

Commercial Body Plans to Oppose Fort Evacuation

Removal of Balloon Equipment and Men to St. Louis Stirs Chamber of Commerce Officials.

Movement of balloon equipment and men from Fort Omaha to Scott field, Ill., 15 miles from St. Louis, Mo., thus leaving the fort here abandoned, will be fought by the Omaha Chamber of Commerce, Robert S. Trimble, president of the chamber, announced yesterday.

Plans for this evacuation of the fort, which were revealed by The Bee Wednesday, were of a most regrettable nature, and came as a surprise to chamber officials.

"We knew St. Louis has been trying to wrest the post away from us," said President Trimble this morning. "The post has been a matter of contention between the two cities for five years."

To Make Hard Fight.

"It would seem that St. Louis is on the verge of succeeding in its efforts, due to the secrecy with which plans have been made. We know that troops were secretly sent from Fort Omaha to California, and now we learn that more troops have been sent to Scott field."

"No efforts will be spared in defeating plans for the moving of the balloon post."

"We telegraphed to Washington to see what could be done just as soon as we saw The Bee last night," said J. David Larson, commissioner of the Chamber of Commerce. "The chamber will make every effort to retain the balloon school here."

Plan Artillery School.

A Fort Omaha officer declared yesterday that, although the balloon post at Fort Omaha would be abandoned, the fort would be used as the headquarters of Maj. Gen. Omar Bundy, commanding officer at Fort Crook.

He asserted plans were to make Fort Omaha an infantry concentration post, and that new barracks would be erected there. Fort Crook will be converted into an artillery school, he said. He pointed out that Fort Crook was ideally situated for that purpose, due to its isolation.

Hitchcock Surprised.

Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock, in Omaha yesterday, expressed great surprise at the move to abandon the fort.

"I had heard nothing about it," said Senator Hitchcock. "I supposed the balloon post had been permanently established here. I knew there were some objections to keeping the post here—that is for reasons of topography and climate. I am leaving for Washington tonight and will investigate the matter."

Big Vote in Omaha Assures Victory for Judge George A. Day

George A. Day of Omaha, appointed a state supreme judge to fill a vacancy, was elected to continue in office by a plurality of approximately 25,000. Day defeated William Dorsey, his opponent on the Nonpartisan ballot, by nearly 23,000 in Douglas county and led him by a small margin out-state.

With 871 of 1,877 precincts counted, Day had 78,265 and Dorsey 56,826. George Seymour and William L. Bates were elected state university regents by big majorities. The vote in 750 precincts showed: Seymour, 54,166; Bates, 53,644; Gerhart, 46,919; and Lyford, 34,382.

Miss Pankhurst Released On Bail Pending Appeal

London, Nov. 4.—Sylvia Pankhurst, who was sentenced to six months' imprisonment October 28, on being adjudged guilty of attempting to cause sedition in the navy, was released on 2,000 pounds bail pending an appeal. She signed an undertaking to sever her connection with the newspaper, The Workers' Dreadnought, in which an article entitled "Discontent On The Lower Deck," figured in the charges against her. The undertaking also pledged her to abstain from attending public meetings pending the hearing of the case in January.

A RAW, SORE THROAT

Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Musterole. And Musterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tingle, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is fine for quick relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds on the chest. Nothing like Musterole for croupy children. Keep it handy for instant use. 35c and 65c jars; hospital size $3.00.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS MAY BE OVERCOME

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are even just a little hard of hearing or have head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength), and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Cleared nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one losing hearing or who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

John Rogers, proprietor of the Rogers confectionery store at Twenty-fourth and Farnam streets, who returned to Omaha Wednesday from Greece, where he narrowly escaped being drafted into the army during the war while visiting his native land to close up his father's estate.

After establishing his rights to exemption from military service because of his American citizenship, Rogers said he was forced to wait three months before he could secure passage aboard a transatlantic liner, due to the flood of emigrants leaving Europe for America.

Lottery Company in Mexico Asks Permit To Sell Stock Here

Lincoln, Nov. 4.—(Special)—The largest number of applications for the sale of stock in the history of the state is being received by the state bureau of securities.

G. T. TonVelle, head of the bureau, says this is because it is generally known that Nebraska is a prosperous state, and naturally the applications go where there is the best chance to find the money.

The latest to come to the bureau is an application from the Michoacan state lottery of Mexico. The application recites that the company was granted a 20-year concession in 1919. It says also that lotteries are considered legitimate business enterprises in Mexico and conducted under government inspection and now that Mexico has entered upon an era of peace and prosperity the company has been organized with an increased capital and desires to sell stock in Nebraska.

Esperanto Sails.

Haliak, N. S., Nov. 4.—Esperanto, winner of the international fish schooner races last week, sailed away this morning on her return voyage to Gloucester, Mass. Steamships and small craft in the harbor blew noisy farewells to Captain "Marty" Welch and his victorious crew.

Alleged Check Forger Is Held to Grand Jury

Art Nelson, alias William Olsen, waived to the grand jury in Council Bluffs police court yesterday on charges of passing two worthless checks on Bluffs merchants.

Nelson is accused of passing a check for $6 on Lou Cornbleth, manager of the Boston store, 214 West Broadway, and another for $7 on F. O'Hare, manager of the Branch store, Main street and Broadway. The checks were drawn on the Merchants National bank of Omaha.

Department of Justice Called Into Trust Probe

New York, Nov. 4.—The joint legislative committee investigating the "Building Trust" appealed to the Department of Justice to recover certain books and records of associations of contractors under investigation, which have been taken out of the state.

The records which have disappeared, it was said, at the attorney general's office, were in themselves, sufficient to warrant the indictment of several contractors. They were to have been presented to the grand jury which is to begin its investigation of the criminal phase of the inquiry tomorrow.

Shipping Board Withdraws Steamers From Service

Washington, D. C., Nov. 4.—Orders to withdraw 24 lake type steel steamers, aggregating approximately 84,000 deadweight tons, from service were issued by the shipping board.

The vessels are to be tied up at Norfolk, Va., under caretakers. The general shipping situation makes it difficult for the smaller craft, such as these, to find cargoes, on account of the slump in ocean freight rates, officials explained.

Woman Sobs Out Story of Finding Love She Had Lost

Husband Causes Her Arrest With Friend Who Used To Play Chess in Family Circle.

A story of lost love with the subsequent finding of consolation in the bosom of a life long friend was told in tears in Central police court when Mrs. D. L. Darting, wife of a land dealer of Fremont, Neb., and C. L. Stout, wealthy real estate man of Missouri Valley, Ia., were arraigned, yesterday.

The woman's husband caused their arrest Wednesday night in an apartment at 1922 Chicago street. The couple had been living there for the past six weeks, Charles Pipkin, head of Pipkin's detective bureau, testified.

Good Church Woman.

For a short time previous, they had lived in an apartment on West Farnam street, Detective Pipkin stated. During their stay in Omaha they had assumed the name of Mr. and Mrs. Tucker, according to Detective Pipkin's report.

Stout is married and has four children, Darting declared. Sobbing pitifully, Mrs. Darting told her story.

"I'm a good church woman," she cried. "I loved our home and tried to make it happy."

Judge Reserves Decision. "Why, we had such good, cheerful times when Mr. Stout used to come over evenings and play chess with us. Then—then my husband put me out. What was I to do? Mr. Stout merely took my name."

The Dartings have been married 12 years.

Police Judge Fitzgerald continued the case. Bonds for their release were set at $300 each.

Darting declined to say whether he would put up the bonds for his wife.

Son, 17, Loses Fight To Set Aside Will

Boy Won't Get Half Million Estate Until He Is 30, Court Rules.

The will of the late Mrs. "Happy" Van Wyck Benner was upheld by decision of County Judge Crawford yesterday and admitted to probate. Mrs. Benner's son, Van Wyck, 17, sought to break the will on grounds that his mother was not in a strong mental condition when she made her last testament in 1909.

The will leaves the entire estate, valued at approximately $500,000, to young Benner, who is to receive only the income until he is 30 years old, when he will inherit all the property.

Hearing of the contest against the will occupied several days in court last week. Mrs. Benner died in Omaha in 1919. Van Wyck is with his father, Fernando Benner, in New York City.

Cox Considering Trip to Europe

Defeated Candidate May Go Abroad to Study Conditions After Leaving Office.

Dayton, O., Nov. 4.—Governor Cox, the defeated presidential candidate, looking forward to the time he will surrender his state office in January, announced he was considering a trip abroad early next year to study conditions in Europe. Meanwhile he said he planned to work and rest, leaving here for the state capital Friday and starting the middle of next week for a hunting trip in Mississippi.

Today found the governor in the same mental state as when he watched the returns Tuesday night, bringing in continuous unfavorable news. His smile was still apparent and the mass of telegrams seemed unanimous in declaring he had made a "good fight."

No formal statement was made by the governor and his newspaper, commenting editorially, did not attempt to analyze the returns. It was the governor's message to Senator Harding that carried the defeated candidate's formal concession of his defeat. Little in the belated returns today served to soften the sting of defeat. For the first time in the governor's political career, his home county of Montgomery, including this city, went against him, Senator Harding carrying it by about 8,000 plurality. Middletown, in Butler county, where he lived as a boy, also went to Senator Harding by five votes, but the county itself gave a comfortable edge to the governor.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.
