Brandeis Stores

WHY Brandeis Stores Lead in Price Reductions

Bigger bargains than ever at Brandeis Stores Monday. Additional quantities of high class goods ordered for our anniversary sale are now on our counters.

Our buying organizations give our customers the earliest advantage of price reductions in the general market. In such reductions we naturally include merchandise in stock which we had purchased at higher prices. We claim no credit for giving low prices. That's our business and it makes more business.

Manufacturers and jobbers often in need of immediate funds will make sacrifice to those who can pay spot cash for enormous purchases. Brandeis Stores can do this.

Thus we regularly obtain price reductions which are not within the reach of smaller concerns.

That's why Brandeis Stores always lead in low prices even as they lead in quality of goods.

Prices given on this page are merely hints of our prices generally. Bargains similar to those mentioned here will be found throughout Brandeis Stores on Monday. We suggest buying early.
