Common Sense

DON'T BE JUST A TIME FILLER By J. J. MUNDY. Is your daily work an enthusiastic pleasure of merely a "job" to you? And do you hold the job merely for the money it brings in? Do you ever put your whole heart, body and soul into your daily work? Isn't it true that you often think of the man above you in the busi-ness as a fool for putting in so much energy, so much thought and so many hours when he might get along with less effort?

And at the same time you wonder why you do not progress.

Well, if the truth were known it would indicate that you shirk responsibility sometimes from fear of displaying ignorance and sometimes to avoid doing something which would make you think hard and faster than you wish.

You may be better fitted in many ways to fill the job of the man higher up, but it is pretty clear to your employer that you are just hold ing a job and the man they put in the place of trust must be dependworker, not a time filler.

He grew up in a hundred yards of You cannot win anything worth school house and the teacher even while unless you bend your back and boarded at his home, and according your heart to take a load and carto the general rules Cricket ought to ry it well and gladly, because you have been a sight smarter than the really like the opportunity to show (Copyright, 1920, by International Feature Service, Inc.)
