilson administration, the Wilson league of nations and the candidacy of Governor Cox.

Franklin Roosevelt Files Suit Against Republican Leaders

New York, Oct. 29.—Franklin D. Roosevelt filed papers in a suit for $500,000 against John R. Rathom, editor and publisher of the Providence Journal, and Scott C. Boze and Edward B. Clark, manager and assistant manager of publicity for the republican national committee. Mr. Roosevelt charges the defendants with circulating false and defamatory libel.

An editorial in the Providence Journal charged Mr. Roosevelt had sequestered or destroyed navy department records and that he had sought personally to return to the ships of the navy men convicted of various crimes. Mr. Roosevelt made public denial of the charges and then Mr. Rathom sent him a letter outlining specific cases referred to in the editorial. The letter also was published in the Providence Journal.

Jews of East Galicia Recognize Polish Rule

New York, Oct. 29.—The Jews of East Galicia, who have been vigorous opponents of Polish rule in the province, have recognized Polish sovereignty, according to a statement issued by the Polish information bureau, quoting advices received from the Polish foreign office in Warsaw.

Representatives of all the East Galician Jewish parties, including the Jewish national party, the Jewish labor party and the Orthodox party of Poles of Messianic faith, recently held a meeting in Tarnopol at which it was voted to recognize the sovereignty of the Polish government.

Similar Names On Ballot Lists Confuse Voters

Inquiries From Electors Show They Have Judge George A. Day and L. B. Day Mixed Up.

"Mr. Justice Day, permit us to introduce Mr. Attorney Day, also a candidate for judge."

"Mr. Attorney Day—Mr. Justice Day." It is not unusual for half a dozen Smiths or Jones or Johnsons to aspire to office in a single election, but next Tuesday there will be two Days on the Douglas county ballot, neither related to the other.

Each Seeks Judgeship.

One is George A. Day, for years a district judge in Omaha and now a candidate for supreme justice of the state, to which office he was appointed to fill a vacancy a few months ago. The other is L. B. Day, a young Omaha lawyer who is a candidate for district judge.

Judge Day, now serving on the supreme court bench, has had a long career in Omaha as lawyer and judge. He served as judge in this, the Fourth judicial district for 18 years. Before that service he was a member of the supreme court commission and was deputy attorney general of Nebraska under Attorney General Churchill.

Was Gas Appraiser.

Judge Day was a member of the court of condemnation in the recent Omaha gas plant appraisal. His father was a prominent member of the Iowa bar, having served as judge of the supreme court in that state.

L. B. Day, candidate for one of the seven places on the district court bench here, is a young attorney who has attained no record of public service.

General Bundy and Staff

Are Guests of C. of C. Maj. Gen. Omar Bundy, commandant of the Seventh Army corps

Fort Crook, and his staff, were guests of honor at a dinner in the Chamber of Commerce Thursday. The officers were formally welcomed to Omaha. The Rees Sister's orchestra furnished music. Charlie Gardner led community singing. Robert S. Trimble served as toastmaster.

John W. Gamble, Col. Alexander M. Miller, Col. L. S. Upton, Colonel Page, and General Bundy responded to toasts. General Bundy, after expressing thanks for the hospitality shown him and his staff, spoke at length on the strides Omaha has taken since he was stationed here nine years ago.

Humane Society Declares

War On Wild West Shows

Wild west shows must go, delegates to the national convention of the American Humane association decided at their final meeting in the Fontenelle Thursday night.

Frederick B. Fanger, Colorado, made a brilliant appeal to the delegates against the Rodeo in California, Frontier days in Wyoming and the Stampede in Texas.

Mr. Fanger described the alleged cruelty to dumb animals at these shows. The humane convention ended yesterday. An attempt to pass a resolution against children's insurance failed. Votes of thanks were adopted to Omaha newspapers, the Hotel Fontenelle and Chamber of Commerce officials for treatment accorded the convention.

Jail Breakers Are Captured by Police Chief's Son Unaided

O'Neill, Neb., Oct. 29.—(Special Telegram.)—Herald Beebe, young son of Chief of Police Milo Beebe of Atkinson, unaided Thursday evening, captured William Bush and George Ryan who escaped from the county jail at Bute, Neb., last night and who had walked across country almost 40 miles to the railroad at Atkinson.

The men were wanted for breaking into a store at Gross Bush while captured at Council Bluffs while trying to peddle some of the stolen goods. His confession implicated Ryan, who was captured at Lynch. They were awaiting trial when they escaped from the Boyd county jail.

One-Minute Store Talk

"The salvation of this store is in the good eye-sight of the people of this community and their ability to discriminate. We've lived through gas attacks and smoke screens laid down by foxy merchandise manipulators in the past. The best thing about these fake sales is that they build business for Greater Nebraska and its legitimate merchandising," said a prominent Omaha.
