League of Nations Now Is Dead Issue Is Harding's Word

U. S. Will Play Part In New Body Founded On Peace and Justice, President Elect Tells Neighbors.

Marion, O., Nov. 5.—Making his first speech as president-elect, Warren G. Harding declared at an election celebration of home folks last night that the Versailles league of nations was now "deceased" and that the new administration intended to see the nation played its part in a new international association founded on peace and justice.

Mr. Harding also told his friends and neighbors who gathered around the front porch in a cheering, concourse rivaling the argathest crowd of the campaign that he had come through the fight "without an apology or a regret" and that he would rather not have the presidency than to win it "by speaking ill or uttering a lie."

The celebration, in which many from other Ohio cities joined, was characterized by all the carnival features of an old-time political rally. So great was the gathering that the streets were jammed for a block away and only a small part of those present could hear the speech. In a parade past the Harding residence there were many special features, one man leading a donkey on whose sides were painted, "Jimmie didn't treat me right," while another group carried a dummy, corps silhouetted against a red-fire background and labeled "the league of nations."

No Sorrow in Faces. It was from the latter tableau that the president-elect took the cue for the leading thought of his speech. His reference to it started a laugh and then he said: "I didn't see as much sorrow in your faces as I had apprehended. Let's that you or I question the desire of America to play its part; it's not that we question the high ideals of those who were responsible for the Versailles covenant. You just did not want a surrender of the United States of America. You wanted America to go on under American ideals. That's why you didn't care for the league which is now deceased."

"America is playing a great part now. America is healing the heart of the old world tonight as no other nation. But there is more to do. There is a responsibility resting on us and when the next administration comes into power we're going to play our part. We're going to ask for nations associated together in justice; but it shall be an association which surrenders nothing of American freedom."

Thanks Crowd for Tribute. In his short talk the president-elect touched on no other issues of the campaign, but thanked the crowd for its tribute and asked that he go to Washington "with your good wishes and your confidence and prayers."

"It's a solemn responsibility," he said, "and when I go through I want to be able to come back and be one of you again, the same as I am now. I like to stand before you and tell you I don't come with a single apology or regret. Before I'd become president by speaking ill or uttering a lie, I'd spurn the office." He added that he always had liked "the Marion spirit of boosting," and that he was "going down to Washington as a booster for the U. S. A."

British Recognition of Mexico to Follow America. London, Nov. 5.—British recognition of Mexico is expected to follow recognition by the United States, according to Miguel Covarrubias, former Mexican minister at London, who resigned his post as foreign minister under the present Mexican regime in August and returned to England on a mission for his government.

Since his arrival Senor Covarrubias has had only informal conversations with the British foreign office, but he takes the view that the recent statement by Secretary of State Colby on the Mexican question and also the legalizing by the Mexican congress last week of General Obregon's election to the presidency are leading up to full recognition of Mexico by the United States and Great Britain.

Wilson Praises Work of Scouts President Commends 53 Boys For Best Records in Sale of War Saving Stamps.

Washington, Nov. 5.—President Wilson signed letters of commendation to 53 Boy Scouts who made the best records during 1918 in the sale of war savings stamps. The scout organizations sold more than $45,000,000 worth of the securities during their campaign.

"It gives me pleasure to tell you of my deep appreciation of the manner that you, as members of the Boy Scouts of America, have secured subscriptions for (third) land war saving stamps," the president's letter read. "You have won the distinction of having secured more subscriptions during the 1918 war savings campaign than any other scout in your state."

"You have exercised courage, courtesy, thought and untrifling effort, and in so doing have set an example for all boys—an example that will surely aid in the growth of valuable qualities of heart and mind. I thank you in the name of the whole country, and I wish to convey to you, your parents, your community and your Boy Scout organization my appreciation of the training that has developed in you such a fine spirit of wholesome and loyal citizenship."

G. S. Farbell of Happa, N. Y., who sold $77,215 in stamps, was first in the scout contest in 1918, while James Campbell of Lorain, O., was second and Edward Stevenson of Newark, N. J., was third.

Veteran Democratic Congressman Claims Election by 10 Votes

Columbus, O., Nov. 5.—The only indicated change in results of Tuesday's election was the apparent veteran democratic congressman, in election of William A. Ashbrook, the Seventeenth district.

Having conceded yesterday the election of D. M. Morgan, his republican opponent, Ashbrook today was claiming his own election by 10 votes on complete unofficial returns. It will take the official count to decide the race.

Should Ashbrook win, he will be the only democrat among Ohio's 22 representatives in the new congress.

With only 23 present to be heard from on president, Senator Harding had a plurality of 395,108 over Governor Cox. The vote was: Harding, 1,161,058; Cox, 765,950.

I. C. C. Allows Petition of Executive Rail Officials

Washington, Nov. 5.—Claims of railroad employes in semi-executive positions for recognition by the railroad labor board as "subordinate officials" with the exception of supervisory station agents were allowed today by the Interstate Commerce commission.

Supervisory station agents were held by the commission to be official and responsible representatives of the railroad companies in their relationship with the public.

Workers classed as "subordinate officials" will be permitted to place their wage questions before the board and are entitled to representation on the labor board.

Hays May Come to Omaha For Republican Celebration

Plans for a mammoth republican jollification meeting over the election landslide are being held up in Omaha pending definite word from Will H. Hays, republican national chairman, who is being urged to come to Omaha for the meeting.

All arrangements except selection of the time and place are being concluded by W. G. Ure, republican county chairman, who said the meeting probably would be held next Thursday.

Charge Japanese Consul Too Active in Election

Washington, Nov. 5.—Residents of Los Angeles made formal complaint to the State department that Ujiro Oyama, Japanese consul at that place, had displayed "pernicious activity" in attempting to oppose the anti-Japanese land law in the elections in California, Tuesday.

It was announced at the State department that the complainants had been informed that proof of their allegations should be presented.

Shortage of Water Forces Big Paper Plant to Close

Escanaba, Mich., Nov. 5.—The Escanaba Paper company, one of the largest in the northwest, will close Saturday due to shortage of water caused by lack of rainfall in nearby streams. During the past month the plant has been running half capacity. The plant employs hundreds of men.

Count to Be Asked.

Newark, O., Nov. 5.—Congressman W. A. Ashbrook, democrat, probably will ask for a recount of ballots in his 17th Ohio congressional district. Complete returns from the six counties in the district today gave D. M. Morgan, republican, a lead of 110, though Morgan claims his election by 141 votes.
