

Gloom Lifted From Italian Family Here

Mother and Daughters Ordered Deported to Italy Will Be Allowed to Stay in America.

The family of Mrs. Giuseppe Amato, 1436 South Thirteenth street, will be made gay today when Immigration Inspector W. M. Brashear will remove a cloud that has been impending for the past three years by informing them that they will be permitted by Uncle Sam to remain here and enjoy the freedom of America.

The cloud was first cast over the Amato family seven years ago when the husband and father died in Carlinina, Italy. On the following year Mrs. Amato and her two daughters, Rosa, then 10 and Carmela, 8, came to America. The cloud grew heavier in 1916 when the little family became ill in Omaha and became a public charge, giving the immigration officials cause to deport them.

The outbreak of the war was fortunate for them. Their deportation was delayed until this month. Meanwhile, Mr. Brashear was working for a cancellation of the order.

While deportation charges were pending because of the war, the mother and daughters went about their business of becoming good citizens. Mrs. Amato took employment with the Evans Model Laundry Co., and sent her daughters to school. This year Rosa reached her 16th birthday and relieved her mother's load by taking employment together with her. Carmela is still going to school but says that she, too, will soon begin to support herself.

Their application to diligent work was rewarded yesterday when Mr. Brashear received an order from the first assistant secretary of commerce cancelling their deportation.

11 Hens Idle; Now Lay 221 Eggs A Month
Almost Gave Up Raising Chickens Then She Tried This Plan.

"When I accepted your offer and tried Don Sung, I was getting 1 or 2 eggs every other day. The next month, using Don Sung, my 11 hens laid 221 eggs. I almost quit raising chickens, but now I will raise as many as I can."—Mrs. F. C. Young, Deloitte, Pa.

You also can easily start your hens laying and keep them laying even in coldest winter. To prove it, accept our offer, as Mrs. Young did. Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded. Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs and gets the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather.

You can obtain Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send $1.04 (includes war tax) for a package by mail. Burrell-Dugger Co., 212 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

Why Be Afraid of Good Food?

Eat What You Like Best But Follow It With a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet.

When the stomach sours or becomes gassy, with heartburn, it needs the alkaline effect to offset the acid condition.

This you get from one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Relief is usually very prompt. The regular use of these tablets after meals gives the stomach and small intestine substantial help to digest food and you will then be bold enough to eat baked beans, fried eggs, sausage, buckwheat cakes and many other things you thought would make your stomach miserable. Get a 60 cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store and you will then eat whatever you like and be fortified against the acid, sour stomach due to indigestion or dyspepsia.
