

Riot Guns Guard Bank at Ralston Against Bandits

Mysterious Warning of Impending Raid Causes Officials to Take Extra Precautionary Measures.

The Citizens' State bank of Ralston is on guard with riot guns against a raid by bank bandits, as the result of a warning from the Nebraska Bankers' association that a bank within a radius of 20 miles of Omaha would be held up.

The Citizens' State bank of Ralston has been the target of bank robbers three times within the last year. One raid was successful, the other two were repelled.

Theodore Shanahan, cashier of the bank, declared that the officials are merely taking precautionary measures.

Three Omaha stores, marked for robbery during the last month, are carefully guarded, according to Harry Kich of the Koch Insurance company, who says that he has received tips from proposed robbers agents who are in touch with "stool pigeons."

Special police and watchmen have been placed in the downtown department stores as a precautionary measure against robberies feared in the "crime wave" now sweeping the country.

Chief of Detectives Charles Van Deusen has ordered a general cleanup of all suspicious characters in Omaha as a result of the warnings of robbers.

New Nash Four Makes Long Trip Through Mud

The Nash Four-cylinder model arrived in Omaha Tuesday morning after one of the most grueling tests that has ever been made with an automobile. The car was piloted in by Nick Kline of the Nash Sales company and R. W. Hayward of the Hayward-Nash company. The start was made from Kenosha, Wis., Saturday noon. The entire trip from Dubuque to Omaha was made in a sea of mud. Mile after mile of freshly-graded road was negotiated in second and low gear, testing the qualifications of the car to the utmost.

One of the most severe tests to which any automobile was ever put was occasioned in a three and one-half-hour trip covering 14 miles from Marshalltown, Ia., to State Center.

The entire distance was negotiated without touching a wrench to the car at any time. No attempt was made at a record of any kind except to test the sturdiness and stability of this, the latest product of the Nash Motors company's Milwaukee plant.

Guard City Hall Against Possible Raid of Bandits

Alarmed by the recent daring raid on the Empress theater, which netted bandits $3,500, and the repeated warnings of robberies and hold-ups in Omaha, Mayor Smith requested that a policeman be placed on guard at the city hall entrance. That is why Officer Roscoe Smith paces back and forth there these days. Dan Butler has large amounts of cash on hand from day to day in receipts from the minny coal yard. That's what the bandits might get.

The life of worn carbon paper can be lengthened by placing two sheets together, face to face, covering them with paper and ironing with a warm flat iron.

Old Man Dollar's ODD LOT SALE

At About One-Half the Usual Prices

Listen, folks! This is a sale—and a very unusual one at that. It is "Old Man Dollar's" cleanup of the broken lots and odds and ends that have accumulated during the last two weeks' selling throughout the store. They must go quick to make room for more new goods.

Many lines have been broken—in some there are not all sizes; in others there are but a few things of a kind. Some of the merchandise is soiled, some of it is "mussed" from much handling. Some of the other offers are of lines that have been discontinued—lines we cannot replace.

Think of buying women's silk hose for 50c per pair—or corsets at 45c each—or women's sweaters at 95c. Or men's suits at $14.95—or—but why continue? You can do this Friday if you come early enough, and can find your size or favorite colors. But the offerings are limited—we do not guarantee quantities to last, so we again say come early!

Did You Get an "Old Man Dollar" Tag

Thousands were distributed from our airplane this afternoon. Children finding them will be rewarded by bringing them to the store Saturday. Some of these rewards are worth $10 each.
