

STATE POLLS RECORD G. O. P. VOTE

G. O. P. Gets Both House And Senate

Republicans Will Control Both Houses of Congress as Result of Epochal Land-slide.

Gain 20 in Lower Branch

By The Associated Press. New York, Nov. 3.—Republican control of congress for another two years, with an increased house majority and a prospective increase in the senate, was a major part of the election sweep.

Score by States

Table showing electoral votes and results by state for Harding and Cox. Includes states like California, Texas, New York, etc.

Cabinet Is Main Topic Of Interest

Speculation Is Rife as to Members of President-Elect Harding's Official Family After March 4.

Many Names Mentioned

By The Associated Press. Marion, O., Nov. 3.—Warren G. Harding spent his first day as president-elect, resting from the tension of election night and reviewing late returns, with particular attention to the make up of the Sixty-seventh congress.

Wilson Silent On Outcome of National Vote

No Indication Given of His Future Course on Peace Treaty and League Covenant.

May Get More Senators

That the general republican landslide would best several more democratic senators was predicted confidently by republican campaign managers, whose claims included a majority of eight to 10 in the next senate.

House Veterans Win

In the house most of the veterans, both republicans and democrats, were re-elected, including Speaker Gillett, now holding the record for continuous service and elected for his 15th term.

Chairmanships Intact

Most of the important senate committee chairmanships remain in the hands of senators not involved in yesterday's elections.

Bourke Cockran Back

By defeat in the primaries of Representative Esch of Wisconsin, chairman of the Interstate Commerce committee and joint author of the new railroad law, Representative Winslow of Massachusetts heads the list of eligibles for the chairmanship.

Wilson Reputed

In the repudiation of Wilsonism, at least 19 of the 34 United States senators elected were republicans.

Reed Says League Stand

Cause of Democrats' Defeat Kansas City, Nov. 3.—"Support of the league of nations plan was the cause of the democratic party's defeat," declared United States Senator James A. Reed, democrat, and irreconcilable opponent of the league here today.

Wilson Silent On Outcome of National Vote

No Indication Given of His Future Course on Peace Treaty and League Covenant.

May Get More Senators

That the general republican landslide would best several more democratic senators was predicted confidently by republican campaign managers, whose claims included a majority of eight to 10 in the next senate.

House Veterans Win

In the house most of the veterans, both republicans and democrats, were re-elected, including Speaker Gillett, now holding the record for continuous service and elected for his 15th term.

Chairmanships Intact

Most of the important senate committee chairmanships remain in the hands of senators not involved in yesterday's elections.

Bourke Cockran Back

By defeat in the primaries of Representative Esch of Wisconsin, chairman of the Interstate Commerce committee and joint author of the new railroad law, Representative Winslow of Massachusetts heads the list of eligibles for the chairmanship.

Wilson Reputed

In the repudiation of Wilsonism, at least 19 of the 34 United States senators elected were republicans.

Reed Says League Stand

Cause of Democrats' Defeat Kansas City, Nov. 3.—"Support of the league of nations plan was the cause of the democratic party's defeat," declared United States Senator James A. Reed, democrat, and irreconcilable opponent of the league here today.

Thanksgiving

Bluffs Couple Elopes Second Time in a Year

On their second elopement within a year Louis W. England, jr., 21, 608 West Washington avenue, and Edna P. Hannum, 18, 2002 Avenue A, Council Bluffs, were remarried Tuesday in Omaha by Rev. Charles W. Savidge.

Canadians Expect Change in Tariff as Result of Election

Ottawa, Nov. 3.—Editorial comment in the press of Canada reflects the view that the republican landslide in the United States is a fore-runner of a decided change in tariff relations between the two countries.

New Colorado Senator Made Million in Mining

Denver, Colo., Nov. 3.—Samuel D. Nicholson, who apparently has been elected United States senator from Colorado, came to Colorado in 1881, settling in Leadville, where his home is today. He became interested in mining and in 1893 entered that business for himself, later becoming a millionaire.

Democratic Chairman in Idaho Concedes Defeat

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 3.—James H. Pope, democratic state chairman, tonight conceded the election of Frank R. Gooding, republican, as senator over John F. Nugent, incumbent, and democratic candidate for reelection.

Democrats Fail to Elect Single Candidate in Utah

Salt Lake City, Nov. 3.—The republicans carried Utah from the head of the ticket down to the office of constable in virtually every county of the state, according to returns compiled early today from 27 of the 29 counties in the state. The total number of precincts reporting were 320 out of 650 in the state.

Seven Men Killed In Election Riot

Orlando, Fla., Nov. 3.—Five negroes have been burned to death and another hung to a tree as a result of a fight which started at the polls at Ocoee, near here, last night, after election officials had refused to permit Mose Norman, a negro, to vote on the ground that he had failed to pay his poll tax.

Man Killed in Quarrel Over Election Judges

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 3.—Louis S. Campbell is dead, and A. J. Saunders is under bonds on a charge of murder, as the result of a quarrel as to who should serve as presiding judge at an election precinct in the southern part of Bexar county Tuesday.

Japanese Ambassador and Colby Hold Conference

Washington, Nov. 3.—Kijuro Shidehara, the Japanese ambassador, called on Secretary Colby at the State department and was in conference with him for some time. While no official announcement was made, it was reported that the conference had to do with the new anti-alien land law approved yesterday by the voters of California.

Republican Candidate Is Leading in Alaska

Juneau, Alaska, Nov. 3.—First returns received here indicate that D. A. Sutherland, republican, is leading George Grigs, democrat, as representative from Alaska.

Wilson and Cox Blamed by Bryan For Party Defeat

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 3.—In a statement this evening William J. Bryan placed what he termed the blame for the democratic defeat about equally between President Wilson and Governor Cox. The president, he said, "laid the foundations for the disaster and the governor completed the structure."

Declares President "Laid Foundations for the Disaster and Governor Completed the Structure"

The statement says in part: "The American people want the government to play its part in the abolition of war, but they are indifferent as to whether we are part of a league or part of an association of nations. There is nothing in a name, but everything in a sentiment. The real issue presented by the democratic party was not whether we should co-operate with other nations interested in peace, but whether we should assume a moral obligation which had no weight except as it suspended the right of congress to act independently when the time arrived for action. The nation will do its part in aiding to prevent war, but it will not surrender into the keeping of any foreign group the right to determine when we shall declare war."

Negro Refused Vote Kills Judge; Lynched

Orlando, Fla., Nov. 3.—A negro named Perry, who shot and killed two men at Ocoee after he had been refused a vote, was lynched early today outside the corporate limits of Orlando. He was hanged to a tree and his body riddled with bullets. Election officials said Perry was refused a vote because he had not paid his poll tax. He returned to the voting place last night with a shot gun and opened fire on white men, killing two, one a veteran of the world war, and wounding several others, not seriously. Perry was arrested and later was taken from the officers by a mob.

The Weather

Forecast table for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday with temperature ranges.

NEBRASKA CARRIED BY SENATOR HARDING, 2 TO 1; M'KELVIE IS RE-ELECTED

Entire Republican Ticket Is Successful in State, Carried Over by Wave of Anti-League Ballot; Biggest Vote of Confidence Ever Given President-Elect Recorded for Harding; Plurality of Governor Falls Short of Presidential Vote.

The biggest vote of confidence ever given by Nebraska to a candidate for any public office went Tuesday to Senator Harding, the republican candidate for president. He carried the state by 2 to 1, with the unprecedented plurality of approximately 135,000 over Governor Cox, the democratic nominee.

At the same time, the voters swept into office every republican candidate for state office—all except governor—by pluralities of from 80,000 to 120,000. Governor McKelvie was re-elected by approximately 20,000 over ex-Governor Morehead, the democratic candidate, with Arthur G. Wray, independent Nonpartisan league candidate, third.

All Legislators Except One Are Republicans

Theo. Osterman Lone Democrat Elected, Defeating Charles Wooster, Sage of Silver Creek.

Early returns indicated that the Harding landslide carried into office every republican candidate for the state senate and with one exception the entire legislature. Theo. Osterman in the Forty-ninth district was the lone democrat known to be elected. He defeated Charles Wooster, the sage of Silver Creek, who ran on the republican ticket with the endorsement of the Nonpartisan league.

Wilson and Cox Blamed by Bryan For Party Defeat

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 3.—In a statement this evening William J. Bryan placed what he termed the blame for the democratic defeat about equally between President Wilson and Governor Cox. The president, he said, "laid the foundations for the disaster and the governor completed the structure."

Declares President "Laid Foundations for the Disaster and Governor Completed the Structure"

The statement says in part: "The American people want the government to play its part in the abolition of war, but they are indifferent as to whether we are part of a league or part of an association of nations. There is nothing in a name, but everything in a sentiment. The real issue presented by the democratic party was not whether we should co-operate with other nations interested in peace, but whether we should assume a moral obligation which had no weight except as it suspended the right of congress to act independently when the time arrived for action. The nation will do its part in aiding to prevent war, but it will not surrender into the keeping of any foreign group the right to determine when we shall declare war."

Negro Refused Vote Kills Judge; Lynched

Orlando, Fla., Nov. 3.—A negro named Perry, who shot and killed two men at Ocoee after he had been refused a vote, was lynched early today outside the corporate limits of Orlando. He was hanged to a tree and his body riddled with bullets. Election officials said Perry was refused a vote because he had not paid his poll tax. He returned to the voting place last night with a shot gun and opened fire on white men, killing two, one a veteran of the world war, and wounding several others, not seriously. Perry was arrested and later was taken from the officers by a mob.

The Weather

Forecast table for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday with temperature ranges.

The total vote of the state was approximately 400,000. Seventy-five per cent of it has been reported and tabulated. Legislators / Heavily Republican. On the non-partisan judicial and school officers' ballot, Chief Justice Morrissey was re-elected over Grant Martin by over 20,000 majority. George A. Day, appointed state supreme judge to fill a vacancy, and John M. Matzke, similarly appointed state school superintendent, were retained in office by heavy majorities. George Seymour was elected a university regent and William L. Bates is running Regent Lford a close race for the second seat on the board.

The state legislature is heavily republican. The law enacted by the last legislature, repealing the direct primary insofar as it referred to minor state offices, was defeated on referendum by a 2 to 1 vote.

The latest available totals on president, governor and congressmen, represent 75 per cent of the total vote cast, follow:

Table for PRESIDENT and FOR GOVERNOR showing vote counts for Harding, McKelvie, Morehead, and Wray.

FOR CONGRESS. First district (172 of 205 precincts): Reavis, republican, 28,771; Peterson, democrat, 13,339.

Second district (168 of 199 precincts): Jeffers, republican, 29,424; O'Hara, democrat, 16,544.

Third district (256 of 344 precincts): Evans, republican, 27,424; Rice, democrat, 12,973; Weeks, independent, 11,782.

Fourth district (208 of 230 precincts): McLaughlin, republican, 29,682; Sprague, democrat, 19,107.

Fifth district (238 of 321 precincts): Andrews, republican, 22,564; Dungan, democrat, 16,678.

Sixth district (224 of 347 precincts): Kincaid, republican, 17,383; Grimes, democrat, 8,029.

Vote on Judges. The race for supreme court justice tabulations from 859 of the state's 1,827 precincts gave A. M. Morrissey, 78,510, and Grant Martin, 67,337. The plurality of 11,173, when applied to the ratio test indicated that Judge Morrissey had won the contest by approximately 20,000 votes.

For the senate of the supreme court, 81 precincts counted, George A. Day had plurality of 21,439 over William Dorsey. The totals were: Day, 78,265; Dorsey, 56,826.

For railway commissioner, long term, reports from 957 precincts gave Thorne A. Browne, republican, 124,336, against 64,786 cast for Roy M. Harrison, democrat. The ratio indicated an approximate plurality of 118,000 for Brown.

For lieutenant governor: One thousand and twenty-six precincts gave P. A. Barrows, republican, 105,854; Cass G. Barnes, democrat, 61,528; Robert D. Mousel, independent, 28,016.

For auditor: Nine hundred and ninety-seven precincts gave George W. Marsh, republican, 126,481; J. W. McKissick, democrat, 60,962.

For secretary of state: One thousand and fourteen precincts gave D. M. Amshberg, republican, 129,583; L. A. Larson, democrat, 71,168.

For secretary of revenue: 54,766 precincts gave Edmund B. Crusey, republican, 118,571; J. S. Canada, democrat, 66,028.

On the ratification of the primary law 594 precincts showed 19,801 affirmative votes and 44,259 negative. For state university regents, 750 precincts gave Seymour, 54,766; Bates, 55,644; Lyford, 34,382; Gerhart, 46,919.

For land commissioner, 951 precincts, gave Dan Swanson, republican, 125,732; Fred Hellier, democrat, 65,816. This ratio indicated Swanson (Continued on Page Two, Column Six.)