

HARDING WINS BY LANDSLIDE

SLIGHT EDGE TO MCKELVIE IN NEBRASKA

Returns From Twenty-Seven Precincts in State Indicate Small Margin Over His Opponents.

HARDING WILL CARRY STATE BY OVER 80,000

Wray, Nonpartisan Candidate, Shows Surprising Strength In State—Holds Own With Morehead.

The first 27 Nebraska precincts reporting the result of Tuesday's election showed the following:

For president: Harding, 4,114; Cox, 2,046.

For governor: McKelvie, republican, 2,663; Morehead, democrat, 1,829; Wray, independent, 1,783.

None of these precincts was in Douglas county.

Allowing for the fact that some of these precincts were in territory normally republican, the indications still pointed to a Harding plurality over Cox of more than 80,000 in Nebraska.

McKelvie is running away behind Harding and Wray, the independent Nonpartisan league candidate, is making a much better showing on the early returns than expected. He is better than he is likely to show on more complete figures. While the returns are too scattering to make prophecy safe, the likely fact is that McKelvie has been re-elected by a safe majority.

McKelvie Runs Behind.

Early returns indicated almost uniformly the overwhelming victory for Senator Harding in Nebraska. Without exception, too, they showed the material drag of Governor McKelvie, republican candidate for reelection.

Two precincts in Adams county gave Harding, 392; Cox, 94. The same precincts gave McKelvie, 203 for governor; Morehead, 144, and Wray, 287. For congressman in the Fifth district, these precincts gave Andrews, 275; Dungan, 119.

Furnas for Harding.

Three precincts in Furnas county gave Harding, 403; Cox, 277; for governor, McKelvie, 193; Morehead, 152; Wray, 200; for congress, Fifth district, Andrews, 281; Dungan, 235. One precinct in Harlan county gave Harding, 268; Cox, 157; for governor, McKelvie, 196; Morehead, 132; Wray, 127.

A single precinct in Kearney county gave Harding, 156; Cox, 125; for governor, McKelvie, 121; Morehead, 123.

The first precinct reporting from Lancaster county gave Harding, 328; Cox, 147; for governor, McKelvie, 273; Morehead, 123; Wray, 82.

Lincoln county, two precincts, reported, Harding, 297; Cox, 202; for governor, McKelvie, 248; Morehead, 181; Wray, 61.

Andrews Has Lead.

Hall county contributed returns from two precincts: Harding, 398; Cox, 194; for governor, McKelvie, 184; Morehead, 222; Wray, 207.

Otoe county in southeast Nebraska gave Harding, 166, and Cox, 85, in one precinct; for governor, McKelvie, 92; Morehead, 94; Wray, 44; for congress, First district, Reavis, 152; Peterson, 43.

Four precincts in Phelps county gave Harding, 572; Cox, 224; for governor, McKelvie, 437; Morehead, 27; Wray, 267; for congressman, Fifth district, Andrews, 485; Dungan, 336.

McKelvie Leads in Webster.

Two precincts, Webster county, gave Harding, 249; Cox, 135; for governor, McKelvie, 183; Morehead, 97; Wray, 110; for congress, Andrews, 199; Dungan, 183.

A single Cass county precinct gave Harding, 85; Cox, 84; for governor, McKelvie, 47; Morehead, 37; Wray, 92; for congress, Reavis, 102; Peterson, 83.

Washington county, one precinct, showed Harding, 74; Cox, 59; for governor, McKelvie, 58; Morehead, 53.

Butler For McLaughlin.

Three precincts in Butler county gave for president, Harding, 344; Cox, 221; for governor, McKelvie, 200; Morehead, 201; Wray, 104; for congress, Fourth district, McLaughlin, 335; Sprague, 193.

Fillmore county in one precinct gave for president, Harding, 65; Cox, 158; for governor, McKelvie, 43; Morehead, 175; congress, Fourth district, McLaughlin, 62; Sprague, 155.

Holt county, one precinct, gave for president, Harding, 152; Cox, 82; for governor, McKelvie, 118; Morehead, 104.

Two precincts in Hamilton county gave for president, Harding, 276; Cox, 123; for governor, McKelvie, 175; Morehead, 83; Wray, 140; for congress Fourth district, McLaughlin, 229; Sprague, 157.

Nuckolls county, one precinct, gave for president, Harding, 94; Cox, 13; for governor, McKelvie, 33; Morehead, 10; Wray, 69.

FLORIDA.

Jacksonville, Nov. 2.—Twelve districts out of 1,000 in Florida gave: Cox, 69; Harding, 64.

League Is Repudiated Campaign Leader Says

Chicago, Nov. 2.—"The landslide is here. It is a triumph for Americanism and a repudiation that forever buries the Wilson league of nations," said John T. Adams, in charge of republican western headquarters in a statement to the Associated Press tonight. "Early returns indicate the American people have spoken plainly."

Harding Hears Glad Tidings at Birthday Party

Election to White House Is Gift of People of United State to G. O. P. Candidate.

Marion, O., Nov. 2.—Warren G. Harding tonight had the greatest birthday party of his life.

Surrounded by members of his family and a circle of neighbors and personal friends, he received quietly at his home here the tribute of the millions who had voted to present him on his fifty-fifth anniversary with the presidency of the United States.

The smile of confidence he has worn for weeks, broadened as he read the early returns and began to receive a flood of congratulatory messages hailing him as the president elect. He deferred any formal comment, however, until the result should have been established beyond all doubt.

Votes During Morning.

During the day he outwardly had concerned himself very little with the pending national decision. With Mrs. Harding he voted during the morning and then made off for a 40-mile automobile ride and a game of golf at the Scioto club near Columbus. He returned in the early evening, his face flushed by the raw fall air, and his spirits heightened by the tramp over the muddy golf links.

Returns collected by The Associated Press were delivered to the senator in his home during the evening from the special leased wire which has been installed within a hundred feet of his front porch since the campaign began. He scanned the presidential and congressional figures with an equal show of interest for he has asked the people repeatedly for a republican congress to put the party's legislative program on the statute books.

Mrs. Harding Interested.

As throughout the whole campaign, Mrs. Harding was an active figure during the evening about the candidate's headquarters. She had familiarized herself with local conditions in many states and she studied the returns with an eye for political detail.

The senator's father, Dr. George T. Harding, and two of his sisters, Miss Abigail Harding and Mrs. Caroline, also were in the family circle and many friends from about town dropped in during the evening to pay their respects with the Hardings. Outside in the street a crowd gathered early, watching the news of the elections as it filtered out to them.

Manager Is Present.

Harry M. Daugherty, Columbus, who was the senator's pre-convention manager, and who has been his close friend for years, was one of those who received the election figures here. Since the Chicago convention, he has served as a member of the campaign executive committee, and accompanied the nominee on all of his speaking trips and has been in consultation with him at Marion more frequently than any other party leader.

While the senator was at dinner late in the evening a committee of employees of the Marion Star, his newspaper, called to present him with a gold printer's makeup rule and with his voice choking with emotion, thanked them for their devotion.

Senator Harding's home precinct gave: Harding, 473; Cox, 76.

Four years ago the senator's precinct had gone democratic, but a reapportionment had changed precinct lines.

New Era Dawns, Says Governor Coolidge

Boston, Nov. 2.—Governor Coolidge tonight with friends at the Hotel Touraine, early in the evening he issued a statement thanking the voters for their support and expressing assurance of victory.

"It is with a great deal of gratitude that I have seen by the incoming returns the extent of the victory and have realized its source. While I rejoice in its great proportions, I rejoice even more in the nature of the support we have received. It means the end of a period which has seemed to substitute words for things, and the beginning of a period of real patriotism and true national honor."

Steamer Goes Aground.

Seattle, Nov. 2.—The steamer, Eastern Belle, en route from Puget Sound, points to Cuba with lumber grounded in the fog at Dungeness bay. Straits of Juan De Fuca, Wash., according to reports received. A coast guard cutter was sent to her assistance.

The President-Elect

Straight Football Brings 28 to 0 Victory to Cornhuskers in Dash With Rutgers in New York

By JACK VEIOCK.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—A gigantic steam roller from out of the west tumbled across the gridiron at the Polo grounds here today and crushed Rutgers college, 28 to 0. It was Nebraska's well-known foot ball team.

With 15,000 spectators looking on, the Cornhuskers, looking even more beefy in their scarlet Jerseys, made their first eastern debut in the gridiron and rode to an easy victory because of superior weight, speed and around foot ball ability.

Little Rutgers, her players clad in black Jerseys, looked like a pigmy of the big team from the plains of Nebraska and was as much of a pigmy as the score indicated, regardless of the fact that no scoring was done by either side in the first or third quarters.

Force Aerial Game.

Rutgers could not punt her was through Nebraska's beefy line and Coach Henry "Indiana" Schulte's well-trained ends saw to it that she had no long gains around the wings. The only thing left to Rutgers was the aerial game, and Nebraska solved her best efforts in this department with comparative ease. Another outstanding fault of the Jerteyes was their tumbling.

Hubka, Nebraska's great fullback, with Wright and Hartley, hit the Rutgers line like typhoons for consistent gains once the big Red team got going. Nebraska excelled in the passing game.

The victory was highly encouraging to the Nebraska players. They came here confident of their ability to win but doubtful as to the size of the score they would be able to run up against the team from New Jersey. Tonight they were jubilant and Coach Schulte spoke optimistically of the coming game with Penn State at State College, Pennsylvania, next Saturday.

Schulte Is Confident.

"We are aware that in Penn State we will meet one of the strongest teams," said Schulte, "but none of our players was laid up as a result of today's game and I am sure that Nebraska will show a fine brand of foot ball against Penn State Saturday. The size of today's score against Rutgers means but little. I think it would have been much larger had it not been for one or two plays that were run off indifferently by a winning team. Naturally we are saving something for Penn State."

All the scoring done today came in the second and fourth quarters, although Nebraska showed her superiority toward the last half of the first period when time was called with the ball in possession of the Cornhuskers on Rutgers' one-yard line. The second quarter started with the ball in this position and on the first play Hartley drove through the black-clad line for a touchdown and Captain Day kicked goal, making the score: Nebraska, 7; Rutgers, 0.

Pucelik Blocks Kick.

After the next kickoff in this quarter the teams exchanged punts several times and the ball went from one team to the other. Finally toward the latter part of the period, Nebraska held the New Brunswickites and forced M. Redmond to punt. Pucelik, Nebraska's star quarter, broke through and blocked the kick, recovering the ball himself on Rutgers' 35-yard line. Wright on the first play, slipped around the left end for a 22-yard gain. Hartley then lost a yard on a line smash and another line play failed to gain. Day tried a place kick from the 25-yard line, which was blocked by Raub of Rutgers. Hartley recovered the ball for the Cornhuskers and promptly made seven yards off tackle. Hubka then tossed a forward pass to Swanson, who caught the ball over the Rutgers' goal line for a touchdown. Day kicked the goal.

Total: Nebraska, 14; Rutgers, 0.

The quarter ended with the ball in Nebraska's possession on her 20-yard line.

Rutgers' gamely held the Cornhuskers for downs but after trying several plays Redmond was forced to punt, kicking to Newman on Nebraska's 19-yard line. After trying two line plays and receiving a penalty for holding, Nebraska snuffed. Moore, who had replaced Wright, did the kicking. The ball went over quarter-back Maloney and rolled to Rutgers' eight yard line. Redmond promptly punted out of danger.

Moore, who had been injected into the Cornhusker backfield, started the westerners on the way to their third touchdown with a 25-yard gain around left end.

Day's Boot Faultless.

Hubka got the spirit and ripped off nine yards through center. Moore then hit the line for four yards and first down and given the ball a second time, carried it over for a touchdown. Day booted the goal easily.

Score: Nebraska 21, Rutgers 0.

Moore Kicked off to Maloney who returned 10 yards. Hartley interrupted a Rutgers forward pass in midfield. Dale replaced Hubka and promptly made seven yards through center. Thomson went to halfback for Hartley at this stage and after Newman had made four yards on a fake play, Thomson tore off an 11-yard gain around his own right end. It was here that Newman saw the chance for a forward pass and his aerial to Swanson gave Nebraska her last touchdown. Once more Day's unerring toe accounted for a goal.

DEFENDERS OF LEAGUE BURIED UNDER AVALANCHE OF G. O. P. PLURALITIES

Incomplete Returns Indicate Republican Candidate For Presidency Has Not Less Than 346 Votes in Electoral College With Majority Over Opponent of Not Less Than 121.

By ARTHUR SEARS HENNING. Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Harding and Coolidge were swept into office in the presidential election today by the biggest republican landslide since 1904, if not in the history of the nation.

With 25,000,000 or more Americans participating in the "great and solemn referendum" on the league of nations issue, decreed by President Wilson, Cox and Roosevelt, defenders of the Wilson league, were buried beneath an avalanche of unprecedented republican pluralities from coast to coast.

The verdict of the people on the Wilson league constitutes the most complete popular repudiation of the policies of a president in the annals of the republic.

Victory of G. O. P. Is Conceded by Cox Followers

New York World, Democratic Organ, Flashes Signal Lights to Admit Defeat of Party.

New York, Nov. 2.—At 9 o'clock, eastern time, no single state had reported complete returns, but all over the east the cities were reporting heavy majorities for Harding and the republican ticket.

Just before 9 o'clock the New York World, which supported Cox, flashed its signal lights to announce the election of Harding.

In New York and New England, as in Ohio and Indiana, the Harding majorities being reported indicated a landslide in the east.

Hays Withholds Statement.

Chairman Hays, of the republican committee, at that time had issued no statement, but John T. Adams, in charge of republican western headquarters, proclaimed a landslide for Harding and "burying the Wilson league of nations."

Chairman White, of the democratic national committee, at headquarters said he had every reason to predict that Cox would be elected by the states west of the Allegheny mountains. He said that in 1916 "the people had a lesson in republican tactics of claiming everything."

Congressional Returns Meager.

Congressional returns at 9 o'clock were meager and in no case of sufficient volume to indicate which party would have control.

In the state tickets the first returns were from New York, but they were not sufficient to indicate the result.
