Penn State on Edge for Game With Nebraska

Cornhuskers Have Advantage In Weight Over Bezedek's Eleven—Expect Large Crowd at Game.

State College, Pa., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Penn State is right on edge for the big Pennsylvania game with Nebraska tomorrow, the Blue and White eleven running through a snappy signal drill this afternoon with both Killinger and Williams calling the signals. The westeners also went through a light workout at the Country club where they are stopping and are reported to be in the best of condition. The advance sale of tickets for tomorrow's game indicates that there will be an overflow crowd if the day is clear.

Neither coach would disclose the lineup that he will use in the game, but it is probable that Penn State will start with Brown and McCollum, ends; Beck and Baer, tackles; Griffiths and Captain Hess, guards; Best, center; Williams, quarterback; Haines and Lightner, halfbacks, and Snell, fullback. Nebraska's probable lineup will be Swanson and Scherer, ends; Pucelik and Weller, tackles; W. Munn and M. Munn, guards; Captain Day, center; Newman, quarterback; Wright and Hartley, halfbacks, and Hubka, fullback.

A comparison of the relative weights of the two teams shows that the Cornhuskers will have a little edge on Bezedek's boys and if the field is muddy this may make some difference in the result. The respective lines are just about even, Nebraska averaging 185 pounds and Penn State 184. However, in the backfield, the Nittany Lions will be outweighed about eight pounds to the man, the visitors averaging 172 against State's 164. If Charlie Way goes in for Penn State, the Blue and White average will drop to 156, for the diminitive marvel tips the beam at exactly 140 pounds.

Coach Bezedek is counting on his powerful line to stop the smashes of the Nebraska backs and he expects his sprinting backfield to do the rest.

Lincoln Woman Was Almost in Despair When She Began Taking Tanlac—Improvement Is Wondrous—Gains Fifteen Pounds.

"Tanlac has not only relieved me of three years terrible suffering, but has built me up 15 pounds in actual weight, and I shall praise the longest day I live," said Mrs. Sarah Learmont, 2248 R street, Lincoln, Neb., recently. "For three years my kidneys bothered me a great deal. I had severe pains all through my body, and my lower limbs pained me so much I could hardly stay up. My stomach got so out of order I could hardly digest anything and I suffered from constipation all the time. At times I had such terrible headaches it seemed that my head would burst, and I became so dizzy I could hardly stand. I finally got in such a bad condition I couldn't do my housework, and had to spend most of my time in bed. Well, I was almost in despair when I started taking Tanlac, but before I finished half so much that bottle I felt better, so I kept on taking it. I have now taken five bottles, and I eat heartily and my digestion seems to be perfect. I never have a headache or dizzy spell, and in fact, I hardly notice any pain, and I have built me up so much that I am doing all my housework with ease. All my friends have noticed my wonderful improvement, and since I owe the good health I am enjoying to Tanlac, it is certainly a pleasure in all others about it. Tanlac is sold in Omaha at all Sherman & McConnell Drug Company's stores, Harvard Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy. Also in South Omaha and Benson Pharmacy, Benson, and the leading druggist in each city and town throughout the state of Nebraska.
